

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

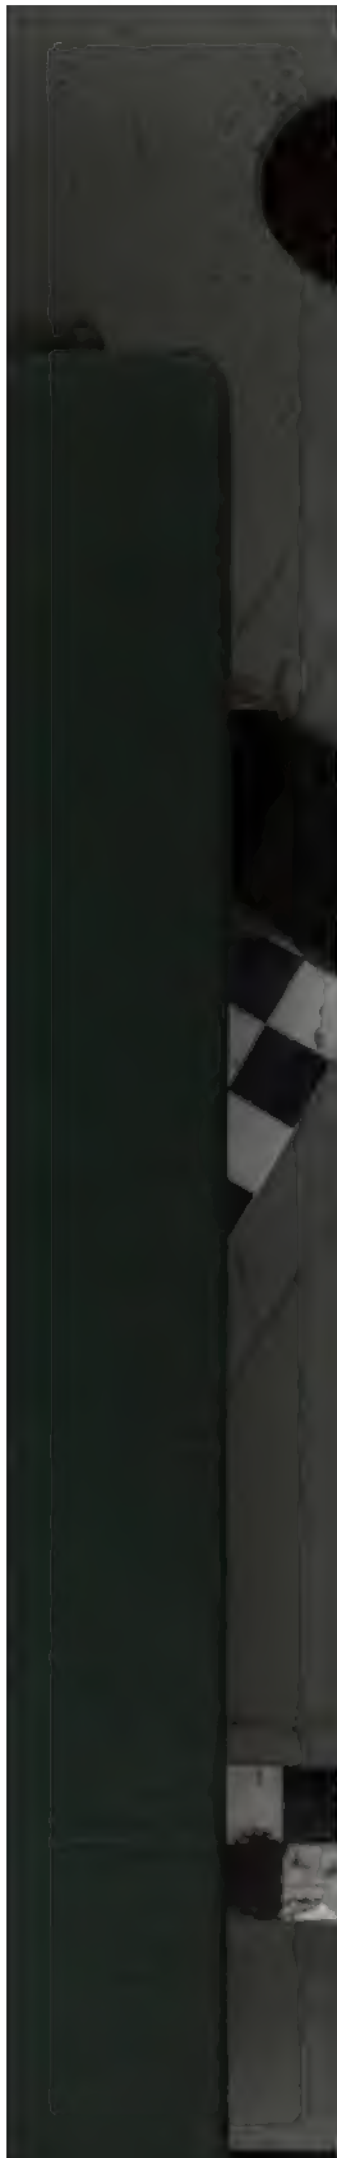

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. The Rev. Dr. Wrigley of the Committee upon that portion of the Financial Board's Report relating to Exempt Parishes, presented the following

REPORT :

The Committee, to whom was referred that portion of the Report of the Financial Board which pertains to parishes claiming exemption from assessment for the Episcopate Fund, beg leave to report : That as certain parishes claim exemption from assessment for the support of the Episcopate, by reason of certain moneys paid into the Episcopate Fund, the payment of which certain sums was to relieve said parishes from all further contributions, and, as such sums in several instances, at the present rate of interest, do not produce as much as would be secured from the parishes at the present rate of Diocesan Assessment, we therefore recommend that such parishes be asked to take up an annual offering for the support of the Episcopate, and that such offering shall be equal, at least, to the difference between the amount actually received from the interest on sums contributed by any parish and the amount that would be received from said parish under the present Diocesan Assessment.

On motion the report was adopted.

The Council then went into a Committee of the Whole.

The business of the Committee was suspended in order that the Council might receive the report of the Tellers.

For Deputy to the General Convention : The Rev. James W. Ashton, D. D.

For Deputy : The Rev. R. R. McG. Converse, D. D.

For Provisional Deputy : The Rev. Messrs. C. H. Boynton and W. C. Roberts.

The Council proceeded to ballot to fill vacancies.

The Rev. Mr. Richards, of Standing Committee upon the Report of the Trustees of the Episcopate Fund, presented the following which, on motion, was received and placed on file :

REPORT,

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE FUND FOR THE SUPPORT OF THE EPISCOPATE.

The Committee on the Report of the Trustees of the Fund for the support of the Episcopate respectfully report as follows :

The report of the Treasurer and the Trustees of the Fund for the support of the Episcopate referred to this committee has been examined by them.

No vouchers have been submitted, nor any certificate of the depository, as to the cash balance to the credit of this fund. Except as above stated, the report is in approved form, and to it is appended a detailed statement of the investments of the fund, which statement your committee respectfully recommend shall be printed in the Journal with the report, designating the names of the mortgagors by the use of initials only.

Attention is called to the following facts which the report shows :

- | | |
|----------------------------------|--------------------|
| 1. The total amount of fund..... | $45,284.72 |
| 2. Non-producing..... | 4,874.50 |
| 3. Net productive fund..... | $40,410.22 |
| 4. Income..... | 1,811.61 or |
- at the rate of about 4½%.

5. The rather large uninvested sum ($8,642.22), deposited in Safe Deposit Co. and drawing 3½%. This is doubtless partly due to the addition to the fund of $3,000.00 reported by the Trustees.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE B. RICHARDS,
W. B. RANKINE,

Committee.

The Rev. Dr. Ashton, of the Committee on Constitution and Canons, presented a report recommending the adoption of the following amendment to Section II, Title Ninth :

" Title Ninth, Section II of the Constitution to read, after the word ' vote ' on the sixth line, as follows : ' When more than one Church or Chapel, ministered to each by its own pastor, shall be united under one Vestry, such separate Church or Chapel shall be entitled to one lay delegate, who shall have a vote in the Diocesan Council ; such delegate to be chosen from among and by the regular attendants of such Church or Chapel as are entitled to vote at the annual election.' " Amendment lost.

The Committee of the Whole then resumed its work.

The Committee of the Whole arose and reported to the Council that the subject referred to them had been duly considered and that the following resolution was recommended for adoption :

Resolved, That this whole subject be referred to the Council of 1902, and that meanwhile the Trustees of the college be instructed to continue their administration of its affairs on the lines of the last five years.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Crapsey the resolution was unanimously adopted.

A recess was taken until 8 o'clock.

TRINITY CHURCH, 8 P. M.

The Council met.

Prayers were said by the Rev. Dr. Nelson.

The report of the Tellers was then made. No election.

The Council proceeded to another ballot.

On motion of the Rev. Mr. Bragdon the following resolution was adopted :

Resolved, That the Secretary be directed to have printed 1,000 copies of the various amendments made since the last issue of the Constitution and Canons of this Diocese and distribute the same among the Clergy and Laity.

The Rev. Dr. Washburn, of the Committee on the Bishop Coxe Memorial Hall, presented a report, which, on motion, was received and the recommendation contained therein adopted.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE BISHOP COXE MEMORIAL HALL.

Shortly after the adjournment of the Council last year your Committee met to consider contractors' estimates upon the accepted plans and specifications and discovered that, owing to the large advance in the prices of building materials and wages, a considerable addition to the fund of $27,000.00 then in sight would be required. In view of this fact the Bishop was requested to issue a pastoral letter, stating the needs of the fund and calling upon those who had not already contributed to respond to this appeal. Bishop Walker's letter commending the project and cordially asking for generous gifts was distributed widely in the early autumn, and as a result there are now eleven more parishes and missions on the roll of donors to this object; ninety-four in all. In securing advantageous bids from builders the Committee was very considerably aided by Mr. George Cooper Hollister, of Rochester; and at a meeting held July 3d a Sub-Committee on Building was appointed, consisting of the Rev. Dr. Nelson, President, Robert E. Jones and Mr. Daniel Beach, with instructions to proceed at once with the erection of the Memorial, and to expend a sum not in excess of $33,000.00. Upon this authorization the sub-committee awarded the contract to Mr. Peter G. Houck, of Rochester, for $30,134.00, exclusive of heating and plumbing, lighting and similar incidentals. Ground was broken for the structure in August; the foundation stone was unobtrusively laid in October, and to-day the noble edifice stands almost completed. In every particular constructionally it is a noticeable triumph. Men of wide experience in such undertakings, who have inspected the Memorial, invariably express amazement that it should have cost less than $50,000.00. One hundred and ten feet square and forty-five feet high of overburned brick and terra cotta trimmings; it contains the Assembly Hall, capable of seating 500, three offices, an undergraduates' social room, five recitation rooms, four dormer rooms and a spacious basement available for recreation apartments.

The gratuitous services of Mr. Gomer Jones as Superintendent of Construction enabled a saving of one thousand dollars, and Mr. James G. Dudley, of New York, has generously contributed his expert assistance on the problems of heating, lighting and ventilation.

In March the Committee authorized an arrangement with the contractor whereby there was added to the original agreement the introduction of the ornamental ceiling trim at a cost of $1,485 00, upon advantageous terms, thus bringing the expenses up to $31,619.00, in addition to which a special gift of $600 was received for the gas-piping, after which it will be necessary to provide for the steam radiators $1,000.00 and architects' fees $1,000.00, and sundry extras perhaps $300.00 more, thereby making the eventual total outlay upon the finished Memorial about $34,519.00. We have thus far obtained from ninety-four parish collections $3,831.57 (a clerical error in last year's statement involved a disappointment in $400.00), and from personal subscriptions $25,416.50, a total of $29,248.07. Whence it appears that to successfully complete our commission we must yet secure $5,300.00, being, however, at the present time legally obligated to the contractor for but $3,200.00 of this amount, and having stipulated for a comfortable extension of time in which to pay this.

It should be added that, after thus executing our responsibility to the Diocese for this enterprise, the task of furnishing the fabric for academical uses (which must entail considerable outlay) will rest upon the college authorities.

It is evident that the work of your Committee has not reached the stage where you can permit of its discharge, we therefore recommend its continuance, and call earnest attention to our dependence upon the undiminished co-operation of you clergy and laity in the immediate duty of securing the remaining $5,000.00. There are yet forty-three congregations which have not contributed to this object; may we not rely upon receiving something from each of these? And will not others who have already given something do themselves yet greater honor by increasing their donation? Your Committee requests that, in view of the need of this Memorial movement, a second collection for it be taken in each of the churches of the Diocese on some Sunday this fall to be designated by the Standing Committee and published upon the card of canonical offerings.

Arrangements are in process of perfection for the exercises in connection with the dedication of the Memorial Building; the date has been fixed for June 18th, and the hour 4 P. M. It is hoped that all the clergy and interested laity will grace the occasion by their presence.

In concluding this report we congratulate the Diocese upon the success thus far of this laudable movement, involving the raising of one of the largest sums of money ever obtained for a Diocesan object in Western New York, and we rejoice to recognize as the prevailing cause for this measure of success the persuasive power of the cherished name of Arthur Cleveland Coxe.

The Rev. Dr. Nelson offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the thanks of the Council, as of the committee, are due to the Rev. Dr. Louis C. Washburn, for his very arduous and successful labors in obtaining funds for the Bishop Coxe Memorial, and we commend this most important work to the continued interest of our people until the entire amount necessary shall be secured.

The Rev. Dr. Ashton, of the Committee on Constitution and Canons, presented a report recommending the adoption of the proposed amendment of Title I, Canon Five, § III.*

On motion the report was received and the amendment unanimously adopted.

The Rev. Mr. Ballard, of the Standing Committee on Finance, presented the following report, which, on motion, was received.

REPORT.

The Standing Committee on Finance respectfully reports that there have been referred to it the report of the Treasurer of the Diocese, the report of the Trustees and Treasurer of the Christmas Fund, and the report of the Treasurer of the Parochial Fund. The report of the Treasurer of the Diocese has been examined, with the vouchers, by the Chairman of our Committee and found correct as to the vouchers.

The report of the Treasurer and Trustees of the Christmas Fund is in approved form, and appended to it is the usual certificate of auditors as to the correctness of the report and as to the proper investment of the moneys of the fund.

The report of the Treasurer of the Trustees of the Parochial Fund is a full statement of the condition of the various funds under the control of the Trustees, and is audited by two auditors appointed by the Bishop, whose certificate is annexed thereto.

The Tellers made their report. No election.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Washburn, the Secretary was instructed to cast the ballot for the Rev. Dr. Boynton as a Provisional Deputy. The ballot was cast, and Dr. Boynton declared duly elected.

The following resolution, offered by the Rev. Mr. Bragdon, was unanimously adopted :

Resolved, That a committee of five be appointed by the Chair to prepare and present to the next Council resolutions that will bring before the said Council, in a form suitable for its consideration, the questions considered in the opinion of the Hon. John G. Milburn in the matter of the re-establishment of the pay-pupil department at De Veaux College.

The Bishop appointed as such committee the Chancellor, the Rev. Dr. Regester, the Rev. Mr. Faber, Judge W. H. Adams and the Rev. Dr. Smith.

The Rev. Mr. Berry, of the Standing Committee on Archives and Annals, presented the following report, which, on motion, was received :

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON ARCHIVES AND ANNALS.

The Committee on Archives and Annals reports that the Journals of the various Dioceses and other publications received by the Registrar during the year are duly filed in the Archives room. The Registrar has also sent Journals to Dioceses, individuals and institutions, as requested by them or by the Secretary of the Diocese.

The Registrar still pleads, as he has done for years, for an appropriation from the funds of the Diocese for necessary binding of Journals, and also a small sum for locks for book cases. The Registrar calls attention to the fact that it would be agreeable to him, if, when requests for Journals are made by others than the Diocesan Clergy, the necessary postage accompany the request.

JAMES ROY, LL. D.,

Chairman.

The Rev. Dr. Washburn, of the Committee on the De Lancey School for Girls, presented the following report, which, on motion, was received and the Committee discharged :

REPORT ON THE DE LANCEY SCHOOL FOR GIRLS.

The Committee continued by the last Council to request the Trustees of this Church School to extend for another year the date for expiration of the option to the Diocese on their property, and to co-operate in securing the funds needed to enable us to claim the institution as a Diocesan School, respectfully report that we have done all that we could to accomplish the purpose declared in these instructions, but failed to raise the requisite $10,000.00. The Trustees generously granted the request for an extension of time until April 1, 1901; in order to make it possible for them to do this, one of our Committee volunteered to solicit and provide $500.00, which has been done, toward the current interest on the mortgages; the opportunity for contributing toward the end desired has been presented to many, but the responses were so inconsiderable that in March we formally notified the Trustees that in behalf of the Diocese we were compelled to relinquish the option upon this very desirable property.

While your Committee must record the expression of its sincere regret that the Diocese has not seen fit to avail itself of such an unusual opportunity, it would, at the same time, congratulate the Trustees upon now having possession of the property unencumbered by the option, and we cordially hope for the school a long and prosperous career under the able leadership of Miss Smart. We recommend the adopting of the following resolution: That this report be received, our action approved, and the Committee discharged.

The following resolution, offered by the Rev. Dr. Nelson, was adopted:

Resolved, That the Clergy people of this Diocese be, and hereby are, urgently requested to make special efforts in the way of gifts for the missionary work of the Church to prevent the threatened deficit in the funds of the General Missionary Board of the Church.

The Tellers then made their report. No election.

The Council then proceeded to ballot again.

The Rev. Mr. Bennett, of the Standing Committee on Non-reporting Clergy and Parishes, presented the following report, which, on motion, was received:

REPORT :

To the Rt. Rev. W. D. Walker, D. D., LL. D. :

I have already given quite detailed accounts of my work among the deaf in Western New York in my reports to the Archdeaconries of Buffalo and Rochester, so my report to you will be largely a repetition and combination of these separate reports.

Since the first of September last my work, as a missionary to the deaf, has been exclusively restricted to the Diocese of Western New York, but my report will include all work done since my last annual report.

Since my work was restricted to this Diocese I have held one service on the first four Sundays of each month in Buffalo and Rochester, devoting all fifth Sundays and one or two week days each week to visiting the smaller places. On alternate Friday evenings an organization of our people in Buffalo, known as the Pan à Pan Literary Society, has had its meetings in S. Paul's Parish House. This society is well organized, and at present has a membership of nearly twenty. I am expecting this society will aid us in our mission work in Buffalo. In Rochester similar meetings are held every Thursday evening in the Parish House of S. Luke's Church.

During the year I have visited the following places in the Diocese, either for services or to visit deaf mutes : Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Lockport, Tonawanda, Jamestown, Fluvanna. Perry, Rochester, Albion, Avon, Geneva, Watkins, Corning and Corfu.

The total number of services has been 132. There have been 34 celebrations of the Holy Communion, 8 baptisms, 10 confirmations and 3 marriages. A large number of pastoral visits have been made, a number of sick have been visited, assistance rendered to the destitute and work secured for a few. I have had the assistance of Rev Dr. Gallaudet, of New York, the Rev. Harry Van Allen, of Albany, the Revs. C. H. Smith, T B. Berry and C. E. Byram, of Buffalo, and the Rev. E. P. Hart, of Rochester, they either holding services or interpreting at services for the deaf. I have the names and records of 334 deaf mutes residing in this Diocese. Of these 163 have been more or less regular in attendance on our services, and 72 are communicants. A number are now either preparing for, or seriously thinking of, confirmation and baptism.

I cannot present a glowing picture of our work in Buffalo, although much hard work was done there during the past year. I have already given the reasons for this condition of affairs in my report to the Archdeaconry of Buffalo, and which, I think, it will be unnecessary to repeat here. Still I believe that after a while the work will show better results. The average attendance has been barely above ten, but recently we have had as many as twenty at services on several occasions. The Mission in Buffalo has raised during the year $41.46, which was apportioned as follows: Missionary's Expense Fund, $25.00; Diocesan Missions, $6.00; Sundry Expenses, $6 51; for Emergency Fund, $3.95. Our Emergency Fund, which can be used only for providing needed furnishings for the Buffalo Mission, known and designated as S. Bede's Mission, now amounts to $121 96.

The interest in the services at S. Luke's, Rochester, is continually increasing. During the past winter, in spite of bad weather and the distance which many of the deaf mutes have to cover between their homes and the Church, the attendance has on ten occasions been above twenty, and the highest attendance has been 42, while the average attendance throughout the year has been 15. Lectures have occasionally been delivered to our people in Rochester, and the Rev. Louis C. Washburn, the Rev. E. P. Hart and Dr Z. F. Westervelt have our thanks for very interesting stereopticon talks.

Sixty-four dollars and twenty-six cents was raised by the Mission in Rochester, and this was disbursed as follows: Missionary's Expense Fund, $25.00; Chefoo (China), Deaf Mute School, $2 00; Bishop Coxe Memorial, $3 00; Gallaudet Home for Aged and Infirm Deaf Mutes, $6.75; S. Luke's News, $2 00; Diocesan Missions, $5 00; Printing, Postage, etc., $4.21; Gift to Sexton, $1.00; for the Emergency Fund, $15.30.

It is now eight months since my work was restricted to this Diocese, and I think that on the whole the results are quite encouraging. The average attendance at services is better than it was a year ago, and there is a large number of candidates for confirmation.

I know it is sometimes asked whether the mission to the Deaf pays for the outlay of money expended, meaning thereby, I suppose, whether there are permanent gains to the Church in accessions through the labors of the missionaries. Now, our work is for all deaf mutes, irrespective of denominational ties, and deaf mutes of all creeds—the Jew and the Gentile, the Roman Catholic and the Protestant—are seen at our services. Many learn to follow in our services who yet never give up membership in the church of their parents, and no attempt is made to proselytize among these—still they learn to love our beautiful service, and some are, later on, brought to confirmation. Nine years ago I baptized and brought to confirmation a young girl in Rome, N. Y., while she was a pupil at the school for deaf mutes situated there. She became a faithful attendant on the services of the church, and on returning to her home near Jamestown she had her parents take her to S. Luke's Church with more or less regularity. This brought her parents under the influence of the church, and the result was that they were soon baptized and confirmed; and, later on, a brother and sister were led to take the same steps. Then the sister's husband, a prominent lawyer in a town in Pennsylvania, was also brought under the influence of the church, and this is not all, for the young lady herself was married recently to a Roman Catholic, but before marriage she prevailed on him to renounce Romanism, and last summer I had the happiness to baptize the infant child of the couple. So this one young woman has, through her influence and example, brought nine souls into the Church, and many grown up children of deaf mutes have become communicants of the Church through the interest excited by the Mission to the Deaf.

I have not made any attempt as yet to collect data as to the number of hearing relatives and friends of deaf mutes brought into the Church through our ministrations, still I believe the interesting case of the young lady above referred to is a sufficient answer to the query "Does the Deaf Mute Mission Pay?"

Very truly yours,

C. ORVIS DANTZER,

Missionary.

11 Mason St., Rochester, N. Y., May 20, 1901.

The following resolution, offered by the Rev. Dr. Washburn, was adopted:

WHEREAS, The canonical application for admission into the Diocese of Grace Church, Dundee, was duly signed by fourteen members of that congregation sixteen months ago, and handed to the Bishop at the last Council, and

WHEREAS, The Bishop endorsed said application, therefore be it

Resolved, That this Council hereby approves of the admission into union with the Diocese of said Grace Church, Dundee.

The Tellers made their report. No election.

A call for the roll of the Council was then made, and it was found that a quorum was not present.

The minntes were read and adopted.

After prayers had been said the Council adjourned sine die.

APPENDIX I.

THE BISHOP'S ADDRESS.

BEGINNING.

Reverend Brethren, and Brethren of the Laity:

I welcome you in these festive days of this community's life to our Queen City. She invites the world to gather within her borders and behold that beautiful imperium in imperio, the Rainbow City. With a pardonable pride she asks you to turn your eyes to the evidences of enterprise, of growth in art, and of civic splendor which characterize Buffalo. And I think none will visit that wonderful creation on the edge of our city without confessing that it is a commendable public spirit and a high sense of the beautiful and a remarkable esprit du corps that has distinguished our citizens and their labors in behalf of the Pan-American.

The thought of banding together for mutual advantage, and in a spirit of brotherhood, the varied nations of the three Americas is one that we, as Christian men, must applaud. What serves to increase harmony and stimulate peace among countries that have diverse interests and resources must ever be encouraged and commended by those who pray and labor for the establishment of the Master's reign on earth.

This is pre-eminently the "Convention City" this year, and it seemed appropriate that the Church should hold its annual gathering within our gates, equally with the industrial and benevolent and social and religious bodies of every style and name. And so your Bishop asked you to come, and in the name of the Church in Buffalo again he greets you and bids you welcome.

THE NEW CENTURY.

It is our first Council since the new century dawned. We naturally, standing on its threshold, turn our eyes down the vista of a hundred years, and what a record of growth does this Church of ours show in the State of New York! What a weakling it was when the century began! It was practically despised by the men who had part in the Revolution. I mean, of course, by the average of the people. I do not close my eyes to the fact that signers of the Declaration of Independence, warriors in the struggle for liberty, leaders in the first Congress, men of highest name and fame all over the original thirteen States—and these in goodly number—were Churchmen. But it is, nevertheless, a truth that it was accounted the representative of Toryism and of monarchical authority—yes!—and of prelatical pretension—by the mass. The Puritan was its foe. The original Knickerbockers had no love for it. The rank and file who represented the different religious bodies that had taken root here cared not for it. It was a day of strong animosities when the century began. And the odium theologicum was a reality. New York's first Bishop had been only three years in office. The clergy were few in number, and they were in the attitude of apologists for the Church's right to exist at all. The communicants numbered only a few thousand in the whole State. Parishes were few except in the city of New York. Our Buffalo and Rochester and Geneva and Lockport had, if any at all, scarcely an existence.

But to-day we can, with thankfulness, point to the increase in clergy and parishes and contributions as remarkable. I am here giving you the statistics—not, as you well know, always to be relied upon—which the Church almanacs of last year present. Doubtless, however, they closely approximate to the truth. They inform us that the Church within the borders of this Empire State numbers as many as 850 parishes and missions; that there are 921 clergymen in canonical relation to the different Dioceses—this, of course, does not include many who are officiating by license;—that there are 163,834 communicants, and that contributions to the extent of $6,081,323.87 have been made within the past year for charitable and Ecclesiastical purposes.

It seems to me that this exhibits a healthy growth and a degree of prosperity for which we may lift our voices in hearty thanksgiving to Almighty God.

Whatever the cares and discouragements that may come to one or another of us in our individual sphere of labor, we may take heart from the fact that the divine organization, the dear Church of Jesus, to whom we owe homage, and of which we are favored members, is making headway in this great Commonwealth, and is winning to her banners and her responsibilities ever-increasing numbers year by year. For its splendid victories to Him who is the Head be all the glory and all the praise.

NECROLOGY.

Five honored names were not heard at roll-call to-day. Those who bore them have gone to rest, “life’s fitful fever over.”

Each had long association with the Diocese, and each was eminently devoted and useful in his day and generation. Their names are:

1. The Rev. W. O. Jarvis.

For many a year past he was incapacitated for work, and so, while in canonical relation to us, he took no active part with us. In the days, however, when health permitted, I am told that he was aggressive and earnest. At Niagara Falls and in Fredonia he labored with a hearty faithfulness for many years.

In this city of Buffalo he spent the closing two years, or thereabouts, of life, and while for a long time unable to leave his room, his clear mind and his devout soul amid feebleness and suffering showed the man whom God had guided, and whom the "peace that passeth understanding" had stayed and comforted until the day of absolute rest came, when he passed to the world beyond.

2. The Rev. Francis Gilliat.

To repeat his name is simply to call up before the eyes of many of my brethren present the face of a modest, courteous, gentle man.

With a patient industry and a careful devotion he labored through many years in different parishes in this Diocese and elsewhere. His record was that of a godly and devout priest of the Saviour's Church. One could never hear him read the Holy Scriptures in his reverent and feeling way without realizing that in the very reading, God's word was being expounded. It was not in a dull monotone or with a breakneck speed that he gave utterance to the lessons that the Church had for her people from the Divine Scriptures Sunday by Sunday. They were intelligently read, and they were read in a spirit of awe and honoring devotion which helped to worship of the King and to thankfulness for the great message of Salvation from the Heavens. And this is no small gift. It is a spiritual power. I have seen great congregations hanging upon the lips of a solemn, reverent reader, as he gave to their ears with an understanding mind the Word of God.

I am not advocating the preaching of Holy Scripture in which some indulge. Nor do I ask that the graces of a Shakespearean orator be thrown into this part of a clergyman's service. But I think there is more slovenliness and of seeming indifference to the edifying quality which may, where there is thorough consecration, enter into the reading of the lessons or the Gospels than there ought to be on the part of some.

Oh ! how often may we help souls as we read in their ears with reverent mien the Divine comforts which God hath given in the Holy Scriptures.

3. Rev. Lyman H. Sherwood.

His name will be associated in the minds of many here with the science of Music, and the progress made in the knowledge thereof in Western New York. For perhaps nearly two generations he was before the people as one who gave an impetus to the study of that noble art. Although advanced in years, he never passed beyond the Diaconate.

Since I came into the Diocese, and for a long time before, I am told, Mr. Sherwood had not engaged in active work. In the seclusion of the town of Lyons he passed his closing years, respected and loved of many.

4. Rev. Frederick S. Hyde.

Our Reverend brother followed his brother to rest very soon. Last year we recalled the departure of Rev. Melancthon Hyde, as you will remember. This year the remaining one of the two who consecrated themselves to the Ministry left us.

For years he had been engaged in no regular active labors. Lack of health prevented. His work at Trinity, Rochester, and at the Church of the Ascension in the same city, is known to the older clergy of the Diocese. He was the founder of the latter parish. It was a wise deed. The day is coming when it will stand, as I believe, among the foremost in the Flower City.

So we recall with loving memory these departed brethren who have fallen asleep in Jesus.

DE VEAUX COLLEGE.

De Veaux College and its interests—what shall be the policy of the future—what legally and righteously may be done to increase its efficiency—this is a subject that perforce and through a time-limit comes before us at this Council.

The value of the College, its useful past, its healthy condition now, are facts patent to all. That it is accomplishing less than many would desire, in view of the conditions that surround the institution, is obvious. What it is doing, it is doing well. But many feel that it is not doing enough. That is my opinion, too. The cause is not in the Trustees or in the Faculty. It is in the limitations established five years ago, when this Council felt it expedient to change the policy of the Institution. These years have taught the wisdom of taking no step in the future without the clear authority of law for every movement made. I personally stand upon that platform, and declare my unerring determination to advocate no course of action which has not the consent of the courts. Whatever interpretations may be put upon the terms of the will of Judge De Veaux—and upon this subject there are broad differences of opinion on the part of many conscientious men—I as President of the Board of Trustees—and the Board is unanimous in its conclusions also—will in no way encourage any movement which is subversive of or contradictory to the decisions of the Bench in the matter.

Not only so, it is the feeling of this Board also that in all action in the future it will gladly—as it has for years past—conform to the decisions of this Council as to the conduct of the affairs of De Veaux College. The entire harmony and the respectful relation which exists between these two bodies to-day is a matter of great comfort to me as Bishop of the Diocese, and is also a cause of strong confidence in the work and administration of De Veaux everywhere among the Churchmen of Western New York.

This happy condition of affairs is giving energy and enthusiasm to the Board of Trustees, and they are feeling that a cause so harmoniously and unanimously encouraged is a cause worth giving best talents and a conscientious thought and labor to. And so able and prominent men are bestowing valuable time upon its affairs and faithfully solving problems of one species or another that are needing settlement. This is the condition—harmony, good-will, moderate progress, peace. Bills are paid, Capital is unimpaired. Management is economical. The institution is a success. But it is not doing the maximum of its work. This is the point.

It has twenty-six students. It can accommodate from seventy to eighty. It has a Campus and a Chapel and a Refectory where echoes resound because of unfilled spaces that were once brimming with intelligent and energetic youths equipping themselves eagerly for the work and conflict of life. Whatever our views may be regarding the present system and policy, one thing must be confessed—that the aching voids where once there was a pulsing life, give chill and melancholy to the visitor within the walls of De Veaux to-day. There is the sense of a waste of energy, of a great Corliss engine used to drive one little sewing machine.

There must be so many instructors to maintain the right educational standard. There must be so many employees to keep the buildings from decay. There must be so much fuel to maintain the necessary temperature when wintry winds blow. There is therefore a running expense-account which may not be abridged. There are first charges that must be paid. It is the magnitude of the Institution that compels these conditions. This forces us to a limit in the number of foundationers who may be admitted to our privileges. They are too few. I have stated the number—twenty-six or twenty-seven in the course of the year. But the income of the endowment forbids an extension in the work. And in this day of reduced rates of interest on investments we will be forced to still farther reduce the ranks of the College.

I wish to emphasize the statement that the management is economical. Figures—those things that can lie sometimes—seem to deny this. If you base the cost of each boy upon the total expenditure for the maintenance of the Institution, you have, seemingly, a refutation of my claim.

By that law of reckoning, each boy costs a great deal more than he ought. He is an expensive luxury for the College. The showing is a seemingly very unsatisfactory showing from that view-point. We wish it could be otherwise. But it cannot unless we starve the students or establish a Dotheboys Hall instead of a De Veaux, and resort to Squeers' delectable diet of sulphur and treacle.

I am told that every railroad has fixed charges. These must be recognized and expended before they can carry one passenger. These are necessarily large. But these met, and the earning capacity is dependent upon the number of patrons which, with little added expenditure, may be almost illimitable.

These are facts, too, which govern in the conduct of a Hospital, a Factory, a Bank, even a Church, to a degree. They are the facts which make an education obtained at our Institution a costly one indeed, while our numbers remain as limited as they are to-day.

There is no expedient that has not been tried to reduce expenses. Every economy that is possible has been practiced by the conscientious Headmaster and the careful and devoted Treasurer. Each is ever on the alert to save every possible dollar. And yet farther reductions are simply impossible.

We are not responsible for the largeness of the plant, nor are we responsible for the greatness of the expense in maintaining that plant at par.

We inherited these. We also inherited the responsibility of securing against its deterioration and decay.

And, too, we inherited an obligation to the Founder to obtain as much return for the rich property he so generously consecrated to such a noble use, in increasing as largely as we may the contingent of students who may derive privilege and lifelong advantage from his splendid benefaction.

Your trustees have a profound sense of the high sacredness of a trust, and naught can induce them to betray that which is committed to them.

And now we are confronted, as a Council, with the question—what is our duty to De Veaux? What can we do toward a fuller development and toward the increase of its usefulness? On the present basis its work must be diminished, as the report of the Trustees will show. The shriveling in its capacity for good is purely a financial difficulty. We have every needed appliance for an increased work to the extent of an additional twenty-five per cent. of students.

About three years ago the Bishop and Standing Committee, with the co-operation of the Board of Trustees, submitted documents and papers of every sort bearing upon De Veaux College, to the Hon. J. G. Milburn, with the view of obtaining from him an opinion as to the powers of all the parties interested. After a faithful examination of the whole subject he presented a written opinion of considerable length, which is searching and exhaustive in its character. It will throw strong and helpful light upon the whole subject, and may aid all here in determining the wise and righteous and legal duty of the Council on this important matter. I now proceed to read this learned and discriminating and sober paper of Mr. Milburn:

Gentlemen:

I have given the questions submitted to me concerning De Veaux College careful consideration, and now beg to submit my conclusions.

The principal question is whether it is within the powers of the College to take pupils who pay for their education, and if it be, under what, if any, restrictions?

The Act incorporating De Veaux College (L. 1853, Ch. 243) explicitly states that the College is incorporated "to carry into effect and to promote the benevolent design of Samuel de Veaux, late of the County of Niagara, deceased, as expressed in his will, bearing date August 3d, 1852, by which certain real and personal estate is directed to be applied 'for the purpose of establishing, founding and maintaining a benevolent institution to receive and support orphan and destitute children; to train them up to industry; to learn them trades and professions, and to give them a mental and manual and a social and religious education.' " It is provided that the body corporate thereby created "shall be deemed and taken to be the corporation directed by the said will to be formed, and as such shall and may take, hold and enjoy for the purposes expressed in the said will, and no other, the real and personal estate therein directed to be applied to the said purposes, as fully to all intents and purposes as if the said corporation had been formed at the time of the death of the said Samuel de Veaux." The corporation is empowered to take and hold real or personal estate "for the purposes aforesaid," the yearly income of which shall not exceed the sum of fifteen thousand dollars. By the second section of the Act it is provided that the Trustees of the corporation shall take charge and possession of the property so bequeathed and devised by the will of Samuel de Veaux "and all other funds and real or personal estate whatever that may be acquired by the said corporation, and manage and dispose of the same, and apply the income and avails thereof to the purpose expressed as aforesaid in the said will, and to no other." The Act is entitled, "An Act to Incorporate the De Veaux College for Orphan and Destitute Children," and Section 6 of Ch. 295 of the Laws of 1883, provides that it shall be known by that corporate name. Ch. 385 of the Laws of 1857 contains elaborate provisions for binding orphan and destitute children to the College, thereby entitling them to its benefits and subjecting them to its regulations and restraints; and authorizing the College, when they shall have arrived at a suitable age, to bind them as apprentices to suitable persons engaged in the various trades and occupations.

The Trustees of Samuel de Veaux's will were, by the will, directed to "incorporate under the General Law of this State, a benevolent institution for the purposes herein named, or obtain a special Act of the Legislature for that purpose" The purposes named in the will are recited in the language of the will itself, in the first section of the Act of 1853. They may be briefly stated to be the establishment and maintenance of a benevolent institution for the support and education of orphans and destitute children.

The powers of this corporation are those conferred upon it by the Act under which it is incorporated, and those necessary to the exercise of the powers so conferred. It is not necessary to refer to the general powers conferred by Title III, of Ch. XVIII of the Revised Statutes mentioned in the Act, because they have no bearing on any question under consideration. Taking the Act of 1853 and the will of Samuel de Veaux together it is perfectly clear that the corporation is a benevolent institution incorporated for the education and support of orphan and destitute children. The will directs that the institution to be incorporated shall be one to subserve those purposes, and the Act provides that the corporation it creates shall be deemed and taken to be the corporation directed by the will to be formed. The property given is directed by the will to be applied to the specific purpose stated, and the Act provides that not only that property, but whatever property the corporation may acquire, shall be applied to that purpose, and no other. The scope and meaning of the will and the Act of incorporation are perfectly plain and unambiguous. They are the sources of the powers of De Veaux College, and the only powers there to be found are those which pertain to a benevolent institution for the support and education of orphan and destitute children. What those powers are, the character and purposes of such an institution pretty clearly define without any other elucidation. There can be little room for difference or doubt as to the nature of such an institution, and the powers appropriate to it.

A college for the education of those whose parents are able to pay, and actually do pay, is quite a different institution. I find nothing in the Act of 1853 creating such an institution or authorizing the corporation created to establish or maintain a college on such a basis. Neither is there anything in the Act from which such an authority may be implied. The question is one primarily of corporate power ; not one of the use of corporate funds and property. This corporation may exercise the powers conferred upon it and no other ; it may use its funds and property in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it, and no other. The Act of incorporation read in connection with the will of Samuel de Veaux defines what its powers and functions are, and consequently the uses to which its property and funds may be put. The only powers and functions conferred upon it are those of a benevolent institution with specific objects ; and such an institution it must be and remain in the whole scope of its work and management under existing legislation.

At the same time, I do not think it is transcending its powers in taking, within certain limits, pupils who pay, as an incident, to its main work. The limits within which this may be done are, in my judgment, very restricted. It is not easy to define them in specific terms. Perhaps an illustration will best convey my meaning. The institution has certain buildings, and it must be easy to estimate how many free pupils its income from its property will permit of being taken. For that number a certain staff and equipment are necessary. That indispensable staff and equipment being furnished, it may be a fact that they and the existing buildings are adequate to the care and instruction of more than the free pupils who can be supported, and to the extent that it is so, I think pupils may be taken at a sum which equals or exceeds the cost of their board and tuition. I can indicate in no better way the limit within which the latter class of pupils may be taken ; and, as I view the matter, they may not be taken on any other theory or principle. The test to be applied seems to me to be a perfectly practicable one. If it be observed the corporation will be primarily and fundamentally such an institution as the will provides for and Act creates. Receiving pupils who pay to the extent stated is not in the least a diversion of it from its corporate purposes as set forth in the will and its Act of incorporation, nor a diversion of its funds, but a mere incident to its main work in the interest of efficiency and economy. To go beyond that in taking pupils who pay, even though the sum they pay exceeds the cost of their board and tuition, and is, therefore, no diversion of the funds of the corporation, is, in my judgment, unauthorized, because the maintenance of such an educational establishment is not within the letter or spirit of the Act of incorporation.

I am aware that for a period of thirty years paying pupils were received and educated in the College. If their admission were merely a means of utilizing to their full capacity the accommodations and indispensable staff of the institution, it was, in my opinion, entirely warranted and unobjectionable. If they were received in such numbers as to require an increase of the accommodations and force, the corporation, I think, exceeded its charter powers, and the State, through the Attorney General, might have interfered to prevent its being done in the future. If they paid a sum larger than the cost of their board and tuition, no question of a diversion of the property would be involved, even though the corporation exceeded its powers in taking them. So far as the future is concerned, if it is intended only to take pupils who pay at such a rate to the extent of utilizing fully the accommodations and indispensable corps of employees and instructors, no trustee is, in my judgment, justified in questioning that policy being adopted and pursued. If any trustee still has scruples, I suggest submitting this opinion to the Attorney General of the State, and, if he approves it, there is no reason why it should not be accepted as final by everyone.

If a wider policy be intended—one which contemplates admitting paying pupils beyond the limit I have indicated—one of two courses should be pursued ; either the Act incorporating the College should be amended so as clearly to permit of that being done, or legal proceedings should be instituted in which a decision will put the matter at rest one way or the other. The most direct and efficacious measure is a simple amendment of the Act of incorporation. I have no doubt of the power of the Legislature to so amend the Act of incorporation as to permit of paying pupils being taken, thereby placing the College on a broader basis of usefulness as well as enabling it to carry out more effectively the purpose and design of its founder. The amendment need only provide that paying pupils may be taken, and restrict the use of the property acquired and held for benevolent purposes to those purposes. A scheme combining these elements is perfectly practicable, and has the sanction of over thirty years of experience, and such an amending Act could not be regarded in any sense as an innovation. In its absence it must be considered an open question to what extent the power to take paying pupils exists. After much reflection I can devise no means of settling that question judicially excepting an action by the Attorney General or a trustee. A resolution being adopted to receive a certain fixed number of paying pupils, sections 1781 and 1782 of the Code of Civil Procedure impress me as being broad enough to authorize the Attorney General or a trustee to bring a suit in which the validity of that action would be determined. (People v. Ballard, 134 N. Y., 269.) I think an objecting trustee should maintain such an action without the aid of those provisions of the Code as a matter of ordinary equity jurisdiction. No other means of obtaining a judicial determination occurs to me, and I am confident there is none. There is no way of presenting the matter to the Court as an abstract proposition without reference to some recognized form of action or actual relief to be granted through the medium of a judgment determining a real controversy. Such an action as I have indicated would be founded on all allegations questioning the power of the College to take paying pupils either altogether or beyond a certain point, and the relief asked would be that the trustees be restrained from receiving them. The trustees who are parties defendant to the action, or the corporation if the action be brought by the Attorney General against it, will assert the right and power, and the issue thus framed will involve the determination of the open question as to the powers of the corporation. As I view the matter the choice lies between an amendment to the Act of incorporation and such an action. An enabling amendment is much the more satisfactory and effective measure of the two. Legal proceedings, however amicable in their origin, are too apt to engender injurious controversies. Yet, if an action be necessary, there is no reason why it should not accomplish its purpose without any friction if the real issues are formulated in advance to the satisfaction of the representative of the trustees who hold conflicting views.

I am further asked to define the powers of the Council of the Diocese and its Standing Committee. A reference to the Acts relating to the College is sufficient on this subject.

The proceedings of the trustees are to be recorded in a book which is to be always open to the examination of the Bishop and the Standing Committee of the Diocese. (L. 1853, Ch. 243, Sec. 2, as amended by L. 1883, Ch. 295, and L. 1891, Ch. 158.) No act of the trustees appropriating money in excess of the annual income of the corporation is to be valid unless approved by the Council of the Diocese or by the Bishop and Standing Committee. (Idem.) The trustees are to furnish annually to the Bishop and Standing Committee a full report of the property and funds of the corporation, of their receipts and disbursements, and of various other matters specified in the Act; and a like report to the Council at its annual session, with copies of all special reports made to the Bishop and Standing Committee. (Idem.) The trustees are to be elected by the Council. (L. 1883, Ch. 295, Sec. 4.) These are the specific powers. Sec. 6 of the Act of 1883 (Ch. 295) is so important that I quote it :

“The said corporation shall be under the general control and supervision of the Council of the Diocese, which shall have power, from time to time, to make such rules and regulations for the management of its affairs as may be deemed necessary and proper.”

The language of this section is so clear that nothing is left for construction. The trustees are the actual governing body of the corporation, but the Council has the power to make rules and regulations for the management of its affairs, which the trustees must observe.

JOHN G. MILBURN.

Dated April 30, 1898.

This opinion, as it seems to me, is logical and in harmony with common sense. Getting at the pith thereof we are confronted with this statement, viz: that it is competent for this Council to authorize, if it see fit, the Board of Trustees to admit pay pupils to a certain extent within the walls of De Veaux College. The limitations are clear and well-defined. Not one dollar beyond the cost of carrying on the present work is to be expended. No additions are to be made to the corps of teachers or other helpers. The status, so far as money outlay goes, is to be rigidly retained at the present standard. The one exception, of course, is the cost of the food needful for the additional students should any be admitted. This is recovered from the tuition fees received. Under these conditions, we are, therefore, permitted, Mr. Milburn's convictions being correct, to receive students paying for their tuition, to the extent of utilizing fully the accommodations and indispensable corps of employees and instructors who are now necessary to and engaged in performing the legitimate work of the College.

As you observed, the writer of this opinion suggested that if any trustees still have scruples, this opinion should be submitted to the Attorney General of the State. He adds that "if he approves it, there is no reason why it should not be accepted as final by everyone."

In pursuance of this recommendation the Board of Trustees appointed Mr. Wm. B. Rankine, one of their number, a Committee of one, to communicate with the Attorney General and lay the whole matter before him for his decision.

As the result I will now read the correspondence bearing upon it:

RIGHT REVEREND AND DEAR SIR—Pursuant to a resolution of the Board of Trustees of De Veaux College, and acting in their behalf, I submitted recently to the Attorney General of the State of New York the opinion rendered to the Board of Trustees by John G. Milburn, Esq., relating to the construction of certain provisions of Judge De Veaux's will, and particularly to the question of the admission to the College of pay pupils.

Under date of the 10th inst., I have received a letter from the Attorney General concurring in that portion of Mr. Milburn's opinion which advises the trustees that they are warranted in admitting to the College pay pupils simply as a means and to the extent of utilizing fully the accommodations and indispensable corps of employees and instructors. A copy of the Attorney General's letter is herewith enclosed.

Respectfully yours,

(Signed.)

W. B. RANKINE.

STATE OF NEW YORK,
ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE, }
ALBANY, May 10, 1901.

Mr. William B. Rankine, Niagara Falls, N. Y. :

MY DEAR SIR—I am in receipt of your communication of the 7th instant, together with the opinion of Mr. Milburn, handed me by Mr. Tracy C. Becker, of Buffalo, requesting an expression from me in relation to that portion of Mr. Milburn's opinion, which advises you that the Trustees of the De Veaux College are warranted in admitting to the College pay pupils, simply as a means and to the extent of utilizing fully the accommodations and indispensable corps of employees and instructors.

I have examined the opinion in question, together with the will of the founder of the College, and the statutes having reference thereto, and am disposed to concur in Mr. Milburn's views with reference to this question.

So long as the available income of the institution is regularly and primarily all applied to and consumed in the care, education, etc., of orphan and destitute children as free pupils, I can discover no real or substantial objection to the utilizing of any remaining accommodations connected with the College, together with the full strength of the indispensable staff and faculty of the institution remaining available after the proper care of free pupils, by the receiving of other pupils into the College, upon payment by them of a sum which shall equal but not exceed the cost of their board and tuition.

It is not, however, to be understood or inferred that the trustees would be justified in curtailing, to any extent, the opportunities of free pupils, or those desiring to become such, or in any manner failing to execute the trust in accord with the intent of the founder, as expressed in his will, and the statutes having reference thereto.

I return, under separate cover, Mr. Milburn's opinion and other papers submitted.

Yours very truly,

(Signed)

JOHN C. DAVIES,

Attorney-General.

Thus we have, under the limitations presented by Mr. Milburn, the unqualified consent from the highest official having power in the premises to proceed, should this Council agree, with the enlargement of our work in the direction named.

There is great satisfaction to me in this judicial determination of a question which has given me many an anxious hour since I have come to the Diocese.

It has been my feeling for at least two years past that the capabilities of De Veaux for good were not being availed of as they ought to be, and that it was a serious responsibility to hinder and cripple and minimize a work so rich and so beautiful in purpose and power as it can be, and should be.

But I, personally, as you did, had too much respect for the action of the Council of five years ago—and especially for the solemn pleadings of that then dying hero and saint, my honored predecessor, to disturb the order and the peace which he urged so eloquently at his last Council.

He, and others, looked upon the plan adopted as tentative and experimental. They made the limitation with that idea in mind. The time has expired. There have been five years of peace. There has been good, but narrowed and cramped work done. The College is a living, useful institution to-day. And we are free to enter on a new era and adopt an enlarged but secure policy if we will. May we have wisdom to do the right.

As an evidence of the secureness of the plan proposed, I would again call attention to the remarkable system of book-keeping invented by our talented Treasurer, Mr. Richard F. Rankine. So admirably constructed is the book which gives the footings and the entire story of outlay and income, that with a glance one can see the actual condition of finance each month or week, as the person desires. It has been, therefore, and will be, no hap-hazard system that governs and will govern the administration of the Trust; but an absolutely business-like and clear and self-correcting order and method which, each month, at least, will show credit and debit unerringly. I called attention to this fact two years ago. I emphasize it again because it has been a source of inexpressible relief to the Board at its meetings when the actual condition of affairs was presented with an intensity of accuracy. Nor can I refrain here from alluding to the tactful and conscientious energy shown by some members of our Board of Trustees—two of whom are not now with us—in securing for us the sum of $15,000, which, at the time of the bankruptcy of the Gorge Railroad, was in peril. The men were Mr. Charles Kennedy and Mr. Richard F. Rankine, who, with the aid of Mr. Herbert Bissell, by a consummate wisdom and care, working at the right time, and doing the right thing, prevented a grave loss to our Treasury. The securities, as you will remember, were accepted in part payment for land surrendered through, I think, State condemnation proceedings—perhaps in this I err—for the use of the Gorge Road. There was no power to retain the property, because the land was needed for a public improvement. The partial payment—in securities of the road—was adjudged by many experts, I learn, when accepted, safe. But time proved this a mistake. Yet we emerged from the catastrophe which overtook the road unscathed. The zeal and the business wisdom and the alertness of these gentlemen averted disaster for our funds.

But in order that you may intelligently arrive at conclusions on the subject of returning to this restricted pay-pupil system, allow me to read a statement prepared by our Treasurer, which gives a clear showing of the expenses and necessities of our College for the two years last past. Thus will we reach a knowledge of the actual cost of each student, so far as his personal care goes, the actual cost of the appliances and machinery which inhere in the administration of the Institution on its educational and domestic side. It is a revelation that will be healthy for us, and which gives us the real data that help best to determine what will be wisdom in our action.

REPORT SUBMITTED BY TREASURER TO BOARD OF TRUSTEES DE
VEAUX COLLEGE, AT ANNUAL MEETING, MARCH 19, 1901,
AND BY RESOLUTION ORDERED PRINTED.

BUFFALO, N. Y., March 19, 1901.

To the President and Trustees of De Veaux College, Niagara Falls, N. Y.:

GENTLEMEN: At the request of the President of this Board, the Treasurer makes this supplemental report, in addition to the regular annual report required by the by-laws of the corporation, and presented at this meeting.

During the calendar years of 1899 and 1900, the new system of keeping and classifying accounts, as authorized by you, has been carefully followed. The method of bookkeeping has been simplified so that the facts set forth in this report may be verified easily from an examination of the books and accounts.

At the close of the second year, the average cost of maintaining the school is shown in the statement submitted herewith, marked Exhibit "A," to have been $13,385.71 per annum. I am informed by the Head Master that during these two years the average number of foundationers maintained has been twenty-six. It would thus appear that it has cost an average of $514.83 per annum for the maintenance of each foundationer for the past two years. You will note that of this amount, it has cost per annum per foundationer, $265.11 for the "Maintenance of the Plant" and "Maintenance of Administration," i. e., for fixed charges, salaries, wages and expenses; while for the actual sustenance of the pupils themselves, it has only cost $249.72 per annum per foundationer. This shows the expense of keeping up a very large plant for a very few pupils.

It is proper to take into consideration that under the head of "Maintenance of School and Pupils," there have been sustained seven servants and five teachers each year, and by reference to statement marked Exhibit "B" herewith, it will be seen that the actual cost of food, clothing, etc., has been only $195.98 per foundationer per annum, so that in considering the advisability of taking on additional foundationers up to the point when additional masters and servants are necessary, a figure of say $200.00 per boy, in my judgment, would be a liberal estimate of the additional expense to be incurred.

In order to answer a question that has been asked frequently, as well as for your information, let us assume that there were no legal objection and that the Council approved of "pay-pupils." Then, taking as a basis our experience of the past two years, the statement attached hereto marked Exhibit "C" shows that paying pupils could be maintained at a less cost per capita than foundationers, for the reason that the former would pay for their own clothing, school supplies, drugs, doctors, dentists and oculists, and receive no cash allowance from the corporation, and that the cost of sustaining them, outside of the fixed expenses of the school, would be $116.42 per boy per annum.

It is stated by the Head Master that nine boys could be admitted to the school without increasing the force of present masters, but that should nine additional pupils be taken, it would necessitate one additional servant at an estimated cost of $300.00 per annum, and that the items under heading of "Maintenance of Plant," covering breakages and repairs, would also be increased by an estimated amount not to exceed $300.00 per annum. The increased expense divided upon the maintenance of such nine additional boys would be $66.66 each. It would then appear that additional boys could be taken, if they were paying pupils, at an expense not to exceed $183.08 per annum each. It might be well, however, to increase this estimate cost to $200.00 per annum—which amount is practically the same that it costs us per foundationer per annum at the present time for the "Maintenance of School and Pupils," after allowing for the sustenance of masters and help. The fact also should be considered that there would be a large proportionate saving made in the sustenance of an increased number of pupils.

Assuming the above statements to be correct, as they are based upon actual experience in running the College for the past two years, it is safe to state, for an example, that should a scholarship exist bringing an income to the College of $300.00 per annum for the support of a boy, then for each two such scholarships the institution would be enabled to take one more foundationer; and that if, as stated, nine additional pupils could be taken without increase of teachers, and with only the increased expense of one servant, with a liberal allowance for increased breakages and repairs, then six such scholarships, netting the College $300.00 each, would enable the Trustees to take three more foundationers free. This illustration is given to emphasize what appears to be at the present time a practical plan to increase the good which the College is now doing.

On the other hand, with the prospect of decreased income on account of the decrease in the prevailing rates of interest and increase in cost of supplies, it will be necessary to decrease the number of foundationers in order to run the institution safely within its income.

Therefore, I feel obliged to recommend such a decrease of not less than two foundationers from the average number maintained during the past two years.

The income of the school is estimated for this calendar year to be $12,500.00.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Faithfully yours,

R. F. RANKINE,

Treasurer.

Estimated cost to maintain a paying pupil	$	183.08

It thus appears—to summarize this thoroughly searching report—that the average cost of the simple maintenance of a foundationer—which includes clothing, school supplies, drugs and cash allowances, medical care, etc.—is $195.98 per student. The expense of a single boy—limiting the number received to nine—who is a paying pupil, is $183.08. That would be his total cost in the way of actual expenditure for his support.

If the rate charged by the College for tuition and board were $300 a boy per annum, it would—as the Treasurer clearly shows—be possible to admit one foundationer for every two paying pupils at that rate.

This truly gives a hopeful outlook for the future expansion of the work of the College.

But there is another important consideration presented in Mr. Milburn's opinion, which ought to call out our interest and our grave study in this Council. He says: “If a wider policy be intended—one which contemplates admitting paying-pupils beyond the limit I have indicated—one of two courses should be pursued; either the Act incorporating the College should be amended so as clearly to permit of that being done, or legal proceedings should be instituted in which a decision will put the matter at rest one way or the other.”

“The most direct and efficacious measure,” says he, “is a simple amendment of the Act of Incorporation. I have no doubt of the power of the Legislature,” he adds, “to so amend the Act of Incorporation as to permit of paying-pupils being taken, thereby placing the College on a broader basis of usefulness as well as enabling it to carry out more effectively the purpose and design of its founder. The amendment need only provide that paying-pupils may be taken, and restrict the use of the property acquired and held for benevolent purposes to those purposes. A scheme combining these elements is perfectly practicable (and has the sanction of over 30 years' experience), and such an amending act could not be regarded in any sense as an innovation. In its absence it must be considered an open question to what extent the power to take paying-pupils exists."

Then he takes up the other alternative and shows the mode of procedure, should there be a desire to obtain a judicial decision, which I need not quote again.

Here then it seems to me is the conclusion of the whole matter: 1st. It is competent for this Council to direct or recommend the Board of Trustees to take a new departure, viz: to admit a sufficient number of paying-students for the complete utilization of all the staff of employes now necessary to carrying on the legitimate work of the College.

2nd. It is also competent for this Council to secure legislation whose purpose shall be to broaden the scope of the work of the College, and yet guard and conserve its property for the benefit of the class who alone can be its beneficiaries.

3rd. It is competent, as an alternative to the last-named procedure, to authorize the Trustees to engage in an amicable suit with the purpose of obtaining a decision of the Court regarding the right to admit paying-students to the privileges of the College, in excess of the number authorized by the Attorney General.

I have tried to present the problem as it meets us to-day. It seems to me not to offer the difficulties which beset it in the past. The plans presented presuppose the sanctions of law. They are not tentative nor notional. They are simply to be founded on legal action and the support of the Judiciary.

If anyone asks me what my view is, I must frankly say that I am convinced that we are not administering our solemn trust to the extent of our duty or its ability. Our establishment costs too much for what it is accomplishing. It is impossible for it to cost less, if we would—and we must—carry out the design and purpose of the testator, viz., “to support orphan and destitute children, to train them up to industry, to learn them trades and professions, and to give them a mental and manual and a social and religious education.” It is not merely an Orphans’ Home or a Charity House, where they who occupy are to be trained only as well-fed animals that Judge De Veaux founded. That would demand a very narrow expenditure.

It is for the nurture of the intellect and for the training of the soul too. These eliminated, and the Trust is unadministered or imperfectly carried out. And so a Chaplain is one of the factors. And instructors in other than the rudiments of learning is another. And the physical development that comes of military discipline or of manual or mechanical training is another. So we have a body of fixed charges which the will of the testator demands. Why should such factors be robbed of a good degree of their usefulness when it is possible, without contravening in an iota the design of the founder, to cover a broader area of good.

My voice, therefore, is for the adoption of the expedient which counsel and the Attorney General declare to be consistent with an honest and a legal administering of the Trust.

Again, my voice, would favor the seeking of such legislation—if it may be had—as will empower the Board of Trustees to receive into the Institution term-pupils, with the limitation and requirement that not one dollar of income or capital shall be devoted to the benefit of any save the class whom Judge De Veaux aimed to benefit—viz., orphaned and destitute children.

I have no dream of an Eton or a Harrow, or a Christ's Hospital evolving out of our College by such a movement. I have the hope of a larger contingent of churchmen's sons coming through its open doors, to receive the care and the culture which shall enable them to "quit them like men, to be strong," and then to go forth into the world, and as they grow and brighten and conquer, at the last rise up and call the memory of their Alma Mater blessed.

For such a day—if consistent with law—I think we may all devoutly pray.

The matter is now in the hands of the Council. I presume this portion of the Bishop's Address will be referred to the Standing Committee on De Veaux College's Annual Report.

FINANCIAL CONDITIONS.

It is the privilege of the Bishop to be, with the members of the Standing Committee, one of a Canonical body in this Diocese called the Financial Board. Their work is, at times, to consider the conditions of the general funds of the Diocese. It involves much labor for the lay members of that body, and demands accurate business method and knowledge. With a conscientious and laborious endeavor this Board has examined the several large funds that have been entrusted to different Boards and Committees under the general direction of the Council, and have made able and exhaustive reports. Their study shows that our funds are, generally, in a remarkably sound condition to-day. Impairments of capital which occurred several years ago have been, in part, repaired. Investments that seemed unfortunate, in part, at least, have proved advantageous. Losses have not been as rumor stated at all. I am convinced that the business men of this Council who will examine the condition and the character of nearly every investment in any of our general treasuries to-day will confess that they are in a very healthy condition.

I have thought it expedient to publicly make this declaration because I found that there was a vague notion in the Diocese that there was carelessness in financial management here and there. It was rooted in very indefinite rumor, and therefore rested on a very slim foundation. It is true that some mistakes were made in the placing of funds half a dozen years or more ago. But the mistakes were fewer and much smaller than many supposed. And, too, in the case of some of these mistakes the outcome was comparatively meagre so far as financial loss is concerned. But to-day I think I can make the claim that every loan made from any treasury of any of our institutions or Boards is conscientiously scrutinized and subjected to the wise tests which the most careful Savings Banks or other large fiduciary institutions adopt in handling their trusts. It has been the aim in the last three years, or thereabouts, to spread upon the pages of the Journals of this Council all the details of the varied funds. Publicity has been recognized as an essential if we would have the confidence of all and win new interest in the finances and institutions of the Diocese. Above all, we have felt that it was due every member of the Church in Western New York that he should have the privilege of an acquaintance with all the work being done, and all the implements and machinery used in the prosecution of that work. We must all recognize that the large reduction in the rate of interest on every kind of safe loan is a cause of diminished revenue, and so makes our endowments less fruitful in results. Several of our funds should have considerable increase to be as efficient as they ought to be—as they have been. They are in safe, careful hands now, and are made profitable to the maximum of their power.

And this leads me to speak of a wise rubric buried deep in the heart of one of the Prayer Book's Offices which few of the laity, I fear, have noted. It shows the very practical and sensible character of the Church and of her fair Liturgy. It speaks, too, of the universality of its ministries, and of its thorough utility as a constant guide. I refer to the rubric in the office of the Visitation of the Sick on the subject of the making of wills. It reads thus: "Then shall

" the Minister examine whether he repent him truly of his " sins, and be in charity with all the world; exhorting him
" to forgive, from the bottom of his heart, all persons that " have offended him; and if he hath offended any other to " ask them forgiveness; and where he hath done injury or " wrong to any man that he may make amends to the utter-" most of his power. And if he hath not before disposed of " his goods, let him then be admonished to make his will,
" and to declare his Debts, what he oweth, and what is " owing unto him, for the better discharging of his conscience " and the quietness of his Executors. But men should often " be put in remembrance to take order for the settling of " their temporal estates, whilst they are in health."

So teaches our rubric. Is it not a fact that some of our lay-brethren have never observed it? Might it not be a wise thing my Reverend Brethren to read it in your Churches once a year—at Advent, or at the outset of the new civil year? Even if repeated "without note or comment," it might speak a word of wholesome counsel to some hesitating one, to whom relief of such a care may bring peace at the dying hour.

VISITATIONS.

It was with increasing pleasure and personal profit that I went in and out among the parishes and missions during the year past. The marked kindness of my reverend brethren and their people to me during that period has given much cheer to my heart. The privilege of meeting so many of the congregation in most of the parishes, at receptions held for me, has helped me to feel nearer the great flock of this Diocese. The harmonious relations existing practically everywhere between pastor and people show a "unity of spirit in the bond of peace" which vindicates the reality in religion which this Church so masterfully presents. Brethren, for the good will and peace that reigns within our borders we may well give thanks and rejoice together.

My official acts are as follows: I have set apart 1 Deaconess; instituted 1 Rector; officiated at 2 funerals; laid 3 corner stones; Ordinations, Deacons, Priests.

Meetings attended officially,	61
Different services,	181
Addresses,	141
Sermons,	181
Confirmation services,	93
Persons Confirmed,	1,362

In addition to these official acts within the Diocese, I must mention that, outside of the Diocese in this country and abroad, and on the sea, I officiated at 11 services, and preached 8 times.

Possibly many who have heard me read this summary of Episcopal Acts have noted that the number of confirmations is somewhat less than last year.

The reason is not far to seek. My reverend Brethren, with an even greater than ordinary devotion, began the work of preparing their classes in the late winter and early spring. Conscientiously and painstakingly they labored on. Large fruit of their labor seemed in sight. And, lo! during a period covering perhaps nearly three months, in every hamlet and village and town and city throughout this Diocese and State—nay, may I not almost say in the round world, hosts were laid low by that subtle disease called La Grippe. Several of the clergy themselves were its victims. Many a congregation for weeks was more than decimated—sometimes half their numbers were detained at home—either through illness or through the duty of caring for the sick. Choirs were almost broken to pieces. Often the organist officiating on the occasion of the Bishop's visitation was borrowed from elsewhere. The reverend Clergy, some of them when almost unable to drag themselves around, were moving hither and thither in the homes where was anxiety and suffering and danger, giving tender and sympathetic ministries, and bearing the consolations of the dear Church to her heavy hearted children. It was a time when the meaning and the love and the gentle care of our Mother, the Church, was learned and was blessed. Many a strong and beautiful bond between pastor and flock was made more golden and more sacred because of the consecrated devotion and the faithful sacrifice of so many of my beloved brethren in the ministry during that trying epidemic-period of the late winter and spring. God be praised for the self-ignoring and the conscientious labors of this great band of godly shepherds over the Master's flocks.

This condition of things prevented many who would have presented themselves for confirmation, and who were wholly or partially prepared, appearing at the Altar. The clergy had labored graciously and devoutly, but Providence hindered. I believe, however, that the Church has a stronger influence in many a community because God's anointed ones ministered His great consolations with an unstinted and an unceasing zeal.

A calamity has come to one of our parishes which should call out the sympathy of us all—east-end or west-end of the Diocese. "When one member suffers all the members suffer with it," declares the Apostle.

On a morning in April, at about three o'clock, a devastating fire broke out in the picturesque and beautifully located town of Mayville, on Lake Chautauqua. Building after building went down under the driving flames. At last our pretty frame church, which had stood for many years, and had been a home and a source of comfort to hosts of worshippers for nearly a generation, was, in a few moments, a smouldering pile of embers.

But our energetic and devoted missionary, Rev. G. W. S. Ayres, was early on the scene, and while the sparks and burning fragments of the building were raining down upon them, he and some of his people were engaged in removing the Lectern, Organ, Altar, Sacred Vessels, Service Books, Font, etc. It was perilous work, but they toiled bravely, and thus saved many a treasure, sacred because of memorial-giving, and association with the departed. My reverend brother deserves the gratitude of the Diocese for his fearless and successful labors on that sad morning.

This is one bright phase in the dark picture. There is another.

For fully a quarter of a century the Rector, Churchwardens and Vestrymen of that parish have regularly maintained an insurance policy on that little church. At times—in the very weak days of the parish—it was a strain to do so. But they stood manfully to it. As a result they are entitled to receive toward the erection of a new church the amount of that policy, viz., $1,500. I know it will be a gratifying fact to all business men in the Diocese to learn of this business care and thrift on the part of the authorities in S. Paul's, Mayville. I think they will confess that as a people—having helped themselves—they are worthy of our generous help.

A more enduring structure in another section of the town should be reared. The real estate now in their hands can be disposed of to the village at a price higher than a new lot in a more desirable part of the town can be bought. The cause of this unusual condition is that the village owns the land adjoining our church lot, and it is now desired by the people for a little park.

One more bright feature and I close. The people of the town, generally, have shown sympathy for our congregation, and are contributing for a new Church. But their power is limited. And so I ask of my brethren throughout the Diocese that they will give a helping hand to these needing ones. And I urge this giving, because it is vital that we should have a work going on at Mayville. It is the one point from which services may be provided for our Chapel at Chautauqua during the season.

While the crowds are there many Churchmen appear. The Rev. Mr. Ayres has provided for them the Holy Communion on every Sunday. Often during the last three years, because our Chapel was too small—and yet it holds nearly 100 people—he has been compelled to have two administrations of the Lord's Supper on the same day, filling the Chapel each time. Of course, during the rest of the year he is also providing regular services for the large contingent of people resident there.

Before passing to another division of this address, bear with me for a word on the subject of insurance on Church property.

For three years last past in my announcements of visitations, I have asked the privilege of meeting with the Vestries of the different parishes. In many instances the favor has been accorded me. Occasionally it has not, through unconscious oversight on the part of my Reverend Brethren. I always, however, esteem it a privilege thus to meet face to face the honored and devout laymen who take practical interest in the Church's welfare, and give their time and their hearts to its concerns. At such conferences, among other questions asked by me is always one regarding the condition of the insurance policies upon the Church property. It is with great pleasure that I am able to announce that in almost every case was the answer satisfactory, and I learned that this important business side of the Church was scrupulously cared for.

DE LANCEY DIVINITY SCHOOL.

The Report of the De Lancey Divinity School, which will be presented by the Warden, shows that a considerable advance in its utility and effectiveness has been made through our new departure. In accordance with the plan presented last year, the work was begun in the Autumn. Eight young men are on its rolls. They have faithfully attended the lectures given by the clergy appointed to the duty, at intervals of two months throughout the season. The number is a larger one than has been under the instruction of the Divinity School for many a year. The fact that the lectures have been delivered in Buffalo has minimized both expense and the difficulties in reaching the ends for which the institution was established. It is a carrying out of the principles of what to-day is called University Extension. There has been no removal of the school. Its library, which is its only property, is in Geneva.

I know that the brethren who have, without fee or reward, accepted their appointment to the chairs for which they were chosen are highly acceptable to the whole Diocese. The work done during this season past has been most conscientious—and has been most edifying to the students. I have felt that the latter were peculiarly favored, inasmuch as the lecturers were not men abiding among books, and touching chiefly the theoretical and the theological sides of the themes considered, but those who came hot from the thick of every-day struggle and every-day experiences, and who can and did present the practical side of their subjects, and bore with them into the class-rooms the stimulating breezes born of intense parochial activity. I wish here to express my profound gratitude to such helpful brethren who, at my summons, came to our help in the good work of the De Lancey Divinity School of to-day.

SALARIES OF THE CLERGY.

In my address of last year I brought before the Council a subject which I, as your Bishop, feel to be a vital one. I will simply read an extract from my former communication on the subject:

“Sometime ago I addressed, through the Diocesan paper, “a letter to the Vestries of our parishes on the subject of

“ the salaries of the clergy. It is doubtless familiar to all “ my lay brethren present. It was not without grave con“ sideration that I resolved to communicate with those oc“ cupying official place in the Church of Western New York “ on this theme.

“ The press all over the land has reviewed that letter. It “ rejoices me to be able to say that the comments in almost “ every case were sympathetic and confirmatory of the sen“ timents and principles advanced. In only two instances, “ so far as my knowledge goes, was there a semblance of “ dissent.

“ This unsolicited testimony of the newspapers, to the fact “ of illy-requited service rendered by hosts of the clergy, “ shows the appreciation which godly, self-denying labor
“ has from the world and from the journalism of the day—
“ and speaks well for the justice of the press. I do not pro“ pose dwelling upon the subject anew in this Address, but “ I do earnestly hope it will be made the subject of a hearty “ discussion before we close our sessions, and I hereby com“ mend it to the consideration of the Council.”

Circumstances forbade the discussion of the matter last year. I earnestly repeat my request of that time that it may be given a due and hearty consideration. And I would press it all the more because the question of the maintenance of Divine worship in rural parts has for ten years past been a perplexing one. Of course the trend of population to the large cities has made the difficulty. The withdrawing people have withdrawn their support to the Church, and the reduced income has made an overwhelming load, in some cases, for the few. But I could quote many a little parish in this Diocese where the brave people have strained every nerve to retain their spiritual privileges—yes! have made wondrous sacrifices to do so. God bless them for their heroic devotion! But there are classes of parishes—and they are not few—where, in my opinion, an increase of salary, at least a moderate one, may, without great effort, be provided for their Clergy. The newspapers, the business men, the bankers, all tell me that prosperity reigns in the land. The cost of living has been increased. Is the salary of the average clergyman in the Diocese in proportion? I think not. I know not. As a result of the letter addressed nearly a year and a half ago to the Vestries of the Diocese, I have been told that a few, a very few, advanced the salaries of their Rectors, and others aimed and succeeded in paying salaries more promptly. But I fear the instances of such improvement were few. It is by no collusion with my Reverend Brethren that I have reintroduced this theme, or that I originally brought it before you. No clergyman asked me to offer the subject to your thought. It is absolutely a voluntary deed on my part. The whole responsibility is mine. Some of my brethren have suffered—silently—and worked on uncomplaining and zealous. And I felt I must speak.

The Bishop, like the Major-General on the height overlooking the field of battle, sees the weak places and the needs in the war, as those in the thick of the fight and in the struggle of the field do not. He therefore can speak with some degree of intelligence and justness on such a theme. Moreover, the confidences which are spoken in his intercourse with his brethren throw light upon conditions, struggles, trials, needs, which often none others know—which of their delicacy, and through their non-self-seeking,—they do not desire others to know.

And I must here put myself on record publicly, as I have often in private, with the statement that no Diocese in this or other lands can show a corps of clergymen superior to those in Western New York,—I feel inclined to say equal—in their self-surrender, in their absolute devotion, in their willingness for sacrifice, in their devout living, in their loyalty to Jesus and His Church. I utter not these words because so many of them are before me, but because my experience of each year in my relations to them simply intensifies the conviction. And I firmly believe that because there is such a body of consecrated men in its Ministry the Diocese shows a healthy, genuine growth of devout, generous, honorable, godly men and women in the parishes.

SUNDAY SCHOOL.

The Report of the Sunday School Commission made last year had but a small consideration and a speedy shrift. It was the fruit of much study and research on the part of its members. It showed a living zeal in the work committed to them. And it is deserving of practical examination and discussion, as I think, on the part of this Council. Of course, it is impossible to enact a law constructed of Bessemer steel to govern the action of each Rector in his Sunday School plans. "Many men, many minds," says the old proverb. Each pastor is responsible for the training of the lambs of his own flock before Almighty God. Different schools have different characteristics. The modus operandi in discipline and in the culture must differ. The character of the teachers here or there complicates the problem. What is helpful in one school is hinderful in another. In fact, the entire machinery is capable of variety according to conditions.

Thus it makes it a practical impossibility to legislate regarding the minutiae of Sunday School work. Nor would the Bishop desire to suggest to his brethren any straight-jacket of a system for the conduct of a Sunday School as to either its general order or its educational methods. Systems must vary with the conditions. But I feel that there are general principles which all Church Sunday Schools should weave into the warp and woof of their work. We have a Catechism. We have a Christian Year. We have a rational and reverent devotional system. We have a Book of Prayer of venerable and of fair beauty. These give us anchorage and give us a healthy nurture and give us reverend worship for the shaping of the devotional life of the young. Hence we have one law for the dogma and the life which are to enter into the religious education of our youth. These are clear and unmistakable. These, loyalty to baptismal pledges, will prompt us to espouse and honor and hold unchangeably. We may not omit them without grave hurt to our cause. We must present them, if we would be true to our duty, our vows and our Church. It seems to me that, simply to discuss what is being done, and what we ought to do, at least, as Churchmen, may be as profitable a use as can be made of our time while here. I commend the subject earnestly to your consideration.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY.

There is a feature of the work in this Diocese which is deserving certainly of a passing mention. I mean the organizations of women and maidens and babes in the interest of the General Mission work of the Church. In other words, the Woman's Auxiliary, the Junior Auxiliary and the Babies' Branch. Each, I rejoice to say, is pulsingly and strenuously alive. It is a delightful condition that in practically every organized mission and parish there are women and young people, encouraged and stimulated by their Pastors, diligently talking about and working for and sending up supplication day by day in behalf of the Church's wide mission-field. The former of these three organizations, the Woman's Auxiliary, has been steadily strengthening and increasing in zeal and gifts for several years past. It stands, I think I may say, among the foremost in the sisterhood of Diocesan Auxiliaries in the Church. It is, indeed, a power for good among us. The spirit which pervades it often overflows into parish work for its health and advantage. The Juniors, too, are engaging in their more moderate labors, but with a maidenly enthusiasm and zealous hearts.

As to the Babies' Branch, you know it as our own little one,—born in our own Diocese,—sweet in its influence as it accustoms the child mind to the sacrifice for others, and as it acquaints it in early days with the heroes and the heroism of the Cross. I need not ask of my Reverend brethren who have so persistently and conscientiously in the past given helping counsel and guidance, direction and stimulating leadership in these works, to persevere in this well-doing. St. Andrew's Brotherhood and the Girls' Friendly Society and the Daughters of the King have their foothold, each, within our borders. The former—the Brotherhood—is strong. It should be stronger. I do not mean its membership should have a vast increase. That would be an element of weakness. It is not an institution that can engage the interest and give engrossing work to a very large contingent in many parishes. But its two rules of "prayer and service" may be a law to all. It is the Church's law for its members, whosoever they may be.

But I am gratified by the manly zeal manifested by so many of our people for this organization, and in its duties both in village and city parishes in all sections of the Diocese.

For the two other Societies, which have won the zeal and the labor of so many young women in Western New York, I ask of my brethren helping countenance. Each does its own work and has its own sphere, and gains its own clientele. But each in the locality and with the people among whom it has place, has been and is a power for good.

ARCHDEACONRIES.

The Mission-work of the Diocese—its needs and successes and hindrances—will be presented in their reports by the Archdeacons of Rochester and Buffalo, as a part of the business of the Council. And so I refer to them for the details and minutiae of the general work which shall be interesting to you.

In accordance with the resolution of the Council, passed last year, I asked the Rev. Mr. Dantzer to obtain his Letter Dimissory from Central New York, in order that he might devote his entire time to the Deaf Mutes in this Diocese.

He was duly transferred and is now canonically connected with Western New York. His report shows a large amount of good work done.

Agreeably also to the resolution passed last year, I issued a Pastoral Letter asking the congregations to contribute more liberally to the Christmas Fund. The report of the Trustees, to be presented, will show the condition of their Trust.

GENERAL MISSIONS.

I dare not hold my peace on the great subject of the Church's missionary work. A man who has once been personally and practically in the field as I have been—meeting its trials and difficulties, and enjoying the exquisite pleasure of some of its successes—can never refrain from speaking out his heart for such a cause. Whatever defects there may be in the working of administrative Boards, whatever mistakes of arrangement and government in the great Missionary Society itself, whatever unwise distribution of funds in carrying on the work, the man who has spent some years as teacher and guide at a frontier post, or has gone to an alien land to speak for Christ—whether he be the fresh young Deacon with the enthusiasm of first years in the Ministry, or whether he be the Missionary Bishop who has the anxious care of the Churches—must ever after feel the thrill for the great work and speak burning words when opportunity comes in its behalf. It is reality to him. He believes in it. He knows its power. To be silent would be crime. A distance of four years and a half stretches between the speaker and the moment when he turned his back on technical mission work. Time has not toned or altered his faith or his love toward, or zeal for, the cause, per se. Distance from persons or conditions or scenes or labors often chills the ardor for them down to the freezing point. It cannot honestly be said by him who addresses you that any other than higher regard and a stronger yearning for the growth and success of this Church's missionary work fills his heart. It is not merely the desire toward souls that they may be saved—that best of motives in the greatest life of the world. It is in addition the beautiful successes, the noble self-emptying, the high consecration of so many great—yes! I will call them great—even though they be ministrants in little hamlets in the wilds of America or on foreign shores—great men who spare not themselves that they may honor Jesus—it is these that constrain him once more to plead with you for a deeper zeal in behalf of the Church's wide mission-field. There are some of us who have, as I think, rightly objected to a new policy adopted by the Board of Managers in discriminating against settled Dioceses in which Missionary work has been carried on and aided in the past. By this novel, and, as I think, unjust rule, twenty per cent. of the funds afforded these spheres of work have been withdrawn this year. It was, as you are aware, a part of the proposed plan to reduce by twenty per cent. the appropriation in each case for next year, and so by a graded scale of decrease, at last withdraw all help from weak Dioceses because they had, by self-sacrifice and work and a spirit of self-dependence, reached the dignified condition of Diocesan independence. It seems a poor return for manly and self-denying zeal. The Missionary Jurisdictions were exempted from this heroic treatment. I am the last man in all the world to grudge one of all the dollars that go to the help of the work in any Missionary District. I personally know—I have seen—the splendid devotion, the hard endurances, and the wise administration of my Right Rev. Brethren in those great fields. No man here can appreciate to a tithe thereof the real sufferings, the varied, innumerable hardships that come into their lots of which they never speak. Sometimes some of them are alluded to—not as trials—but as picturesque experiences that help “to point a moral or adorn a tale.” They are not uttered to rouse your sympathy, but to provoke your zeal for the work. They do not pose before you as martyrs or heroes. They are both. I know it. I tell you, on my honor as a man and a Bishop, it is true—but they strive to offer to you of their treasures things new and old, that you may be moved to honor our Master and theirs by giving of your substance and your prayers for the spread of the Lord's great Kingdom. I do feel also that the Board of Managers and this Church should not make discrimination in withdrawing grants from the feeble Dioceses only. Are not Texas and Florida in their days of calamity—so recent—worthy of full help? And what shall we say of Oregon and Dallas and West Missouri and Mississippi and Quincy and Arkansas, and a host of others who, with difficulty and great self-sacrifice, took their places in the sisterhood of Dioceses, and aimed as much as practicable to relieve the general treasury of the Missionary Society by struggling up with straining endeavor to a Diocesan independence. Yes! it seems to me that our helping hand should not be stayed to the extent of one mill in behalf of these comparatively feeble folk in our great Church. But this is only a digression.

In view of the reports that come of the new fields opening to us, I am convinced that every possible effort should be made in every parish to increase the offerings in the coming year. The Church is only really alive as she glows with a fiery zeal for the spread of the Redeemer's Kingdom in every land where the foot of man treads in all this round world. And so, Brethren, I beseech you, speak for, give for, pray for, more than ever before, the cause of Missions, the extension of this Church in the dark places, and among the neglected ones of the earth.

GENERAL CONVENTION.

We are all, doubtless, looking forward with interest and anxiety to the sessions of the General Convention at San Francisco next Autumn. As ever, momentous questions are to receive scrutiny and to meet settlement there. Not unimportant among these will be the question of the establishment of an Appellate Court. I am convinced that the intricate canon which has already been submitted to the Church by the Committee appointed at the last Convention for this purpose is not likely to have the assenting voice of the Church. The subject, as you are aware, is one that has appeared and re-appeared in session after session of the Convention, only to be dismissed as environed with difficulty. Of course an education has been going on through the years in behalf of the principle, and doubtless the day will yet dawn when it shall be established as a part of the Church's system. But should the plan of the proposed canon be adopted with its Courts of Review and its final Court of Appeal, I fear that one of the chief occupations of the Bishops will be a cudgelling of their brains year in and year out in hearing disputes of unsatisfied appellants on questions of doctrine, discipline and worship—even ad nauseum. May Providence deliver us in the Episcopate from such interminable contact with wrangle, contention and war. I fear that for Bishops peace will be at an end. Of course, I do recognize that it is necessary that at some day in the future there should be some arrangement by which the decisions in Church trials may be submitted to review. But, oh! at the best, what fierce, endless conflict it will develop and nourish! What constant ferment it will bring to the Church—when there should be peace!

A canon on prohibited degrees of marriage will be presented for consideration. The English Church has, wisely as it seems to me, kept this subject before its people. I have seen many a Bible on the other side of the water, in which the Church's law on the subject is printed, so that all may know the Scriptural teaching on such a moral concern. I am convinced that a close examination into conditions here would show in our land many a horrible violation of the code which the Most High has given to His children on this question of marriage in the prohibited degrees.

I presume, however, the whole subject will meet the treatment of the past, and be elbowed aside with slight courtesy.

The proposed canon on Provinces will, of course, call out prolonged debate, and many will wax eloquent thereupon. While perhaps the day is coming when, for practical administration, a Provincial system shall develop on sober lines, yet I think we may hope that the date may be deferred, that the splendid dignity of this great Church in its one unbroken synod may not be lost. The moment,—as I think,—the National Church is split into a half a dozen little Provinces, some noble features of strength and beauty will be buried forever. Divided interests, I fear, will make contending factions, and unity and peace will be of the past. Deliver us, I say, from the varying ranks and degrees of Primates and Archbishops and Metropolitans and Suffragans, and all the rest. They are un-American. They belong to a past which was alive to titles and degrees and orders and vanity. We smile at the grave distinction in rank between the Archbishop of Canterbury and His Grace of York, as we read that one is the Primate of England and the other the Primate of all England. And we will pray that the day will never dawn in our American Church when its provincial system shall be established that any Archbishops—if we have them—shall repeat the experiences of Their Graces of Canterbury and York in a past generation when each, contending for his own supremacy, rushed toward the arch-episcopal throne. He of Canterbury reached it first, and instantly seated himself gleefully in the Cathedra. But His Grace of York, not to be robbed of his claimed supremacy, promptly plumped himself down upon the lap of his brother of Canterbury. So each occupied the throne of authority and of honor, and York was on top.

The new canons to be submitted on the subject of Marriage and Divorce are likely to promote a lively discussion. They show a long step forward in the right direction. Clearly the conscience of the Church[•] is manifesting a truer sensitiveness to the grossness of this flagrant evil which has so marred the social life of our land during a few years past—which has so corrupted the moral sense of many as license through law flaunted everywhere in the Nation. The crux of the whole canon is in these words: "No minister shall solemnize a marriage between any two persons unless, nor until, by inquiry, he shall have satisfied himself that neither person has been, or is, the husband or the wife of any other person then living; unless the former marriage was annulled by a decree of some civil court of competent jurisdiction for cause existing before such former marriage." This is laying the axe at the root of the tree. It permits no remarriage of divorced persons during the lifetime of both parties. It strikes boldly at the moral confusion in the social structure, which has so stultified our claims as a Christian nation in these 19th and 20th century days. It helps to prevent the strange entanglements which are now affecting thousands of lives and reputations to their hurt through the late sweeping decision of the Supreme Court of the United States. It is a law which makes for wholesome social order, for stronger family life, for cleaner morals.

Another canon—a new one—is upon the subject of the discipline of divorced persons. It is, in spirit, attuned to the old one, but more clear, and, if adopted, will, I think, aid the consciences, and help to more careful living in the direction to which it refers.

This is a portion of the legislation which shall have consideration at the coming Convention.

It will, I think, give living interest and brilliant force to the great gathering of the Church on the Western coast in October.

The Committee on the Bishop Coxe Memorial have a Report, as I understand, which will be presented in due order. I have not yet seen it, and so am unable to give any details as to the condition of the fund or as to the exact progress made.

Through the courtesy of the President of Hobart I was shown over the building a few weeks ago. It was then very incomplete. Judging, however, from the study of it then made by me, it seemed well adapted to the uses for which it is intended. But more anon when the Committee's report is read to the Council.

THE GIFTS.

Brethren of the Clergy, in closing, suffer the word of exhortation. We are the priests of God. You know your responsibility. You know your privilege. We may not trifle with them. We may not despise them. I am what I am, you are what you are, because God hath called us to our respected sacred offices. It is not alone because we personally imagine that the Divine voice has summoned us. It is not only because we think ourselves mentally or spiritually competent that we have this honor of the priesthood. It is by virtue of ordination. It is by virtue of a gift of God's Church. It is because we are of the Apostolic lineage. It is because Apostolic hands have been laid upon us. There is an unbroken descent of authority. There is an unchanging law of Apostleship. There is a grace of laying on of hands that comes down through Apostles and the centuries from the living Head, Jesus Christ. It is not merely a pleasing ancient order. It is not simply a historic Episcopate, a historic Priesthood, a historic Diaconate. It is not alone a succession out of a dim, hoary past. It is not only a well-ordered arrangement of men. It is the ordinance of Almighty God. It is the gift of the Saviour of Men to the primitive Church—to the Church of mediæval age, to the Church of our own time, flowing down unchecked, an unbroken stream—from the day that a Redeemer with lifted hands, about to return to His Father, cried to the assembled eleven: "Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel" until now. That is the testimony of Apostles first, of primitive martyrs afterward, of all the Christian ages until now. Whatever the mists that may have obscured the brightness of personal lives in the priesthood, whatever the damp that may have settled on the brow of the Church in the dark ages, the sacred offices and their functions remained indelible, unremoved, active in their effects and in their influence. God was in His Church, and earthen vessels robbed it not of its grace in sacerdotal deed or office. The sacraments were there, the Spirit was there, and the Ministry—the channel through which the virtue of the rite and the presence of the Comforter, the Holy Ghost, was secured, were there. God did not desert His Church, for the Master had declared “the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.”

This is not a theory of Apostolic succession. It is not the doctrine of a school. It is not an exaggerated statement of an untenable doctrine. It is Biblical. It is Apostolic. “No man taketh this honor unto himself, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron.” It is historic. Until the Reformation on the continent of Europe, it was the asserted fact in all writings. It is the Church’s clearest teaching. Saith the Preface to the Ordinal: “It is evident unto all men diligently reading Holy Scriptures and Ancient Authors that from the Apostles’ time there have been these Orders of Ministers in Christ’s Church—Bishops, Priests and Deacons. Which Offices were evermore had in such reverend estimation, that no man might presume to execute any of them except he were first called, tried, examined and known to have such qualities as are requisite for the same; and also by public Prayer with Imposition of hands, were approved and admitted thereto by lawful Authority. And therefore, to the intent that these Orders may be continued and reverently used and esteemed in this Church, no man shall be accounted or taken to be a lawful Bishop, Priest or Deacon in this Church, or suffered to execute any of the said Functions except he be called, tried, examined and admitted thereunto according to the Form hereafter following, or hath had Episcopal consecration or Ordination."

Such is the Church's contention. She bases it on Holy Scripture. And she is wise not to add thereto nor subtract therefrom. And in maintenance of such a position, she requires that ministers of different Christian bodies seeking to serve at her Altars shall, before they exercise such authority, receive the Laying on of Hands from some of her Bishops—whatever their learning or their piety may be. So Mother Church teaches, so should we, her Bishops, Priests and Deacons ever teach the flocks committed to our charge. Again I say we must not despise this gift of God to His Church, an unbroken, authoritative Ministry. We must not despise or speak lightly of the gifts—the Divine Commission, the legitimate lineage, the power in Sacraments which are yours and my awful, holy, reverend trust. God help us to honor them and to make them honored and honorable. But whether we do or do not, the Holy one hath bestowed them, and we must not dishonor Him by dishonoring them. God forgive the man that despises Christ's gifts,—that thus despiseth Him.

I speak not thus to urge that you magnify your office, but to entreat that you "do not despise to the Spirit of grace." It is never a Christian humility which discredits or disparages the sacred heritage and the awful heavenly gifts which the Holy Master of us all has conferred upon the priesthood in His beloved Church. We honor Him in teaching honor for them. And Brethren of the Laity, also suffer a word of exhortation. I have often marvelled whether there is as deep a sense in the Church as there should be of the influence day by day going out into parishes, into families, into personal lives through the intercessions of the pastors of the flock at the throne of Grace. Do you have faith in the power of that solitary man's pleadings for you? Do you know that he is supplicating continually in behalf of your soul? How do you know that some sorrow has not been averted, that some care has not been lightened, that some blessing has not been bestowed on you or one of yours, just because the Man of God has sought for you and interceded for you and wrestled in prayer in your behalf? I fear our day is one when this ability to work almost miracles through the priest's pleadings is denied. Do you believe it? I say in all sincerity and solemnity, I do. I know clergymen—many—who are so intent upon the labor for the salvation of souls, for the comfort and the cheer of the weary and the heavy-laden that their life is practically a constant prayer. I know many a rectory where, in the morning and at evening, there goes up a cry to God for help and blessing to the flock that must reach the throne. I know men who have one great yearning in their souls, and that yearning is what the Apostle shows when he exclaims, with an intensity of desire: "Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is that they might be saved!" Remember that the average clergyman's work does not begin and end with the stall, the pulpit and the altar. Nor is it completed in the pastoral work out in the parish. There is sweet work and heroic work done for you in his own closet and in many devotional hours in the study. I know men who write in part, at least, their sermons on their knees, and the skill and the tenderness and the spiritual force of their teaching comes because they have been with God. I know men who single out one here and another there in the flock and plead for them with a gentle love in burning supplication in the long night watches. I know men who are pouring out ejaculations as they walk, as they sit and talk cheerily with you, as they silently meditate in the seclusion of their parsonages, in behalf of their people as a family—as individuals. Do you not believe that such an atmosphere of devotion, developed by so prayerful a life, must diffuse itself into the core of a community? Do you not feel that unconsciously a spiritual power is working and warming and leavening the mass? I do, if I believe anything. I believe it because God has promised it. I believe it because I have seen such a devout priest of the high God in the mightiness and beauty of his holy life touching to illumine and bless lives innumerable whose comfort it was to abide under his hallowed influence. Yes, the sanctified life of God's anointed one is a force that the world may not recognize, but that the world feels tingling in its veins to purify and to exalt.

I commend this truth to you. Will it not develop an even stronger confidence in your rector? Will it not check the careless criticism? Will it not stir the sympathetic regard for the man of God who is set to watch for your soul? Will it not lead us whensoever we gaze into the face of a Priest of the Most-High to have in remembrance—as the Church in the Ordinal urges—into how great a dignity and to how high an office and charge he has been called, that is to say, to be a Messenger and Watchman and Steward of the Lord; to teach and to premonish, to feed and provide for the Lord's family; to seek for Christ's sheep that are dispersed abroad, and for His children who are in the midst of this naughty world, that they may be saved through Christ forever.

So, will we not be prompted whenever the impulse is upon us to wound, to censure, to criticise the Shepherds of the flocks to rather stay our hands? So we will remember that He who is the Chief Shepherd—the "Pastor parvorum"—has, in His Word, enjoined in solemn tone upon all His children, "Touch not mine Anointed and do my prophet no harm."

We are in the midst of the beautiful Whitsuntide. Our thought is of the sacred presence of the Divine Spirit in the Church, to guide, to teach, to strengthen. May He be unceasingly with us in our labors, so that we may have "a right judgment in all things," and that we may perceive and know what things we ought to do and also may have grace and power faithfully to fulfil the same.

(A.) STANDING COMMITTEE.

To the Sixty-fourth Annual Council of the Diocese of Western New York :

The Standing Committee herewith reports its official acts for the Diocesan year 1900-1901.

June 5, 1900.

The Board met and organized by the election of Rev. J. A. Regester, S. T. D., President, Rev. Walter North, L. H. D., Secretary, with stipend of $100.00.

The rate of assessment was fixed for one per cent. for Diocesan expenses ; three per cent. for support of the Episcopate.

On motion, the Secretary of the Council was recommended to award the contract for printing to Baker, Jones & Co., subject to the approval of the Financial Board, the number of copies to be at his discretion.

One hundred and twenty-five dollars was voted for payment of printing in "Church Work."

The Secretary was directed to procure such printed forms as shall be necessary to complete certificates in cases of candidates for Holy Orders.

A list of offerings was approved and ordered to be printed.

The regular meetings were ordered for the first Tuesdays in June, September, November, January, March and May.

September 4, 1900.

At the request of the Bishop, two whole years were given to the Rev. Coleman Edwin Byram, Deacon, and consent was given to the shortening of term of his candidateship according to Canon 9, paragraph IV.

Consent was also given to the shortening of the term of his candidateship to Mr. Edwin Jay Stevens.

Mr. Edwin Jay Stevens was recommended to the Bishop for ordination to the Diaconate.

Mr. Herbert Lockwood Stoddard was recommended as a candidate for Holy Orders.

Consent was given for the sale of a lot adjoining S. John's Church, Canandaigua.

Sundry bills were ordered paid.

The next regular meeting was appointed on the second Tuesday in November.

November 15, 1900.

Consent was given to the consecration of the Reverend Reginald Heber Weller, Jr., coadjutor Bishop elect of Fond du Lac.

Frank Wayland Abbott, Jr., Myron George Argus, Joseph Albert Maughan, Albert Edwin Herrick, Robert Lloyd Windsor were recommended as candidates for Holy Orders.

Rev. Franklin Emerson Smith, Rev. Coleman Edward Byram were recommended for ordination to the Priesthood.

Consent was given S. Peter's Church, Niagara Falls, to place a mortgage of $3,000.00 on its rectory.

January 8, 1901.

The Committee met for business of the Diocesan Boards.

March 3, 1901.

George Huntington was recommended as a candidate for Deacon's Orders only.

The report of De Veaux College was received, read and referred to a sub-committee.

The opinion of John G. Milburn, attorney and counsellor, was read.

A copy of the same was granted to De Veaux College, on request of its Trustees.

May 7, 1901.

Rev. David Casler Monroe, Deacon, was recommended for ordination to the Priesthood.

The Committee, for urgent reasons, advised the Bishop to appoint the Annual Council on May 27th, in Trinity Church, Buffalo.

Canonical consent was given to the mortgaging of the Church of the Apostles for fifteen hundred dollars, the same to be used to complete the new church building.

The minutes of past meetings were read, and directed to be submitted to the Annual Council.

The report of the sub-committee on De Veaux College was received and recommended to be presented to the Council as the Report of the Standing Committee.

To the Bishop and Standing Committee, Diocese of Western New York :

GENTLEMEN—The report of the Trustees of De Veaux College, referred to me at the regular meeting of the Standing Committee held on March 5, 1901, has been carefully examined by me and compared with the printed report contained in the proceedings of the Council for the year 1899. The original report of the Trustees for 1899 I could not obtain.

The report for the year 1900 contains a full detailed statement of the property and funds of De Veaux College, in charge of its Trustees, and the condition thereof, and contains the number of the boys received by them, and items of all receipts and disbursements, and an accompanying certificate of at least three of their number, that they have compared the same with the vouchers, and that they are full and satisfactory as required by law.

To clearly understand the Treasurer's report, upon comparing it with the former reports of Treasurers, it is necessary to have a clear understanding of the changes made in the system of keeping the accounts of the College ordered by the Trustees in the year 1899, found on pages 90 and 91 of the Journal for 1900, to which reference is hereby made.

Section 2 of Chapter 243 of the Laws of 1853, being "An Act to Incorporate De Veaux College for Orphan and Destitute Children," Passed April 15, 1853, requires the Trustees to report to the Bishop and Standing Committee,—among other things,—“the course of training and education pursued.”

I do not find in the report any reference to this subject, and would recommend that the attention of the Trustees be called to this fact, so that the above requirement may be complied with in future reports.

The Trustees, Secretary and Treasurer are each and all to be commended for the very comprehensive report which they have made, which, upon examination, is found to be very satisfactory, indeed, and complying with all the provisions of law and regulations made by the Standing Committee, except as above noted.

All which is respectfully submitted,

WALTER NORTH,

Secretary.

REPORT OF THE FINANCIAL BOARD.

The Financial Board respectfully reports its official acts for the Diocesan year 1900-1901.

June 5, 1900.

The Board met and organized by the election of Mr. William H. Walker, President, Rev. Walter North, L. H. D., Secretary.

The Rev. Walter North, L. H. D., was appointed special agent for collecting the assessments from delinquent parishes, in accordance with the order of the Diocesan Council.

September 4, 1900.

The Board approved of certain bills presented.

November 13, 1900.

The special agent reported the salary of the Bishop in arrears $1,666 66.
Sundry bills were audited.

March 3, 1901.

The report of the Treasurer of the Christmas Fund was received in full and referred to a special committee to report at the next meeting.

A special committee was appointed to examine into the condition of the See House and report at the next meeting.

May 7, 1901.

The special committee on the condition of the See House made a report, which was accepted, stating that necessary repairs of nearly five hundred dollars were required.

On motion, the committee was directed to proceed with said repairs, the same to be charged to Diocesan expenses.

The minutes of the Board were read, and were directed to be presented to the Annual Council.

The special Committee on the Christmas Fund presented a report, which, on motion, was adopted.

To the Financial Board of the Diocese of Western New York:

GENTLEMEN—In the matter of the report of the Treasurer of the Christmas Fund, which was referred to me as a sub-committee, I respectfully report that I have carefully examined it, and find that the fund amounts to $27,758.03. That it is all invested in loans on property in New York State, or on deposit in Savings Banks at a less rate of interest, awaiting chance for satisfactory investment.

I am also glad to report that it gives full particulars and names of borrowers, as well as present owners of the property covered, and complies so fully with the request of the Council in this particular.

It also gives the names of the beneficiaries, and amounts paid to each, and also excellent reasons why it should not be published in full in the Journal, in which I fully concur.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

The following motion was adopted :

At the last Annual Council the recommendation of the Financial Board that an agent be appointed to visit the delinquent parishes to present the claims of the Episcopate Fund, and the suggestion that such agent be appointed by the Standing Committee were adopted.

In accordance with such action the Standing Committee appointed Rev. Dr. Walter North as such agent.

Dr. North has performed the duties incident to such appointment, and made a report, from which it appears that many parishes claim exemption from contributions to such fund by reason of payments to the Fund heretofore made by them, but that the records are in an inextricable state of confusion, and that the exact facts in regard to such payments cannot be ascertained, and that the changes in the rate of interest on such payments have greatly decreased the income thereof.

We therefore recommend that all such parishes as claim exemption by reason of such payments be notified of the existing state of affairs relating thereto, and that a special committee be appointed to confer with such parishes to effect an equitable re-arrangement.

The minutes of the meetings were read and directed to be handed to the Council as the report of the Board.

The Board reports that sufficient money has been received to pay the expenses of the Diocese during the year, and by the Treasurer to pay the full salary of the Bishop, as well as a considerable amount towards the arrears in the salary ; but that some arrangement must be made to meet the extraordinary expenses of the General Convention and the repairs of the See House.

On May 1st the receipts for the support of the Episcopate are larger by five hundred dollars than they were last year at the same time.

All which is respectfully submitted,

WALTER NORTH,

Secretary.

(B) REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

The Board of Education respectfully reports its official acts for the Diocesan year 1900-1901.

June 5, 1900.

The Board met and organized by the election of the Rev. Walter North, L. H. D., Secretary.

The sub-committee on the De Lancey Divinity School of the last Board was reappointed and directed to report at the next meeting of the Board the organization of the De Lancey Divinity School, in accordance with the plan submitted to the last Council, to include the names of Wardens, designation of lectureships and names of lecturers.

On motion, the present arrangement with the Rev. C. W. Hayes, D. D., was continued until the first Tuesday in September of this year.

September 4, 1900.

The lectureship in liturgics was created in the De Lancey Divinity School. Nominations were made to the Bishop of lecturers in the De Lancey Divinity School.

The Rev. Charles W. Hayes was elected Warden of the Divinity School.

Dogmatic Theology—Rev. W. C. Roberts.

Ethics and Evidences—Rev. W. F. Faber, M. A.

Liturgics, Homiletics and Pastoral Care—Rev. C. H. Boynton, Ph. D.

Necessary bills were ordered to be paid and appropriations were made for assistance of students preparing for Holy Orders.

January 8, 1901.

Paragraph II of the plan for increasing the usefulness of De Lancey Divinity School was made to read :

“The board and lodging of students while in attendance upon lectures and examinations, and the traveling expenses of students to and from the places of instruction, shall be paid from the income of the fund, except in cases of those holding scholarships.”

The Warden was requested to prepare a roster or catalogue of the School.

March 3, 1901.

Sundry bills were ordered to be paid.

May 7, 1901.

The report of the Warden of the De Lancey Divinity School was ordered to be presented to the Council with the report of the Board of Education.

All which is respectfully submitted,

WALTER NORTH,

All the lectures, except those in Ethics and Evidences, which were preparatory, have been accompanied by written questions for study and examinations. Those for May 28 will comprise a general examination for the year. The lectures and course of study proposed for the next year cannot be definitely indicated here, but will follow generally the course outlined in the Diocesan examination papers. Nearly all the text books mentioned above are in the hands of all the students; one or two have been out of print until now, but can be had shortly.

The duties of the Warden have included two or three informal lectures on subjects not otherwise provided for; the general direction of arrangements for lectures and studies : constant correspondence and much personal conference with all the lecturers and students : the providing of books, and some private teaching.

There have been added to the Library during the year 250 volumes. Of these, 217 are text books for students ; 34 for lecturers ; 29 for general reference ; 183 (chiefly text books) are duplicates or additional copies ; 28 were gifts (including a complete and very valuable set of the Church Eclectic, 1872-93, from Mr. Rankine), the others purchased at a total cost of $237.94, being $132.90 less than usual prices, and including some obtained from the libraries of the late Rev. Drs. Rankine and Lobdell.

The other expenditures by the Warden are Cost of Lectures :

Travel and Board of Lecturers.....	$104.48
Travel and Board of Students.....	71.75
Miscellaneous	6.95
	<hr/>	$183.18
Express and Freight on Books.....		16.32

The Library has been re-arranged, and partly indexed and numbered, and is in fairly good order, but will require a great deal of work and care for some time to come.

I cannot close this report without expressing my great satisfaction with the work of the Clergymen appointed as Lecturers for this year ; a work entered upon with much hesitation, and performed without compensation, but so earnestly, faithfully and ably as to awaken great interest on the part of the students, and accomplish more in actual instruction than I should have thought possible under the peculiar and in some respects unfavorable conditions as to residence and continuous study.

CHARLES WELLS HAYES,

Warden.

As explained in the Treasurer's Report, this decrease has been caused by a loss in two loans negotiated a number of years ago, viz.,

Schedule B, hereunto annexed, shows the receipts of and disbursements from the Income of the College, and exhibits a balance on hand in the Electric City Bank of $607.39, as certified in its certificate.

There are no unpaid bills at the close of the year, and the income of the corporation has been sufficient to maintain the school with a net balance to its credit at the end of the year as stated above.

Schedule C, hereunto annexed, shows a trial balance of the books of account under date of December 31, 1900.

Schedule D, hereunto annexed, is a detailed statement of the investments and the assets and liabilities of the Strickland Fund.

Schedule E, hereunto annexed, gives a list of the real estate bonds and mortgages and land contracts, being invested funds of the Endowment Fund of the College.

(I.) REPORT OF THE ARCHDEACON OF BUFFALO.

Your Archdeacon makes his third report, practically at the completion of his term.

At the outset an ideal plan was formed, and expectations were that most of it could be fulfilled. That it is not is a matter of regret but not of mismanagement. The Archdeacon cannot complain of the help his brethren have given him, nor need he apologize entirely for his own lack. Many circumstances have arisen which could not be foreseen, and the needed money has not been forthcoming. With the needed money a great deal more could have been done. Yet, on the whole, much has been accomplished for the upbuilding of the Church in the Archdeaconry. By no means does the Archdeacon assume this as due in any great degree to his work. It is only just to say that much is due to the assistance of the Clergy of the Archdeaconry. Never in any three years in recent times have the Clergy, as a whole, worked for Diocesan Missions as in the past three years.

And again great praise may be given to the Layman's League, and especially to those members who have gone into the country places to do the Master's service. At great sacrifice of personal comfort and expense have they done this work. We hear much of work done by members of the various Christian bodies, but I make bold to say that none of it surpasses that done by the earnest Churchmen of the Layman's League.

The starting of a work deserves much praise, when well done, but later on, when the newness has worn off and the material becomes used to the work, then the real trial takes place. That has been the case in several fields this last year. Men have concluded that they could no longer go out of the city, and some have been discouraged that apparently the work did not flourish under them as formerly. The truth is as above stated, and the work has settled down into a regular line. I am glad to be able to say that enough have been found to do the work, and in cases, progress has been made in the old fields. Though far from the ideal of three years ago, yet enough has been done to justify the Archdeaconry system.

Sectional meetings have been held, and in every case they have been very beneficial. Primarily they are intended for the Clergy in the locality of the place where held. Some have thought they were only designed to stir up missionary zeal in the place where held. Not so, but for the convenience of the whole locality and the increase of Missionary zeal of all attending. The Archdeacon regrets that more of the city Clergy have not availed themselves of the opportunity of these meetings in helping their brethren and of being helped.

The members out of the city are expected to be present at the Annual Meeting, why not many from the city at these Sectional Meetings?

At five different places the Archdeacon has held a week of services, in these he has been assisted by several of the Clergy. These services have been found very useful in stirring up renewed interest in the work.

During the Lenten Season the Archdeacon this year selected four places and gave them a regular Lenten Service each week. It is hoped that the result may prove beneficial.

Much time has been given to three places, owing to circumstances which seemed to demand such an expenditure of time. The results have justified the efforts.

On Sunday, October 21st, a general exchange of the Clergy took place for the presentation of the cause of Diocesan Missions. Owing to the lack of data, for which the Archdeacon is not responsible, a comparison of the expenses of the Clergy and the money given by the laity cannot be made. In fact, owing to non-reporting places, even the full amount given on that date cannot definitely be stated. But of this there is a certainty that in very many places missionary work was given a great impetus. Whether the results justified the expense and the sacrifice is not for the Archdeacon to say.

Each in his own field must decide. Yet the Archdeacon does wish to record his grateful appreciation of the ready response given by all the Clergy. If it had no other result it was a great encouragement to him in his work as showing that all of his brethren were willing to help.

The mite boxes were used again this year. It is with great regret that the Treasurer and Archdeacon cannot definitely state the number of places that used them, nor the amount secured by the use of the boxes. Very definite instruction and requests were made, and yet the responses have not been given. This year the Bishop has been able to make visits to some of the Missions, not officially for confirmation, but to help in the work, and such visits have helped the work to a great degree. In a greater degree than ever before has the Woman's Auxiliary assisted the work of the Archdeaconry. The help given to some of the Missionaries has been of much value. The sooner all people begin to realize that we have true missionary work in this Diocese, and Missionaries working at less salary than many in the domestic field, the sooner will the needed money be given and good progress made. The greatest help has, this year, been given to our Indian Mission work.

The greatest drawback this year has been the lack of the assistance given by the Clergy, who, under the Canon, could be asked to take services and communions in various parts of the field. Last year the Archdeacon could depend upon 33 Sundays. This year he has had only 15, and unless some change is made next year there will not be as many as that. Twice during the year were all stations that could support a Clergyman filled, but now at the end of the year many of these are vacant. This is from various causes, some from sickness, and one by death. Suddenly, in December, the Rev. Francis Gilliat was called to his rest. He had worked many years in this Diocese, and much of the time in Mission Stations. He was a willing and earnest worker, and was busy up to the end.

The work in its details has varied this year, as in all former years, some taking on new vigor and some seeming to be at a stand still.

Attica. Soon after the last report Mr. Clough was taken away from here for a special work. But he had builded well and left the work in good shape for his successor. The League selected Mr. Lodge for the place. Mr. Lodge was not satisfied to simply take what he found and continue it. He has gone on and made marked progress, so that as not for a long time has the work been in such good shape as now. Much credit is also due Mr. Griffith, of the parish, who has drilled the choir and put the music in fine shape.

Belfast. Rev. Geo A. Harvey has put in a year of faithful work, driving fourteen miles every Sunday to give them services, and much of the time driving the same for week-day services. Some removals and absences at school have hindered the work, yet progress has been made.

Belvidere. For a few months this field had been vacant except for infrequent services given by the Archdeacon and others of the Clergy. In the Autumn Rev. J. N. Forbes was called as Rector at Belmont and took up the work here. Early in the winter he held a week of services and has got the work in good shape over there. He is the man for the place, and much progress will be made.

Brocton. Services have been held, as formerly, at the residence of Mrs. J. A. Durham, at as nearly regular intervals as possible. All have been on week-day nights, and fairly well attended. Several of our people have moved away, and in such a field every one counts. The thanks are due to Mrs. Durham and her mother, Mrs. Moss, for the courtesy of the use of their parlors.

Chautauqua. Hartfield and Mayville. In this field Rev. Mr. Ayers has put in another good year's work. Both in the parish and at Hartfield many removals have hindered the work. At Chautauqua the usual good work has gone on during the Winter as well as the Summer. During the Summer the Church reached hundreds who had never seen or known the Church before.

Depew was, last year, placed in charge of the Missionary Board. Immediately the services of the members of the Layman's League were secured. Dr. M. D. Mann is now the regular member serving there. He has brought the work up in good shape. The Archdeacon and others of the Clergy have been there for communions as often as possible. Dr. Mann has arranged entertainments to help the fund for the new church. If the work is to make much progress a church must soon be built here.

Ellicottville. Rev. Dr. Gilliat ministered here until his death. He did a good work, which remains after him. The parish showed their appreciation by calling in subscriptions to end of current year, June 1st, and paying to the widow on the day of the funeral the salary in full to that date. Since then only infrequent services have been held. Now the people are busy preparing to call a new Rector.

East Randolph and Randolph. During the year Rev. Mr. Smith has ministered most efficiently, in season and out. His health has broken down and he has had to resign the work. Yet he has gotten things in better shape than before. At East Randolph a lot has been purchased and paid for. A large part of the funds are in hand for the new church. It will, doubtless, be begun soon and rapidly go on to completion.

Franklinville. This place is the field that tries the patience of all. Prejudice of the deepest kind has to be met, and often the lukewarmness of those who should be full of zeal in the work. Regular services have been held here by members of the League, Clergy and Archdeacon. It is hoped that another year more may be accomplished.

Friendship For some time this field was vacant, and only such services were held as the Archdeacon and other Clergy could give. The Bishop has put Mr. Hurlbut in charge here. Mr. and Mrs. Hurlbut live in the upper rooms of the house, and are doing very good work. The Sunday School has doubled since he began the work there, and it is hoped that soon we may be able to begin the new church.

Forestville and Silver Creek. Mr. Johnson resigned this work early last Summer, and the Archdeacon and Layman's League, with local readers, carried on the services until the Autumn, when Rev. Charles W. Pullen was placed in charge. It was thought necessary to secure a priest for this work, and the Board made the largest appropriation it has ever made to any one place, viz , $400 00 per year. This was done hoping that the services of Mr. Pullen would soon advance the work to better facilities for self support. Not two quarters have passed, so we cannot say yet whether such will be the result. Mr. Pullen is hard at the work.

Gowanda. The use of the Baptist house of worship has been secured and regular services have been held, the members of the League taking charge of most of them. Progress has been made and the people are much interested. A fine choir has been trained, and the music is of the best. The income from the monthly service at the State Hospital is being saved for the new church. In the near future a lot will be secured, and then steps taken for a church.

Hamburg and S. Philip's, Buffalo. Rev. Mr. Milne continues his good work in both places. At S. Philip's many needed repairs and improvements have been made. All of them paid for, to a large extent, by the offerings of the people. Soon the interior is to be redecorated. Large congregations assemble, and the Spiritual work grows as well. At Hamburg regular services are held and much growth has been made. The people showed their appreciation of their Rector by increasing the salary offered.

Hinsdale. As in former years, infrequent services are held on week days. Here, in this village, where the population is less and less each year, the most that can be done is to minister to those there.

Irving. Mr. Clough being asked to take up a special work was put in charge of the work here last May. He has been as earnest as when he was in charge formerly. Good progress is being made and the Sunday School is flourishing. The church is about ready for consecration.

Little Valley. Up to Lent services were regularly held here by the Rector of Salamanca. Since then the services are irregular, as the Rector's work ended at Salamanca. This is the County seat of Cattaraugus County, and that demands that we keep the work in shape and soon have a church there. It is one of the places where work may require time before results are seen.

Orchard Park and S. Bartholomew, Buffalo. Rev. Mr. Stevens is still working in these places under Rev. Dr. Smith. At S. Bartholomew regular services, with the assistance of the Layman's League, are kept up. Many removals have checked the growth, perhaps have prevented this ever becoming a parish, yet much good work is being done. At Orchard Park good progress is being made, the greater part of the $1,000.00 indebtedness is raised, and soon it is hoped to wipe out all debts.

Perry. The Archdeacon, with some assistance from other Clergy, has held regular Wednesday evening services in the Universalist house of worship. On October 15th, the Bishop laid the corner stone of the new church. The progress of building has been slow owing to the lateness of the season. It is hoped to open it early in June for services. The village is still growing, and many of our church people are coming there. On the opening of the Church we hope to have a man to take up the work and try to get the old parish once more into fine working condition.

Sinclairville. The work has gone on here as formerly. The people have to depend upon the Archdeacon and very infrequent Lay services. The situation of the village is such as to preclude any help from Buffalo. The work has gone on, and at Easter the offering was $25.00 for the closing up of the debt, and $3.60 for Missions. The funds are in hand to paint the church. There has been a delay in the consecration of the church owing to the deed being among the papers of the late Bishop, and not, as yet, secured.

Springville. During the past year this Mission has been under the Layman's League, with occasional services by the Archdeacon and other Clergymen. Mr. Gair ministers here very acceptably. The children have raised the money for a new font, which will soon be placed in the church.

Tonawanda. For a short time this important work was placed in charge of a Clergyman, but he soon left for promising fields, financially. The Bishop has placed Mr. Herrick in charge. He lives among the people and is doing good work. An excellent Sunday School is carried on here. The building that was bought and remodeled has all been paid for, and now the people are working to pay for the lot. When that is done a church can be built. Those in charge of this work deserve much credit.

The Archdeacon and other Clergy have held occasional services at Hume and Caneadea, in Allegany County; at Castile and Silver Springs, in Wyoming County. These services were for a few of our people living in those villages.

At the suggestion and direction of the Bishop, the Archdeacon, Rev. Mr. Johnson and Mr. Clough, early last Spring, made a visit to the Cattaraugus Reservation. After thoroughly going over the western part of it, decided to start Missionary work there. As far as can be found out, this is the first work for the Seneca Indians our Church has ever done. Mr. Clough, while at Irving, had formed the acquaintance of these people, and was thought to be the man for this work. In May, the Archdeacon and Mr. Clough made another visit to the Reservation, and decided to begin work in Indian School House, No. 2. Fortunately for this work the Rector of S. Paul's Church was willing to continue his scheme of last year, and had his Sunday School help start this one. So the Sunday School of S. Paul's Church gave the library and all the needed catechisms, etc., and also an organ, in fact, placed the school in good working order. Mr. Clough began the last Sunday in May, and has held regular sessions every Sunday afternoon. This has been followed by much week-day visitation. It has been a pleasure for the Archdeacon to go on some of these visits among the people, and thus get to know these families. When visiting Irving for communion, he has gone with Mr. Clough and held service in this school house. Three adults and ten children have been baptized; more are to follow. The expenses of Mr. Clough have been met by the Woman's Auxiliary of the city of Buffalo, and with the continued assistance of S. Paul's Sunday School and the Woman's Auxiliary, even greater success is looked for. Well may we ask your prayers for this, our first work, among the Seneca Indians.

During the year the Archdeacon has baptized 31, buried 5, married 7, Holy Communion, public 93, private 5, by others, 21; public services, 261, sermons 175, addresses 54, catechising 37, calls 1,008, besides much correspondence. The Archdeacon wishes to thank the Clergy for their assistance, and also the Layman's League for the continued cordial relations and great assistance they have rendered.

Another year the people of the Missions have extended a cordial hospitality on all his visits. He has been cheered and encouraged in his work. To all he returns his thanks.

CHARLES A. BRAGDON,
Archdeacon.

NATHANIEL ROCHESTER, Treasurer.

(2.) REPORT OF THE ARCHDEACON OF ROCHESTER.

During the past year we have provided the ministrations of the Church at thirty-six (36) places. The workers have included twenty (20) Lay-Readers and fifteen (15) Clergymen. And the Lay-Readers have been :

Messrs. Buisch, Denton, Drake, Houston, Humphrey, Jones, Van Ingen, Mott, Hayden, Charles, Hopkins, Heady, Jordan, Allison, Merriman, Graves, Young, Bennett, Gurnee and Whitwell, besides Mrs. Spruce and Mrs. Burnett.

The work done for Christ and His Church in these places by these brethren has been faithful, and for the most part notably efficient. Quietly, modestly, patiently, yet faithfully, cheerfully and heroically our diocesan missionaries are fulfilling their sacred duties. How glad I should be if some word of mine might win for them a fairer measure of appreciation and more creditable compensation for the support of themselves and their families. The field is not so distant as to gain enchantment ; there have been no butchering Boxers to excite resentful sympathy ; no national humorist has so maliciously maligned the laborers as to concentrate upon them the indignant generosity of chivalrous Christians ; yet, the field has a romance all its own ; the work has an importance, real and critical ; it is (to say the least) unintelligent for any of us to remain indifferent to this department of church extension. Giving all due consideration to the problems accompanying the phenomenal growth of our modern cities, at the same time let there be a frank and full recognition of our large and urgent responsibility for the immense rural population of this section of the Empire State. There is present and pressing need for what this church has in trust to contribute to the ethical and spiritual life of the thousands in scattered villages hereabouts. We are shamelessly behindhand in comparison with other religious bodies. We have the men and the means, as well as the Master's mandate and message. We need a wider and a clearer realization of the facts in the case ; leadership which will inspire confidence, and a prayerful enterprise which smiles at difficulties and trusts God for results.

Your Board of Missions has held eight meetings since the last Council, and has shown an increasing capacity for practical helpfulness. The subdivision of the Board into committees with definite duties has this year resulted in a larger measure of co-operation. The laymen have bettered their record so considerably as to justify the expectation that the next Archdeacon will not have to grapple the money problem alone. Some of the difficult subjects which have claimed their earnest counsel have been, (a) how to meet the doubled demand of the Deaf Mute mission without serious retrenchment in other directions ; (b) how to save the Fairport property from foreclosure proceedings by the American Church Building Fund Commission ; (c) the propriety of attempting to revive the abandoned mission on Monroe avenue ; (d) how best to take advantage of the proposition of S. Paul's Church to strengthen the work in East Rochester ; and (e) the investigation of the legal complications in connection with the management of the cemetery at Allen's Hill. For their painstaking attention to such business and for their faithful performance of routine duties the Board deserve special thanks this year, and I take pleasure in expressing my grateful appreciation of their very valuable assistance to the Archdeacon.

The new places entered during the year are Spencerport, Himrods and Macedon, together with Manchester, Springwater, Despatch and Gorham, where services were begun a year ago.

With the enthusiastic co-operation of Mr. Littell, the Rector of S. Luke's, Brockport, we have made a modest beginning in Spencerport, which we trust may not be without permanent results. On the 9th of November service was held in Goff's Hall, under noticeably pioneer conditions ; a blizzard without. In response to one hundred circulars conspicuously posted about the town five residents assembled, unfamiliar with the Prayer Book, and with the three zealous friends from Brockport, accomplished the service. Four visits have been since made with increasing attendance and interest. The adherents are now about as numerous as the original Apostolic group, the local denominationalists exhibit accustomed inhospitality, and the prospect for immediate success is not glowing, but good seed is being sown, and in due time we shall reap if we faint not.

Macedon is a thriving village about four miles east of Palmyra, where I held an interesting first service on the evening of October 10th last. Through the influence of Mr. Burton D. Bagley, one of the local church buildings was gratuitously opened for us, and spirited music furnished by the excellent choir ; the large congregation present intelligently followed the evening prayer leaflet, and ten eager churchfolk made themselves known to me before leaving. The joy reflected on the countenances of these faithful few, and the fervor with which they discussed the proposition for future ministrations were eloquent appeals for established supervision of the field.

Half way between Dresden and Dundee is the railroad junction of Himrods, overlooking the unrivalled Seneca Lake. Years ago the services of the church were supplied with regularity ; but for a long period our influence was withdrawn. In October last, Mr. Davis and I called there as we were driving through, and next month regular Sunday afternoon services were commenced by the enterprising missionary at Dundee. The attendance has been large and the interest increases. In December I administered the Holy Communion to a devout company in the large hall over a vacant store room. There are unusual signs of promise about this venture. Some arrangement should be made to assist Mr. Davis here during the summer months when the weekly ministrations at Glenora also are to be supplied.

On the second Sunday of each month I have officiated in an empty store at Manchester. Mr. J. B. Stoll has been most zealous and helpful in providing the room and enlisting the interest of residents ; on one occasion crowding the space with the local W. C. T. U. to hear a sermon upon the principles and work of the Church Temperance Society. With the retirement of Mr. Jordan, the Lay-Reader at Shortsville, next month, it will be necessary to provide someone for these important points.

At Springwater I have maintained ministrations somewhat intermittently during the year, sometimes officiating in the Reformed Church, again in the home of Dr. Knickerbacker, and last month in the Presbyterian Church. In June I baptized two adults (Mrs. Willis and Miss Capron), who with Miss Winifred Smith are awaiting confirmation. A few miles distant is the large town of Wayland, where we should be exerting an influence ; during the year a church family, F. A. Degraw, from Hammondsport, have moved in and are ready to co-operate in any effort to introduce the church.

At Gorham on the Middlesex branch of the Lehigh Valley we have maintained the ground won last year, and should move forward to greater things in the near future. Last summer a popular young school teacher died suddenly under such circumstances as to evoke the sympathy of all ; she had learned enough of the church to love it, and requested that our service should be said at her burial ; upon telephonic summons the clergyman added to his already busy Sunday a drive of thirty miles in the heat of the day to fulfill her dying wish ; the country side was in attendance, and in reverent procession proceeded from the house of mourning to the cemetery. That funeral meant much for the church thereabouts.

Not long afterwards on a moonlight night a carry-all filled with interesting churchfolk from Geneva drove the twenty miles to attend evening service in the upper room in Gorham; Mr. Kearton assisted the Archdeacon in the prayers, and Mrs. Kearton presided at the organ; and the memory lingers of the heartiest service yet held there.

I spent the 6th of October last in Naples, the terminus of this branch, calling amongst the people and arranging for a future service. It is asserted that the settlement of this thriving town began in 1790; they claim to-day a population of 1200. Situated at the other end of the lake from Canandaigua where our church has always been so flourishing, it is an amazement and a reproach that we should yet be without a foothold there. The few residents whose names have been given to me as belonging to the church, have not encouraged the proposition to begin services amongst them; one man declaring that he and his family have wandered off into the delusions of Christian Science. The inaccessibility of the town and the inconvenience of the train schedule seriously interfere with efforts to serve the place from a distance. But the very difficulties of the task challenge our enterprise and faith, and we trust that the entrance which we have been recently seeking may within another year be found and a promising work be launched. It is altogether too important a village for the church to neglect.

The other new point approached is Despatch, a town of but recent growth around the shops of the Merchants Despatch Company, situated within sight of Fairport. Our services were attracting creditable congregations and exciting considerable interest. Last summer I baptized half a dozen children, and lay-readers from Rochester were lending assistance, when the two families upon whom we most relied were compelled to move from the town, and the Methodists were spurred to more aggressive efforts and built a church, and our following dwindled. With the constant shifting of the population we can hope for the advent of some loyal family by whose influence we may be helped to revive the work, and to that end we should maintain an oversight of the place, ready to improve a recurring opportunity.

I have thus called your attention to these new points first, because I wish to indicate where openings have been a preparing for resident missionaries. There should be three more pastors at work in this field; one for the Middlesex valley to develop Gorham and Naples; another for the Erie line to serve Springwater and Wayland, with perhaps Livonia and Avoca; and a third to care for Shortsville, Manchester, South Phelps, with perhaps S. Andrews, Geneva. This is but the natural penalty of turning an Archdeacon loose on the errand of church extension. The wedge has been inserted; you must now drive it home or someone's fingers will be pinched.

The other new points need no resident presbyters yet, but can best be supplied on that never-to-be-discarded principle of "the next towns," so reverently incorporated in our Bishop Coxe prayer. Spencerport adjoins Brockport, Himrods goes with Dresden, as Glenora with Dundee, and Despatch with Rochester, and Macedon with Palmyra, and Wolcott or Savannah with Clyde, and Kendall or Hulburton with Holley, and Lyndonville or Ridgeway with Medina, as Bergen with Batavia, and Savona with Bath. If we of the Clergy really mean "Thy kingdom come," the hour has struck for us to answer such Macedonian cries with labors and gifts hitherto unknown. It may sound extravagant to summon Christianity to "The Evangelization of the world in this generation, but it is sober sense and seasonable to demand of this Archdeaconry that such a campaign as has been outlined above should be at once inaugurated.

We have held several fine sectional conferences during the year. On the 14th and 15th of February, at Hornellsville, the Clergy of that district met and combined the missionary sessions and services with a pre Lenten devotional day. Large congregations assembled the first evening in the parish church and in the mission chapel at Canisteo. The addresses were thoughtful and stimulating. Friday began with the Lord's Supper and a sermon on "The Sanctuary of Missions." The morning passed with the brethren in prayers and meditations on I. Corinthians, vi., and the day closed with discussions on Archdeaconry needs and methods, Sunday School progress and systems, and a learned exegetical essay. The tremendous snow-fall of that week minimized the attendance, but all told, it was a most profitable and enjoyable meeting. But altogether the most successful Sectional Conference we have held was that which was gathered under the ingenious management of Rev. C. T. Walkley in Zion Church, Palmyra, on Wednesday, October 10th. The striking feature was the very large company of laymen and women, representing the neighboring towns as well as the parish, which so hospitably entertained us. The Rector of Lyons led a body of twenty delegates from his congregation; Dr. Hayes brought an equally noticeable group from Phelps. Wayne county was out in force, and, of course, an enthusiastic conference resulted. The secretary of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese came from Rochester and presented the subject of the Auxiliary's methods and needs delightfully. The new president of the Auxiliary addressed us, and felicitously introduced an animated discussion of the merits of the De Lancey School for Girls at Geneva. Judge McLouth read a spirited paper upon the Duties of Vestrymen, and other timely topics were ably opened by clerical appointees. The day closed with a hearty missionary service in the parish church, and another in the nearby village of Macedon. The idea of inviting to these conferences not only the three canonical delegates, but men and women generally from the neighboring towns, is too good to be forgotten. Imitate the Palmyra model, and no one will again complain that such meetings are unprofitable.

The bright hopes expressed a year ago in reference to our new venture in Dundee have been fully realized, and at last we are equipped with a substantial and beautiful church in this thriving town. Such work as Mr. Davis has done here this past year is beyond praise; a deacon pursuing the course of study for priest's orders, and at the same time ministering to four widely separated congregations, undertakes the erection of a church. Himself the carpenter and builder, he toils with his laborers week by week, and within the year completes the sacred fabric, representing a valuation of full $5,000. It is, I believe, an unexampled accomplishment hereabouts. The memory of it should be kept alive as a perpetual incentive to us all. I venture to propose a vote of appreciation to Mr. Davis and his co-laborers. I would include in this unusual honor those without whom the result could not have been accomplished; chiefly, Mr. George P. Lord, who has given $700, and advanced $2,800 more, without security; and also the Harpending family, who donated the most desirable lot available in the town, worth $350. To the Sunday Schools of the Archdeaconry large credit is due for enabling me to urge on the project, in that they contributed $407.39 a year ago during Advent; an amount which later Sunday School gifts have swelled to $525. The excavation for this church was begun in June last, the foundation stone was laid on the 30th of October, and the first service was held in the finished structure on the Feast of the Epiphany, January 6th. The joy over it all will be unqualified when the present loan of $2,800 shall have been met, and the worthy sanctuary may be consecrated to the glory of the Triune God.

Among the treasured memorials already received is a marble font from the Babies' Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese, a duplicate of that one which the same organization donated a year earlier to the Union Hill Chapel. What a happy idea, thus to associate the little ones of the kingdom with the baptismal equipment of each new mission! The canonical steps preliminary to the admission of a congregation into union with the Diocese were all duly taken by these people a year ago, and their formal application for recognition as an organized Mission, with the name of Grace Church, Dundee, was duly submitted, and should have come before the Council for final sanction; it should, without fail, be favorably endorsed at this session.

Mr. Davis' work in the parish of S. John's, Dresden, has had to assume secondary importance this past year as a natural consequence of Dundee's compelling claim upon his time and strength, but there has been faithful and fruitful work among this people nevertheless, and the future will witness yet more of it. Up to three years ago this congregation felt they did their utmost if they paid $100 for occasional sacraments and lay reading; it was the audacity of faith to invite a married man to move in, and promise him $600 annually; two years have passed and the difficulties have been solved in walking. Dresden pays its half and Dundee the balance, fully and gladly. Reliable information was received more than a year ago of a small bequest to S. John's Church, left by a Mr. Nicholas, who lately died in Lawrence, Kansas. This money should be paid upon the formal demand of the Bishop, lodged with the County Clerk in Lawrence.

The Church of the Ascension, Rochester, has also successfully engaged in a structural enterprise this past year. The nave of the handsome new church has been built at a cost of about $1,500. Mr. Addison LeBoutillier, of Boston, is the architect, and has prepared a strikingly meritorious design; the section erected this year communicates with the old church through large folding doors, thus more than doubling the seating capacity. The work has been paid for all but about $400, which Mr. LeBoutillier hopes to secure speedily.

The friends of All Saints' Mission, Rochester, have experienced conflicting emotions this year. The effort to secure the balance of the assessment due for city improvements in the neighborhood was not successful, and in December the municipal authorities seized the property for debt. Dr. Parnell has continued his faithful and most welcome pastoral labors undaunted, and the thriving Sunday School has rounded out another year of progress. The invaluable assistance, so often rendered by the members of the parsonage household, has seldom been more commendable than that which has been freely given by the devoted and cultivated family of the missionary here. I cannot refrain from recording at least this tribute to those whose co-operation has been beyond price. In January a committee from the vestry of S. Paul's Church met with the Board of Missions and submitted a proposition to assume responsibility for the development of the church's interests in the All Saints district. After a careful consideration of the generous offer, and with the written assent of Dr. Parnell, the Board referred the project to the Bishop with their unanimous approval. With such an arrangement consummated the crushing financial burden upon the property will be removed, and under the aggressive operations which this strong parish contemplates, the mission should speedily rise to the great opportunities of this populous and growing section. I feel sure that I will not be misunderstood when I add that only one amendment might be suggested to such a liberal proposition from such a people ready to further the cause of church extension; and that is this: The Board of Missions itself might well be entrusted to dispense there larger sums and superintend the more extensive undertakings. It should ensure better results all round, if the donors committed the business not to inexperienced experimenters, but to an expert group of missionary authorities. To make the cause of Diocesan Missions successful, two simple rules are fundamental, 1st, elect the best men available to your Board, and 2nd, trust those men, and support them. Meet their appeals with that responsive sense of obligation which asks not how little must I give up, but rather how much can I contribute. In their despairing effort to satisfy the Egyptian demand for bricks without straws, it would prove a veritable god-send, if one with a generous impulse toward the work should recognize the wisdom of placing his gift in their hands for administration. The time has come when this policy should be widely adopted by those whom God has honored with the stewardship of money.

There is apparently small prospect of ever receiving from the parochial collections even sufficient to provide for the minimum of necessary work in the field. The very limited operations, as yet undertaken, have been made possible only by reason of the income from the Permanent Missionary Fund. With the decline in rates of interest, we will be compelled to reduce our already meager appropriations. If there is to be any extension of our operations, there must be immediate and measurable additions to the principal of this Permanent Missionary Fund. To-day it aggregates $32,000; it should be raised at once to a full $50,000, and sooner or later each Archdeaconry should have such an amount with which to supplement its quarterly collections. We commend this indispensable Fund as worthy of remembrance in the wills of the faithful.

Resisting the temptation to outline the other features of the year's experience—some of which, at least, are quite as noteworthy as the foregoing—I report that the official acts of your Archdeacon include : Baptisms, 28 infants and 4 adults ; confirmations, 3, with four more classes ready ; marriages, 3 ; burials, 12 ; morning prayer, 67 ; evening prayer, 125 ; litany, 29 ; Holy Communion, public 78, private 3 ; sermons, 194 ; addresses, 44 ; catechisings and instructions, 32 ; meetings of the Board, 8 ; sectional conferences, 3 ; vestry meetings, 16 ; congregational consultations, 28 ; committee sessions, 37 ; with constant journeyings and continuous correspondence.

The Treasurer reports that he has paid out $3,901.92, and has $313 20 special fund, and $70.45 general balance, which, together with another "special" of $75, subject to the order of the Archdeacon, makes a total for the year of $4,357.57, to which should be added several hundred dollars more not passing through our treasury, but quite as truly given for Diocesan Missions. A grand total, fully up to our best previous record. An itemized statement of receipts and disbursements follows :

The Advent gifts of the Sunday Schools amounted to $408 86, a larger sum than ever before. It was distributed equally between four missions to help pay for the properties in each—Fairport, Union Hill, Livonia and Charlotte—and greatly stimulated the courage and energies of these struggling congregations. We cannot too frequently express our profound thanks to these royal helpers in the various Sunday Schools. The offerings this past year for the work amongst Deaf Mutes amounted to $256.62, as against $79.68 the year before. The receipts from the permanent fund, however, have been but $690.27, a falling off, which accounts in part for the slight deficit with which we close the accounts. I append a comparative tabular statement which exhibits the amounts received during the six years of the Archdeaconry experience, and those received for the six years just antedating the present system :

Year.	Permanent Fund.	Offerings.	Sunday Schools.	Totals.
1890	$ 984.87	$ 2,027.96
1891	949.24	2,279.56
1892	1,013.57	2 239.37
1893	955.48	2,993.83
1894	383.67	1,391.65
1895	699.33	2,446.96
1896	654.09	2,934.67	$ 50.66
1897	652.85	2,996.03	73.50
1898	796.60	3,264.08	313.21
1899	624.92	3,160.46	321.25
1900	734.41	2,942.20	407.39
1901	690.27	3,257.44	408 86

In thus submitting the report of our work for the past year, we bring to a close our responsibility for this department of church endeavor. For six years you have honored me in the office of Archdeacon. It might serve a useful purpose if we should here review the results of these years, and draw a comparison between conditions in this district then and now. But I refrain. Permit me merely to say that in declining the honor of a re-appointment, which has come to me through the favoring ballots of the convocation and the concurrence of the Bishop. I am inexpressibly grateful for the unnumbered tokens of fraternal affection accorded to me by both clergy and laity. This has been the richest period of my life in the formation of friendships, which I trust may be eternal. The severance of a relationship, fruitful in this wise, is no light matter, quite apart from the question of turning away from a field in which our humble efforts have been dignified by unmistakable signs of God's favor. Without dwelling upon the causes which have led me thus deliberately to refuse the re-election, I believe that you recognize that they are serious enough to justify and compel the course I take. To one and all who have so largely aided our work I make heartfelt acknowledgments—to the lay-readers, the Woman's Auxiliary, the Juniors in the Sunday School, the Babies' Branch, and many others. May their interest and helpfulness increase with every year. I can offer no better wish to my successor than he may find amongst you all the same loyal and liberal sympathy and co-operation which you have so freely showered upon your first Archdeacon.

Annexed to this report is a tabular statement showing the particulars of the mortgages held in the Episcopate Fund.

By comparing this statement with that submitted last year it will be observed that several mortgages have been paid off during the year, and others have been reduced. These changes in the status of the principal fund have been as follows :

Mortgage of William A. Brooks has been reduced from $2,000 to $1,500, upon the call of the Trustees, in order to bring this security within safer limits.

The mortgage of Edwin Green, which was reported last year at $300, has been paid off during the year.

The mortgage of Clara M. Houck, reported last year at $1,900, has been reduced to $1,700.

The mortgage of Charles W. Le Baron, reported last year at $1,000, has been reduced to $500.

The mortgages of Christian Weisert and Simon P. Swift, for $500 and $950 respectively, credited last year to the De Lancey Fund, have been redeemed and paid off during the current year.

The interest on all the mortgages held by the Fund, which is due at the time of this report, has been paid with the exception of the Sarah E. Sullivan mortgage, on which the semi-annual interest due May tenth has not yet been paid, though we are assured it will be within the thirty days of grace usually allowed.

The real estate held by the Trustees is carried for what it cost to buy it in on foreclosure. The farm in Oswego County, which for many years has been carried as an asset of the value of $1,971.01, and which was sold for taxes in 1895, according to all our information, is not worth redeeming from the tax sale, and has been charged off.

The Lockport property is not readily salable, and is non-productive.

The farm near Brockport is held under a land contract, but the purchaser has never been able to pay more than the annual interest upon the purchase price, which is equivalent to a fair rental for the same.

The Rochester real estate is rented and produces a good return upon the cost. The Buffalo real estate is non-productive, and we have been unable to effect a sale thereof, though we have some hopes that with the return of better conditions in real estate, this property may be sold within the present year without any loss.

The principal of the Episcopate Fund has been increased during the year by the payment of a legacy bequeathed to the Fund by the terms of the last will and testament of the late Hon. James M. Smith, Chancellor of the Diocese, amounting to $3,000.

The receipts of income during the past year are as follows :

Balance on hand May 15, 1900.....	$	338.62
From Treasurer of Diocese.....		3,721.78
Interest on investments of permanent fund, rents, etc.,		1,811.61
Total receipts.....	$	5,872.01

The disbursements have been as follows :

Salary of Bishop (12 mos.).....	$ 5,000.00
Taxes, insurance and assessments on See House....	378.56
Other taxes and expenses connected with real estate.	132 66
Treasurer's expenses for bond, etc.....	26.92
Cash on hand.....	333.87
		$ 5,872.01

As compared with last year, the receipts show a gain of $674.71 in the offerings from the parishes received through the Treasurer of the Diocese, and a loss of $609.30 in the income from the invested fund. This loss is more apparent than real. It is largely accounted for by the fact that last year's statement included about $200 in deferred rents and about $100 in anticipated interest. This year's income also does not include the semi-annual interest due June 1st on the large balance of cash to the credit of the principal of the fund, which will amount to about $175. There has been, as our last two annual reports have pointed out that there would be, a loss in income, due to the reduction of the rates of interest.

This has, however, been offset in a large measure by the increment from the bequest of $3,000 from the late Judge Smith.

For the first time in several years we have been able to pay the Bishop's salary in full, and meet all taxes and other expenses. The only unpaid obligation is the salary of the Bishop for four months, $1,666.64. The Trustees hope that next year they will be able to reduce this indebtedness by at least one month's salary, provided the offering from the parishes is not less than it was this past year.

Respectfully submitted,

ELBRIDGE L. ADAMS,

Treasurer.

Chairman.

		<hr/> $ 8,064.42

From a total of about 117 parishes and missions in the Diocese, some being vacant, 76, being 11 more than last year, have made offerings amounting to $1,347.69, being $204.43 more than last year.

The principal of this fund is invested in bonds and first mortgages on farming lands located in Wayne and Ontario Counties, and in savings banks, as follows :

J. W. G.....	$ 1,200.00
E. A. D	2,700.00
I. P.....	2,000.00
J. C.....	3,000.00
C. J. E.....	800.00
T. E. R.....	3,000.00
R. D.....	2,300.00
M. E. B.....	500.00
Deposit in three savings banks in Rochester and one in Buffalo.....	11,060.78

	<hr/> $26,684.00
And cash on hand to balance	1,513.46
	<hr/> $28,197.46

All matured interest on real estate mortgages has been paid (except one). The list of annuitants numbers one more than at the close of last year. There has been disbursed for annuities and temporary relief, $2,600. It thus appears that the disbursements to annuitants exceed the actual receipts of income from the fund and the offerings of parishes ($2,204.52) by the sum of $395.48, and that there is added other disbursements amounting to $27.74, making a total disbursement in excess of receipts of $423.22, but of this amount the above item of $319 65, interest remaining in savings bank, and which is income, should be deducted, leaving the actual excess of disbursements over receipts $103.57, which last is a portion of the above item of cash on hand in bank, $1,617.03.

One Trustee, in the place of William H. Farnam, whose term expires, is required to be elected.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

W. H. FARNAM,
H. P. KNOWLES,
CHARLES McLOUTH,
Trustees.

Dated May 22, 1901.

H. P. KNOWLES,
Treasurer.

The foregoing account and the securities mentioned have been examined by us and found correct, and we believe the securities and assets of the fund to be of the values as above mentioned, and the fund as well invested as can be under the present condition of things.

SAMUEL P. NICHOLS,
CARLTON C. M. HUNT,
Auditors.

Dated May 22, 1901.

6. Unfinished Business.
7. Motions, Resolutions, and Miscellaneous Business.

VIII. The Order of the Day for every annual meeting of the Council at 10 o'clock A. M. on the second day shall be the election of the Standing Committee, and of Deputies to the General Convention, and the election of any persons to supply vacancies in the Board of Trustees of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate, of the Christmas Fund, of the Parochial Fund, and of De Veaux College; also of the Treasurer of the Council.

IX. Every member who shall be present when a question is stated from the Chair, shall vote thereon, unless excused by the House.

X. No motion shall be put or debated until it is seconded and when seconded, it shall be stated by the President before debate; and every motion shall be reduced to writing, when required by the President, or by any member.

XI. If a question in debate contains distinct propositions, one or more, they may be separated at the call of any member into so many several motions.

XII. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received, except (1) to lay the motion on the table, (2) to postpone it indefinitely, (3) to postpone it to a certain time, (4) to commit it, or (5) to amend; and motions for these purposes shall have precedence in the order thus named

XIII. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order, when no member is speaking, and shall be decided without debate; and if it be negatived, it shall not be renewed until other business has been treated in due order.

XIV. A motion to lay on the table shall be decided without debate.

XV. A question, being put by the President, shall be determined by the sound of voices; but any member may require a count of the votes; or previous to a decision by count, any three members may require the yeas and nays to be taken, which shall be done by calling the names of the Clerical members, and the names of Churches and Missions represented; and the votes shall be recorded in the Journal. Or the yeas and nays may be taken by orders on the call of any five members, and when so taken the votes shall be recorded in like manner.

XVI. No member except the mover may speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the House.

XVII. A question once decided, shall not be reconsidered during the same session without the consent of two-thirds of the votes of the Council, nor without the motion for that purpose being made by one of the majority on said decision. No question shall be reconsidered more than once.

XVIII. Special Committees not otherwise provided for shall be appointed by the Chair.

XIX. Except by the votes of two-thirds of the persons present entitled to vote, no standing rule or order shall be suspended, changed or rescinded, without record of a motion to that effect made on a previous day.

XX. Before the final adjournment of any session of the Council, the minutes of the last day's proceedings shall be read, corrected and approved.

XXI. If the Bishop of the Diocese be not present, and able to preside; or the Episcopate be vacant; then, in the absence of the Secretary of the preceding Council, the Council shall be called to order by the President or Senior Presbyter of the Standing Committee present, who shall preside until the Council has been organized. Then a President pro tempore shall be elected from among the Presbyters present, who shall make the appointments ordinarily assigned to the Bishop, or under his direction.

XXII. The Council shall open its sessions at 9.30 A. M., and unless otherwise ordered, take a recess from 1 to 3 P. M., and from 5.30 to 7 30 P. M.

*The Bishop then read his Annual Address.

The following amendment to Canon 7 of Title I, offered by the Rev. Dr. North, was referred to the Committee on Constitution and Canons :

* See Appendix I.

“ To amend Section VI of Canon VII of Title I.

“ Strike out all after § VI and substitute : ‘ There shall be a Board of Education elected at every Annual Council, four Clergymen and four Laymen, who shall be Communicants of the Church in this Diocese, shall be chosen by ballot and by the concurrent vote of the Clergy and Laity, to constitute with the Bishop and Board of Education and ex-officio Trustees of the De Lancey Divinity School.’

“ Also, under § III of Canon X, Title I, insert after the words ‘ Standing Committee of the Church ’ the words ‘ the Board of Education.’ ”

The Special Committee, appointed at the last Annual Council to prepare and present to this Council resolutions with reference to the matter of De Veaux College, presented the following

REPORT :

To the Sixty-fifth Annual Council of the Diocese of Western New York :

Your Committee, appointed by the Bishop of the Diocese, pursuant to the following resolution adopted at the Annual Council for the year A. D. 1901, on the 28th day of May (Journal, 36), to-wit :

“ Resolved, That a Committee of five be appointed by the Chair to prepare “ and present to the next Council resolutions that will bring before the said “ Council, in a form suitable for its consideration, the questions considered “ in the opinion of the Honorable John G. Milburn in the matter of the “ re-establishment of the ‘ Pay-Pupil Department ’ at De Veaux College,” respectfully report :

That the questions considered in said opinion are three in number :

FIRST.

The right to receive pay pupils in addition to the free pupils to the extent of the staff and resources of the equipment necessary for the care and instruction of the free pupils supported in the institution. (Journal, 55)

On this question Mr. Milburn says :

“ The institution has certain buildings, and it must be easy to estimate
“ how many free pupils its income from its property will permit of being “ taken. For that number a certain staff and equipment are necessary.

 “ That indispensable staff and equipment being furnished, it may be a fact “ that they and the existing buildings are adequate to the care and instruc“ tion of more than the free pupils who can be supported, and to the extent “ that it is so, I think pupils may be taken at a sum which equals or exceeds
 “ the cost of their board and tuition.” (Journal, 55.)

The Attorney-General says :

“ I have examined the opinion in question, together with the will of the “ founder of the College and the statutes having reference thereto, and am “ disposed to concur in Mr. Milburn's views with reference to this question.

“ So long as the available income of the institution is regularly and pri“ marily all applied to and consumed in the care, education, etc., of orphan
 “ and destitute children as free pupils, I can discover no real or substantial “ objection to the utilizing of any remaining accommodations connected “ with the College, together with the full strength of the indispensable staff “ and faculty of the institution remaining available after the proper care of “ free pupils, by the receiving of other pupils into the College, upon pay“ ment by them of a sum which shall equal but not exceed the cost of their “ board and tuition.

“ It is not, however, to be understood or inferred that the Trustees would “ be justified in curtailing, to any extent, the opportunities of free pupils, or “ those desiring to become such, or in any manner failing to execute the “ trust in accord with the intent of the founder, as expressed in his will, and
 “ the statutes having reference thereto.” (Journal, 60, 61.)

SECOND.

Legislation to so amend the act of incorporation as to permit of paying pupils being taken, thereby placing the college on a broader basis of usefulness as well as enabling it to carry out more effectively the purpose and design of its founder.
 (Journal, 56)

On this question Mr. Milburn says :

“ The amendment need only provide that paying pupils may be taken, and “ restrict the use of the property acquired and held for benevolent purposes
 “ to those purposes. A scheme combining these elements is perfectly prac“ ticable, and has the sanction of over thirty years of experience, and such “ an amending Act could not be regarded in any sense as an innovation.”
 (Journal, 57.)

THIRD.

Determination of the question by amicable suit at law.

On this question Mr. Milburn says :

"In its absence" (the absence of legislation) "it must be considered an open question to what extent the power to take paying pupils exists. After much reflection I can devise no means of settling that question judicially excepting an action by the Attorney General or a Trustee. A resolution being adopted to receive a certain fixed number of paying pupils, Sections 1781 and 1782 of the Code of Civil Procedure impress me as being broad enough to authorize the Attorney General or a Trustee to bring a suit in which the validity of that action would be determined. (People v. Ballard, 134 N. Y., 269.) I think an objecting Trustee could maintain such an action without the aid of those provisions of the Code, as a matter of ordinary equity jurisdiction. No other means of obtaining a judicial determination occurs to me, and I am confident there is none. There is no way of presenting the matter to the Court as an abstract proposition without reference to some recognized form of action or actual relief to be granted through the medium of a judgment determining a real controversy. Such an action as I have indicated would be founded on all allegations questioning the power of the College to take paying pupils, either altogether or beyond a certain point, and the relief asked would be that the Trustees be restrained from receiving them. The Trustees who are parties defendant to the action, or the corporation, if the action be brought by the Attorney General against it, will assert the right and power, and the issue thus framed will involve the determination of the open question as to the powers of the corporation. As I view the matter, the choice lies between an amendment to the Act of incorporation and such an action. An enabling amendment is much the more satisfactory and effective measure of the two. Legal proceedings, however amicable in their origin, are too apt to engender injurious controversies. Yet, if an action be necessary, there is no reason why it should not accomplish its purpose without any friction if the real issues are formulated in advance to the satisfaction of the representatives of the Trustees who hold conflicting views." (Journal, 57, 58.)

Your Committee have also taken into consideration the facts set forth in the Bishop's Address to the Council of A. D. 1901, on the subject of DeVeaux College (Journal, 48-72), and the report of Mr. R. F. Rankine, Treasurer, and the opinion of the Attorney General embodied therein.

From these sources it appears that a certain sum must be paid out for "Maintenance of the Plant" and "Maintenance of Administration," i. e., for fixed charges, salaries, wages and expenses each year, whether the number of pupils is large or small. (Journal, 50, 64, 65.)

In the year A. D. 1901 the College had twenty six students. It can accommodate from seventy to eighty.

The buildings, the grounds, the equipment and the teachers are on hand, and it would seem that they should all be employed to their fullest capacity, so far as it can be done in accordance with the will of the founder and the law. How shall this be done?

Without increasing the force of present masters and without increasing the fixed charges for salaries, wages and expenses, except as hereafter stated, nine more boys could be admitted to the school. The exceptions noted are $300 per annum additional for one servant and $300 annually to cover breakage and repairs. Such additional students paying $200 a year, would enable the Trustees to take more free foundationers than at present (Journal, 65) and the efficiency of the school would be relatively increased.

The facts show that more pupils can be received and cared for at this institution than are now being maintained there without materially increasing the cost of maintenance of Plant and Administration.

Your Committee, following the sequence of thought contained in Mr. Milburn's opinion, and without expressing any preference as to the course which should be adopted, present for your consideration the following resolutions, embodying the lines of action therein indicated:

I.

Resolved, That the Board of Trustees of De Veaux College are hereby authorized to receive and admit pay pupils, at such rates as to them seem proper, to the extent of utilizing fully the accommodations and indispensable corps of employees and instructors who are now or may be necessary to perform and are actually engaged in performing the work of the College, such as would be necessary if no pay pupil department existed. (Journal, 59.)

II.

Resolved. That the Act incorporating De Veaux College be amended so as to expressly permit the admission of pay pupils at such rates as to the Trustees seem proper, thereby placing the college on a broader basis of usefulness and enabling it to carry out more effectively the purpose and design of its founder.

III.

Resolved. That this Council recommends that the Trustees of De Veaux College by resolution establish a pay pupil department in said College, and that the validity of such action by the Board of Trustees be determined by a proper proceeding in law or in equity, in the Supreme Court of the State of New York.

It will be observed that Mr. Milburn in his opinion expresses his views as to what course should be pursued, as follows :

“As I view the matter, the choice lies between an amendment to the Act of incorporation and such an action” (legal proceeding). “An enabling amendment is much the more satisfactory and effective measure of the two. Legal proceedings, however amicable in their origin, are too apt to engender injurious controversies. Yet, if an action be necessary, there is no reason why it should not accomplish its purpose without any friction if the real issues are formulated in advance to the satisfaction of the representatives of the Trustees who hold conflicting views.” (Journal 57, 58.)

These resolutions will bring before the Council in a form suitable for its consideration all the questions considered in the opinion of the Honorable John G. Milburn in the matter of the re-establishment of the pay-pupil department at De Veaux College.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

The following resolution was offered by the Rev. Mr. Richards, and on motion adopted.

I. WHEREAS, The financial condition of the work of the Extension of Christ's Kingdom in the Archdeaconry of Buffalo is such that the Missionary Board found it necessary to pass the following resolution :

WHEREAS, At this first meeting of the Missionary Board we are confronted by a deficit of $600 00, it is deemed inexpedient to make the annual appropriations for the stipends of the different Missionaries at this time ; therefore,

On motion the report was received and the first resolution was adopted.

The Council then took up the order of the day, the report of the Special Committee appointed under the resolution of the Rev. Mr. Richards.

The report was read by the Rev. Dr. Wrigley.

REPORT.

The Committee, appointed to report on the deficit in the Diocesan Missionary Boards, begs leave to report that they have seen the Rectors of a number of the Parishes reported as delinquent, and that there appear to be three reasons for said delinquencies.

I. That no attention has been paid to the canonical requirement that four offerings shall be taken yearly for Diocesan Missions, due to a lack of interest in Missions in general.

II. That one or two offerings are supposed to fulfill the canonical requirement, be the sum large or small which is so collected.

III. That Parish Treasurers receive the offerings and hold them back, and intentionally or unintentionally divert them to other purposes.

In view of the above condition of affairs, and not seeing any likelihood of present deficiency being made up by the delinquent Parishes alone, the Committee hereby recommend the passage of the following resolution :

Resolved, That voluntary contributions for the purpose of making up the deficit now existing be asked at this time from those Parishes which have not fulfilled the canonical requirements, and also from those Parishes and individuals that are willing to assist in putting the Missionary Boards in a solvent condition, and thus freeing the work of the ensuing year from embarrassment.

C. F. J. WRIGLEY,
CAMERON J. DAVIS,
EDWARD P. HART.

On motion the report was received and the resolution adopted.

The following resolution, offered by Archdeacon Washburn, was adopted:

Resolved, That this Council reasserts its sense of the importance of the work of the Rev. C. Orvis Dantzer, and enjoins upon each Congregation the duty of forwarding a special offering for his support the ensuing year.

The report of the Special Committee, appointed under the resolution of the Rev. Mr. Duff, was read by the Rev. Mr. Barrows:

REPORT.

The Committee on Reducing the Cost of the Journal respectfully recommend :

- 1st That full lists of investments of the various Diocesan Funds be published every third year, and that the new investments only be published other years.
- 2d. That a Table of Statistics be substituted for the usual Parochial Reports, to contain such items as are not now included in the present Table of Statistics ; e. g., Location, Parish, Date of Organization, Rector, Wardens, Treasurer, Clerk, Value of Property, Sitzings, Insurance, etc.

On motion the report was laid upon the table.

The report of the Standing Committee on Finance was read by the Rev. Mr. Ballard.

REPORT.

The Standing Committee on Finance reports that there have been referred to it the report of the Treasurer of the Diocese, the report of the Trustees and Treasurer of the Christmas Fund, and the report of the Treasurer of the Parochial Fund.

The report of the Treasurer of the Diocese has been examined, with the vouchers, by the Chairman of our committee and found correct as to the vouchers.

The report of the Treasurer of the Trustees of the Parochial Fund is a full statement of the condition of the various funds under the control of the Trustees, and is audited by two Auditors appointed by the Bishop, whose certificate is annexed hereto.

The report of the Treasurer and Trustees of the Christmas Fund is in approved form, and appended to it is the usual certificate of Auditors as to the correctness of the report, and as to the proper investment of the Fund. Of the 67 congregations reported as not having made an offering, we find that some have sent in their offering too late for the Treasurer's report. A large proportion of the non-contributing congregations are small Mission congregations which cannot or will not attend church on Christmas Day.

We would therefore respectfully suggest that in such places the Christmas Fund offering be made at the service held next after Christmas.

All which is respectfully submitted,

G. G. BALLARD.

On motion the report was received.

The Rev. Dr. Ashton, of the Committee on Constitution and Canons, reported favorably upon the proposed amendments to the Canon on Diocesan Missions.*

On motion the first and second amendments were adopted, and the third amendment was recommitted.

The report of the Special Committee on the Bishop Coxe Memorial Fund was read by the Rev. Dr. Washburn.

* See page 34.

REPORT.

Obedient to the resolution adopted by the last Council an appeal was addressed to the parochial clergy of the Diocese, calling for a second offering in behalf of the Memorial, with the special desire of enlisting the co-operation of the forty-three congregations which had contributed nothing. Sunday, November 17th, was duly designated as the day upon which to collect the gifts of the faithful. Of the 136 Parishes and Missions only 29 responded ; and of these but five had failed to make donations the preceding year, so that there are thirty-eight congregations in the Diocese that have declined to help this movement. The returns from last November's offerings aggregated $527.94, as follows :

On the 1st of January the Trustees of Hobart College appropriated the sum of five thousand dollars to meet the balance due for the completion of the Memorial. In order to repay as much as possible of the interest and principal of this appropriation from the collegiate funds, subscriptions are being received from a few friends who agree to pay to Hobart's Treasurer fifty dollars annually for a term of five years. A gratifying number of such pledges have already been made ; a dozen more will ensure a sum sufficient to entirely reimburse the college for the timely loan.

Thus the whole cost of the construction of the Bishop Coxe Memorial Hall has been met. Three years ago you appointed this Committee with instructions to try and raise twenty-five thousand dollars for this object ; in the process of building it has been necessary at one stage to call for thirty thousand dollars, and finally to increase the demand again and fix the sum to be secured at thirty-five thousand dollars. That so large a fund has been so speedily secured and so well spent should prove an enduring satisfaction to all concerned.

On Tuesday, the 18th of June, the Hall was open for inspection to the many friends who congregated for the commencement festivities, and in the afternoon appropriate exercises of dedication were held, and the Memorial was formally consigned to the use and keeping of the college. A large and representative company gathered in the spacious and beautiful Assembly Room ; the Trustees, the Faculty and distinguished guests occupied seats of honor with Bishop Walker and President Jones ; the Bishop was assisted by Bishop Francis, of Indiana, in the devotional exercises ; Dr. Washburn made the address of presentation. Mr. Douglas Merritt, on behalf of the Trustees, gratefully accepted the noble gift. and Dr. William Clarke, of Toronto, delivered an oration in tender appreciation of the life and labors of the beloved Bishop in whose honor the Memorial had been reared.

Your Committee therefore announces the completion of the task to which we were assigned. Of the eleven gentlemen originally set to do this work, only four remain with us to-day ; death has robbed us of Judge Smith, Mr. Perkins, Dr. Lobdell and Dr. Doty ; while Dr. Nelson and President Jones withdrew in impaired health, and one other has found it impossible to serve ; a note of sadness then mingles with our rejoicings as we now render this closing account of our stewardship, and request the adoption of the following resolution, viz.: That this Council accepts the foregoing report, approves of the acts of the Committee and herewith discharges it from further responsibility.

On motion the report was received and the Committee discharged with a rising vote of thanks to its members and especially to its Secretary.

The following resolution, offered by the Rev. Mr. Richards, was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the thanks of the Council be extended to the Rector and Vestry of S. Luke's Church for the use of the buildings of the Parish, and to the Churchmen of Rochester generally for their abundant hospitality.

REPORT

OF THE REV. C. ORVIS DANTZER, MISSIONARY TO DEAF MUTES IN THE

To the Rt. Rev. W. D. Walker, D. D., LL. D.:

I have continued, as last year, to give the first four Sundays of each month to services in Buffalo and Rochester, devoting all fifth Sundays and one or two week days of each week to the smaller localities. During the past year 146 services have been held, of which 73 were in the Archdeaconry of Rochester, 63 in Buffalo, and 8 outside the Diocese. I have celebrated the Holy Communion in public 32 times and in private 4 times, baptized 4 infants and brought 2 persons to confirmation. Evening Prayer was said 84 times, Morning Prayer 23 times, and there have been 6 lectures delivered by myself, and several others by friends of the Mission. The total attendance at the 146 services was 3,015, and the average 20½.

The individual attendance in the counties where deaf mutes have been reached has been as follows :

Erie County (Buffalo).....	over 100
Chautauqua	18
Genesee.....	2
Livingston.....	4
Monroe (Rochester).....	75
Niagara.....	16

I have visited the following places either for services, or to visit the deaf : Buffalo, Lockport, Tonawanda, Niagara Falls, Jamestown, Fluvanna, Rochester, Geneva, Watkins, Corning, Cohocton, Avon, Perry, Albion and Hilton, and outside the Diocese I have visited and held services in St. Ann's Church for Deaf Mutes, New York City, Utica, Rome, Oneida and Syracuse.

The work in Buffalo is somewhat more encouraging this year than it was a year ago, still for a considerable part of the year the attendance has been far below what the average is in Rochester. The reasons for this I explained in my report last year, and while things look better, I am not at all satisfied with the condition of affairs. A large amount of hard work in house-to-house visitation has been made; the careless have been urged to come to the services conducted for their benefit every Sunday at St. Paul's; several destitute families have been helped, and work has been secured for some. Very grateful assistance has been given to me for such work by Rev. Mr. T. B. Berry, and Rev. Cameron Davis and Trinity Sunday School During the year the Mission at Buffalo raised $111.50, which was apportioned as follows :

Missionary's Expenses.....	$50.00
St. Paul's Church.....	5.00
Incidental Expenses.....	15.97

Gallaudet Home for Aged Deaf Mutes.....	$ 2.50
Diocesan Missions	6.00
To Sexton.....	2.00
Emergency Fund.....	30.03

The Emergency Fund, which can only be used for the purchase of needed furnishing for the Mission at Buffalo and which is to be the nucleus of a Building Fund, if a separate building is ever needed, now amounts to $151.60.

In connection with our Buffalo Mission there are two quite flourishing societies, viz: The Pan-â-Pan Literary Society, and the Ladies' Aid Society. The former, which is composed of both sexes, is well organized and has a membership of 33. The Ladies' Aid Society was organized only last winter, but much good is looked for from it. It is open to all deaf ladies of Buffalo, regardless of church relationship. Its object is to assist the Missionary to relieve the needy where really necessary, to provide the wherewithal for a Christmas tree every year for the city deaf and their children, to keep the Missionary informed of cases of sickness, distress, etc.

Our work in Rochester continues to be favorable and the attendances are very good. The usual social gatherings in St. Luke's Parish House on Thursday evenings continue to attract a number of the deaf. A Ladies' Aid Society, similar in purpose to the one in Buffalo, has also been organized here and is giving promise of much good.

During the year the Mission raised a total of $120.38, which was distributed as follows :

Missionary's Expenses.....	$ 30.00
Emergency Fund	48.05
Incidental Expenses	6.45
To St. Luke's Church	6.50
To Sexton.....	2.50
To Parish Paper.....	2.00
Gallaudet Home for Aged Deaf Mutes.....	2 00
Chefoo (China) Deaf Mute School.....	1.50
Diocesan Missions....	10.00
Balance on hand.....	11.38
<hr/>
Total.....	$120.38

and the Emergency Fund amounts to $101.23.

The expenses of a work like mine, where much traveling on the railroads is required, are necessarily large, but it has been my desire that my people should be brought to give towards other objects as well as my expenses.

Still, as they are mostly small wage earners, they cannot give very much. The result is that I am compelled to use a good part of my stipend to pay my traveling expenses. A few of the roads have for several years past recognized the exceptional character of this work and thereby rendered it possible for me to be at the ready call of my people at many places, but since the beginning of this year this courtesy has been discontinued, thereby greatly crippling the work. At times the Missionary has been compelled to cancel services.

In my last year's report, in answering a self-proposed question, "Does the Deaf Mute Mission pay?" I mentioned the interesting case of the young deaf lady who through her influence and example brought nine hearing persons into the church. Every year a number of hearing people are thus indirectly through the influence of the "Silent Missionary" being brought into the church. In a short time the Missionary expects to baptize a hearing woman and her two bright, hearing children. Later on she and her hearing husband expect to present themselves for confirmation with the regular confirmation class in the parish church. This woman has been led to decide on this step through the interest excited on her while attending our silent services with her deaf mother. Another answer to the query "Does the Deaf Mute Mission pay?"

Very truly yours,

C. ORVIS DANTZER.

A fee of ten dollars was ordered paid the sexton of S. Luke's Church for services.

The minutes were read and approved.

After suitable prayers the Council adjourned sine die.

WILLIAM D. WALKER,

Bishop and President of the Council.

ADDISON M. SHERMAN, Secretary.

CHARLES H. SMITH, Assistant Secretary.

THE BISHOP'S ADDRESS.

BEGINNING.

Reverend Brethren, and Brethren of the Laity :

I bid you welcome again, brethren beloved, Clerical and Lay, to our Annual Council.

May our deliberations and our decisions bring health and prosperity to the work of the Diocese. We come together once more while within the glow of holy Whitsuntide. Shall there not be continually with us the sense that we are peculiarly in the Divine presence at this sacred season? If so, we may look for highest help and benediction.

The year has brought to us its marvelous changes and its strange events. Who can turn eyes down the vista of these months without having them fixed first on that tragic event in our land's history at which the whole world of civilization gazed mourning and appalled?

An assassin's bullet, in the twinkling of an eye, turned the current of a nation's life. In horror we stood well-nigh helpless at the shock. Wonderful modern science might achieve an almost miracle, as we hoped. The skilled hand and the steady nerve and the trained eye of the surgeon might hold back the ebbing tide of life and cause a new life to spring. But how delicate was the thread upon which it all hung! And what anxiety was beating in these hearts of our 80,000,000 people until the crisis was past—nay in the hearts of the entire civilized world! One member of our brotherhood of man was suffering. We, too, suffered with him. But there was another duty and privilege in which we recognized that we might be partners with him. I mean we could pray. We did pray. What was science and what human experience and what any man's deft hand without the aiding hand of God? Powerless. In this knowledge, as Christian men, we did plead continually at the Throne of Grace that the surgeon's knife might have right direction, that the nurse's care might have right wisdom, that the physician's remedies might have right result, that our pleading supplications might have Divine answer in a restored man.

I stood in the Rainbow City on the day that preceded the tragedy of September in the Temple of Music. Vast crowds surged hither and thither. There was joy written upon every face. The beloved and honored Chief Magistrate of the Nation was there. Respectful and loyal and admiring hosts gathered about him or listened with sober and approving earnestness to those sage and statesmanlike utterances of that bright and important hour. The half of a hundred thousand people who clustered around that one honored man realized more or less the glory and the privilege which was theirs and the nations in having as their Head a great man who was of unimpeachable integrity, of gracious personality and of a stainless name. How such a scene and such facts thrill us to-day as we turn our eyes backward and review the tragedy and its outcome! We say, trustingly, yet sorrowing: "It is the Lord; let Him do what seemeth Him good."

Of course I might dwell upon lessons that spoke in that anxious time—yes, and speak now.

There are men everywhere asking whether some changes in our National policy may not be needed; whether the splendid personal freedom which has come to us—a golden heritage from our Fathers—is not in peril of drifting into license, should our doors continue as wide-open as now to the driftwood, the flotsam and jetsam of the ancient peoples beyond the sea? Should this fair land become a Cave of Adullam such as that in the mountains of Palestine centuries ago?

There are men asking—rightly, I think—whether the monster who avows himself an Anarchist should have title to a freedom to roam hither and thither at will, tainting the young and the susceptible and the weak and the vicious with his outrageous theories touching government and law and the rights of man? Are such better than ravening wild beasts or the poisonous serpents of the jungle? Should they not be placed in line with the rebel or the spy who, in the day of war, is deprived of liberty and loaded with chains, sometimes deprived of his head?

And there are men asking whether in this day the Universal ballot is an unmixed good, whether a wholesome restriction thereof in the case of aliens would not be salutary—whether the man from the Mediterranean or the Eastern shores of the Atlantic or the fastnesses of Asia or Europe who has no knowledge of the spirit of our Institutions, or of the genius of our Government and law, should own the right to wield the power of that silent ballot within 5 years of his arrival on these shores, when the child to the manor born must wait 21 years. The tragedy of Buffalo and of September, 1901, has emphasized—as it ought—these discussions. I have no heart nor desire to consider such questions, they belong to another place. But that they must assert themselves for the calm judgment of the Country ere long, I have no doubt.

There is a sweeter subject for thought, and from which we may learn lessons, that I would offer. Perhaps it is a part of God's great purpose, in this heavy sorrow which clouded the Nation, that we should hear His voice in that great departed man.

It is given, it seems to me, in that splendid personality:

1. I see the man with a tender heart and a sympathetic spirit, notwithstanding the cares and the diversions and the high honors of a commanding post. What more beautiful, what more manly, in all the examples of the great of the ages, than that husbandly concern and Christian affection manifested at all times by the Chief Magistrate of this Nation toward the wife of his bosom! What an example of loyal, marital fidelity and of sacred, sanctified love and of splendid personal devotion to high vows in an age when divorces abound and when so many broken households tell of perjured faith and unchristian unions!

2. I turn to that scene in the Temple of Music, when the assassin struck the blow, and I see the fallen President in the shock and agony of the moment, while convulsed with pain, beseeching in his absolute self-effacement, first, that the crime should be gently announced to his wife—and then pleading for the man who with a Judas-spirit given him his death blow.

Whatever the splendid characteristics of the man as soldier, sage or statesman, we see in these acts of that sad day the nobler qualities that speak of character—of a man. We see marital affection prompting and illustrating a manly tenderness and a chivalrous devotion. We see the sanctified spirit of the old-martyr of ancient day who could pray for his persecutors whether he stood in flames or wrestled with beasts in the arena.

These wonderful evidences of the patient hero, the good man, the forgiving Christian will go down the ages on the records of time with an undying remembrance whatever the chances and changes of the centuries may be.

So would I lay my chaplet of reverence, of honor, of admiring love on the grave of a noble ruler and a kingly man.

NECROLOGY.

Two of my Rt. Rev. brethren have gone to the Paradise rest in the course of the year, viz., the Rt. Rev. Dr. Burgess, Bishop of Quincy, and the Rt. Rev. Dr. Spalding, Bishop of Colorado. Each was well stricken in years. Each brought mature wisdom and high consecration to his work. Each had been tried through many years in the lower offices of the ministry and had accomplished large results in their respective spheres of labor through the help of God's Holy Spirit. To each there came, with the Episcopate difficult posts, weary toil and heavy trial. Nobly each worked, and at the end there was rich fruit of their prayers and their efforts. They rest from their labors, and their works do follow them.

Only one of our own family among the Clergy has been summoned from our midst by death during the past twelve-month. He was one of the youngest of our household. Of gentle nature, of high consecration, of unusual scholarship for his years, of sympathetic spirit was Rev. Franklin E. Smith, who fell asleep about a month ago. He labored amongst us for somewhat over a year, and the fell disease which had been lurking, I am told, for some years in his system and had manifested itself in his student years, asserted its dominance. Nursing care nor physicians' skill could have no power in repelling the onward march of the disease which had claimed him as its own.

During his brief months in the Priesthood he won the high respect and the strong love of the people unto whom he ministered. He was instrumental in bringing to a focus the project of a new Church begun under the previous Rectorship at East Randolph.

I think of him, now at rest, with tender love, and as one who in his short ministry displayed the dignity and the sanctity of the true Man of God.

It is a beautiful custom in the House of Bishops, when the names of those who have departed this life since the previous meeting have been read, for the Bishop presiding to bid the House to prayer. Then all business ceases, there is a brief period of silent supplication and then with the Lord's prayer and one or two collects the lives of the holy dead are commemorated and their good examples honored. In accordance with the devout and reverent practice of our Rt. Rev. Fathers I now bid you to prayer, reciting with me the Nicene Creed—in the faith of which our departed brethren fell on sleep—and joining in suitable petitions that we may be led to emulate their holy lives and find at last their calm rest.

THE DIOCESE.

As to the Diocese and its weal, Church debts have been removed in several instances. Parish Houses have been reared that were useful adornments indeed for the Church. Organizations that win young hearts to the Church, by giving them somewhat to do, have been born here and there. Memorials in many sanctuaries have been added for their splendor and for the greater glory of God. Liberality has been manifested by many in increased offerings for charity and for missions. Some of the ameliorative work in the cities has been extended and amplified through the labor and gifts of our Church men and Church women. Our St. Andrew's Brotherhood and Girls' Friendly Society and Daughters of the King and Woman's Auxiliary and Layman's League and Church Club and Babies' Branch and Junior Auxiliary and De Veaux College and Delancey Divinity School have been with the usual zeal accomplishing their wonted work. I must pause here to express again my deep obligation to the beloved Reverend brethren who, at great pains and with vigorous labor, have performed the duties so satisfactorily and profitably of the latter Institution—our own Divinity School.

For myself this has been a very busy year. That wonderful creation—the "Rainbow City," whose life was so ephemeral—and yet so chaste and marvellous—had its responsibilities and duties for the Bishop. And these were much more numerous and diversified and engrossing and—I will add embarrassing than most of those who are before me imagine.

Duty seemed to demand that I should remain at home, and so except for a week spent at the seashore I was a home body throughout the summer. I was glad that I made a resolve at the outset of the season so to do. It was therefore my privilege to meet, either under my own roof, or elsewhere, very many who have the work of the Church at heart, and with whom I counselled, and to whom I had the honor of giving counsel regarding the high things of God.

During these twelve months past I have received by Holy Baptism into the Church of God 5 persons. These were all Indians—members of the Great Seneca Nation. I have officiated at 2 weddings and said the Church's comforting words at the graveside of 2 persons who had departed this life in the faith and the fear of Jesus.

I have ordained 2 deacons and 3 priests.

Among my other official acts were the laying of three corner-stones, and the happy work of consecrating 5 churches—each of course, as the Canon requires—without debt.

I also officiated at 171 services—either of Morning or Evening Prayer. I have preached 136 times, and delivered on various occasions as many as 131 addresses.

I have attended 53 meetings officially; this includes organizations of the Diocese to which I have Episcopal relation or conferences with vestries on business subjects. I do not include in this list my meetings with the Wardens and Vestrymen of Parishes and Missions on the occasions of my visitation for Confirmation. To me such meetings face to face with the officials of a Parish—this contact with its earnest men, or its working men—is always gratifying, always refreshing.

I have noticed with grief that year after year, in a few Parishes, this cordial request of the Bishop is not carried out. It is surely the result of oversight.

During the year I have held Confirmations on 89 different occasions, at as many places nearly. This does not include 9 other points outside the Diocese where I have officiated in the Laying on of Hands. I have thus held 98 different Confirmations in the 12 months gone.

The aggregate of persons received by me through this Apostolic Rite of God's Church to its highest privileges in this year was 1,437. Of this number 126 were Confirmed outside of the Diocese.

May God the Holy Ghost give unceasing benediction to this sacred work in His Holy Church, done in humility—done as co-worker with Him.

DE VEAUX COLLEGE.

Once more the interests of De Veaux College ask our intelligent and earnest consideration. It will be remembered that at the last Council the following Resolution was unanimously adopted :

“Resolved, That a committee of five be appointed by the Chair to prepare and present to the next Council resolutions that will bring before the said Council, in a form suitable for its consideration, the questions considered, in the opinion of the Hon. John G. Milburn, in the matter of the re-establishment of the pay-pupil department at De Veaux College.”

In accordance with this resolution I appointed as such committee the Chancellor, Rev. Dr. Regester, Rev. W. F. Faber, Judge Wm. H. Adams, and Rev. Dr. Charles H. Smith.

This committee I learn have met and taken action. I have not seen their proposed report, and of course know not whether what I am about to say is in harmony therewith. Let us refer to Mr. Milburn's statement and his conclusions in their salient points. It is important that this be done, because the personnel of this Council changes more or less from year to year—and too because there are nice points to be kept in sight that there may be a clear and comprehensive view on the part of all of the entire subject —and as the result a right judgment finally reached by this Council. All reading this address are kindly asked at this stage to turn to the opinion of Mr. Milburn, which is presented in full in my address before the Council, at its session in the city of Buffalo in May, 1901.

In addressing you here on this theme, I am speaking as your Bishop. The Board of Trustees have taken no action. They are the servants of this Council, and aim and desire only to do its bidding. The individuals who compose it may give their personal views on this floor as do I. But corporately we have done nothing—will do nothing—in this behalf; because our loyalty to this Body forbids. We recognize our duty to obey—not to dictate, not even to suggest—in reference to a policy so momentous, so far-reaching.

But here I repeat it, I am speaking as your Bishop. A study of the College and the work—a study which would naturally be close and searching as the President—a study of this particular sort, which has now covered between three and four years, leads me to the unchanging conclusion that conditions which the Board of Trustees cannot control, compel the doing of a minimum of work at a maximum of expense. We have now—have had during the year past—only twenty-two students. The number is entirely out of proportion to their cost—and we can do no better. We will not run into debt. We will not imperil an inch of our Real Estate or spend one dime of our Endowment. This is the unalterable determination of our Board of Trustees. But our income is diminished because of reduced rates of interest on our investments. Our Treasurer and our Finance Committee, with a sound conscientiousness and honor, refuse to loan money on property where there is any remotest risk. The conservative and tested regulations of the best Savings Banks are the laws that govern them in their investment of the College funds. It is not an ultra, unreasonable and narrow conservatism that is controlling them. It is the wise carefulness of alert men who recognize the sacredness of a trust. As a result we have diminished income—as has every other man who has money to invest in these days. We have, I say again, twenty-two students now. We cared for twenty-seven in the preceding year through. I contend this ought not so to be. We have the plant, the professors, the help of other kinds, adequate for an increase to our number of at least thirty-five per cent. We ought therefore, as I am thoroughly convinced, to make our trust more efficient. With this end in view we are confronted with these three facts:

1st. It is competent for this Council to direct or recommend the Board of Trustees to make a new departure, viz., to admit a sufficient number of paying students for the complete utilization of all the staff of teachers and other help necessary to the carrying on of the legitimate work of the College.

2d. It is also competent for this Council to secure legislation, or to direct that legislation be secured whose purpose shall be to broaden the scope of the work of the College, and yet guard and conserve its property for the benefit of the class who alone can be its beneficiaries.

3d. It is competent, as an alternative to the last named procedure, to authorize the Trustees to engage in an amicable suit with the purpose of securing a decision of the Court regarding the right to admit paying students to the privileges of the College in excess of the number authorized by the Attorney General.

In closing this part of my annual address, I desire to give as my judgment that the time has come for the adoption of the expedient which Counsel and the Attorney General declare to be consistent with an honest and a legal administering of the Trust. Again I would give my voice for the seeking of such legislation—if it may be had—as will empower the Board of Trustees to receive into the Institution term-pupils, with the limitation and requirement that not one dollar of income or capital, directly or indirectly, shall be devoted to the benefit of any save the class whom Judge De Veaux aimed to benefit, viz., orphaned and destitute children.

I take this position because I have the overwhelming sense that we—this Diocese—are not administering this valuable and gracious Trust to the extent of our duty or its ability.

May we not hope that the discussion of the whole subject shall be in open Council—not in secret session? There is always a mystery about the “Committee of the Whole,” which leads to unhealthy surmisings without and causes many to feel that there is some delicate condition or some wrong doing, or some serious defect regarding which you cannot take the public into your confidence—and which you wish to hush up or whitewash or conceal. The Administration of the College is anxious that all men, everywhere, should know every detail of its work. The day has come for everything to be wide open. We court the confidence and the open help—yes! and the just criticism too—of the Diocese, of the Council, of the individual—Clerical or Lay. Only so shall De Veaux fill the place it ought to fill in the hearts of our people—only so shall it become an honored Institution of this Diocese of Western New York, doing an honest work in which all men believe, and of which every Churchman may be proud.

I now commend its interests, its future, its honor to the wise and prayerful deliberations of this Council.

APPORTIONMENT.

A subject which demands careful consideration at this time is that of the Apportionment for General Missions to this Diocese. As you are aware the amount asked of us for the current year is $12,784.32.

This large sum of money we are expected to raise independent of the contributions of our people through the Woman's Auxiliary, the Junior Auxiliary, the Babies' Branch and the Lenten Sunday School offerings.

The amount proposed for Western New York is more than two-fifths larger than the total of any previous year. In other words, in the past the sum raised for General Missions from this source has been about $8,000.00. Now we are desired by the authorities in New York to raise upwards of one-third more.

On receiving due notice of the assessment for this Diocese I appointed a Committee of 6 of the Clergy representative, and from different parts of the Diocese—in accordance with a suggestion of the Board of Managers made a year ago—who, with the Bishop, should have touch with the Mission House and should be in permanent relation with the general work of Missions undertaken by this Church.

The names of this Committee are as follows:

Rev. C. H. Smith, Rector of St. James', Buffalo; Rev. J. W. Ashton, Rector of St. Stephen's, Olean; Rev. E. P. Hart, Rector of St. Mark's, Rochester; Rev. E. S. Hoffman, Rector of Christ, Hornellsville; Rev. M. Bartlett, Rector of St. Paul's, Rochester; Rev. C. J. Davis, Rector of Trinity, Buffalo.

To this Committee I submitted the whole subject of the Apportionment for their consideration and action. They gave large portions of two days at different times to the study of the entire matter.

The sessions of the Committee were held at the See-House, and all the literature and light attainable was utilized in giving the subject study. It was no trivial problem with which my Reverend brethren were compelled to grapple. It is due them to say here that they gave themselves most patiently and painstakingly to the work before them. The conclusions finally reached were conscientious and unanimous. They feel, I feel, that the plan of distribution adopted lays a heavy burden on the shoulders of many Parishes and Missions. But under the conditions it was the only equitable and possible arrangement for them to adopt in order that there might be no seeming discrimination.

What is the result? I am informed by the Rectors of at least one-fourth of the Parishes that the assessment laid upon them is out of all proportion to the power of their people to meet. They simply say that they are absolutely unable to come up to the measure of the obligation laid upon them by the committee in New York. I know that this is true. If I am not mistaken, the tax proposed is greater for General Missions than the entire aggregate of our local assessments by $1\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. That is to say, our total ratio of apportionment for Diocesan expenses, support of the Episcopate and Diocesan Missions together, is less than this one tax for General Missions.

Inasmuch then as our feebleness Parishes are powerless to do what is asked of them, what will be the result? Just so far we as a Diocese—for the apportionment is on Diocesan and not Parish lines—will fall short of what is asked of us—expected of us.

Shall we then fail to meet the request of the Missionary Board in this behalf? We must, unless the stronger Parishes undertake to raise more than their share of the total, if the basis for taxing each be the same, viz., 8 per cent. of the annual expenses of the corporation. This is the question that confronts us. Will this be done? It is but right to state in passing that the apportionment for this Diocese has been made upon a basis other than that announced by the Board as its platform. Their leaflet upon the "Missionary Budget and How it May be Provided," makes this announcement: "Acting upon the instructions given it in San Francisco, the Board of Managers, at its meeting on December 10th, adopted the following statement concerning apportionment. The amounts apportioned to the several Dioceses have been arrived at by taking a percentage—varying from 5 to $3\frac{3}{4}$ —of the amounts reported in the Diocesan Journals for current parochial expenses. The highest percentage was applied to the larger and well-to-do Dioceses, and the rate was gradually scaled down for the smaller and poorer Dioceses." Here my quotation from the leaflet ends. Let us consider the statement here presented. In view of it our Diocesan Committee felt constrained to issue a circular which reached all the clergy, and need not be repeated here.

It would seem that in the eyes of the New York Committee we are supereminently well-to-do as a Diocese, in fact, rolling in wealth beyond all others in the land. If not so esteemed by them, why then is our apportionment not at $3\frac{3}{4}$ or 4 or 5 or 6 or 7 per cent. of our current expenses, but at the munificent rate of more than 8 per cent. thereof?

And now, what was the consideration that led to this remarkable conclusion regarding our duty? A reference to our Diocesan Journal for the past year shows a series of compact and carefully prepared tables which I must believe gave our honored Secretary vast labor to compile and arrange. We find one table which has as its heading "Salaries and Expenses." This includes all the current expenses of each Parish for the twelve months. The aggregate of these, by the plan adopted as its own standard for the Board, is the sum upon which the apportionment should be made for our Diocese. That aggregate, according to our tables, was \$151,523. Upon that sum the assessment should have been made at $3\frac{3}{4}$, 4 or 5 per cent.—the latter the maximum—according as we are reckoned "feeble," "fairly strong," or a "stalwart of the stalwarts" as a Diocese. The highest rate of apportionment, that which I suppose to be the standard for rich New York, Pennsylvania or Massachusetts, namely, 5 per cent.—would make our total to be raised for General Missions about \$7,600 instead of the amount fixed by the Board, to wit, \$12,784.

But why this amazing difference of nearly 40 per cent.? We have another column among the tables, to which I have before referred. It is headed sententiously "Total Parochial." Ah! here is the basis upon which our apportionment, I conclude, is made. That column foots up as expenditures by the Parishes and Missions during the year the sum of $284,096. But this sum includes with regular current salaries and all other expenses the monies expended on the erection of parish-houses, repairing of churches, liquidation of debts, rearing of rectories and churches, decorations, purchase of building lots and the like. These each year will—must—of course, be variable factors. It follows that with such a shifting basis our religious duty in this matter will alter every twelvemonth, and a small Committee is to settle for our consciences annually what the spiritual obligation for each one of us in the matter of giving will be for the year. There is a mechanical stiffness in this arrangement that I am not inclined to fall in love with. For it is a fact that parishes generally are not likely to rise above this fixed charge, this minimum in their giving. And while it may come as no load at all to some rich parishes to return the full tax—which may be less than in the past their benevolence has prompted under the voluntary rule—yet to many a feebler parish the exactly proportionate apportionment will be simply a crushing burden, utterly beyond its power to bear. The sum of the matter is this. Our annual current expenses reach a total of $151,523. Last year, in the ways mentioned above, the Diocese expended $132,573 over and above the total running cost of our regular work. We are therefore asked to pay an assessment upon $284,096 instead of upon $151,523, the latter sum of which is the true basis of our apportionment, if I comprehend the meaning of the English language. Here is the subject for you, my brethren, to consider. Can this Diocese contribute the sum asked by the Board of Managers from it for the carrying on of the General Mission work of the Church?

In closing this part of my address, I desire, my brethren, to recognize that in indulging a little pleasantry on the subject of our over-tax, I would not oppose to one iota the Board's plan. Nor would I discourage any parish, any man giving for this Divine work to the very boundary line of his ability. On the contrary, I would urge with all my power the giving of benefactions by my people that shall more than reach the limits stated. No, none shall find me—a former Missionary Bishop—putting one pebble, or throwing one drop of cold water in the way to the hindering of God's people in their giving and their sacrificing for the spread of the glorious Gospel of the Son of God. And so my closing word here is, brethren, pray and work and give, that we as a Diocese may do our full duty for the world—wide extension of our dear Lord's blessed Kingdom.

DIOCESAN MISSIONS.

During the year past it has been my privilege, as Chairman of the two Boards of Missions of the Diocese, to come into a closer touch with all the Archdeaconry's work. My study of both fields has led me to two conclusions:

1st. That the Church in our Diocese is not accomplishing its full work along the line of Missions.

2d. That it is essential, even to prosecute what we have already undertaken, that in each Parish and Mission the designated Canonical offerings should be taken at the times appointed.

And now in reference to the 1st point, viz., that we are not rising to our duty in the extent of the Mission work of the Diocese I must state this fact: There are no less than 15 places in the 2 Archdeaconries where we should make provision for regular services, and where we are in no way rooted. There are in all these villages and towns groups of people who would that their Mother, the Church, give them help and care. We are unable to answer their appeal. Lack of funds is the obstacle. In some of these places the Communicants number as many as 15 to 20 persons. Many of my brethren here to-day, who were present in Christ Church on one evening during the Missionary Conference, will recall the facts of a report to me regarding a house to house visitation covering several miles and near 3 or 4 villages and on a line of Railroad, made by the Archdeacon of Buffalo and another Clergyman at my request—or rather in furtherance of the urgent request made in my address two or three years ago. It will be remembered that in my address on the evening named I spoke of house after house where there were unbaptized persons within the area referred to, nay! in almost every home of that great stretch of countryside. The revelation was to us all simply appalling.

It is a solemn question to put to ourselves, how much of responsibility rests with us for such a condition? We may well ask whether we have not a duty to perform which is left undone? Clearly the obligation rests not upon the Boards of Missions. They have limitations which the parishes establish by the restricted offerings that come to their treasuries from those parishes.

I wish it were possible for the Clergy, yes! and the Laity to be present at some of the meetings of these Boards. They would find their representatives—the members of these 2 Boards—to be deeply conscientious men, faithful in attendance at the sessions, economical and businesslike in administration, anxious and industrious, and painstaking in connection with the problems—and troubling and difficult sometimes are they—that come before them, just in their consideration of and decisions on the questions that meet them. And withal they have a zeal for and interest in the Missions of the Diocese. And that zeal is sympathetic, not merely official. These are facts that have come to me with a singular emphasis this last year, because since by act of the Council I was made a member of these Boards I have, sitting among them, seen the difficult responsible labor which is theirs and the courage, single-mindedness and devotion they give to it. Oh! that their hands were more strongly upheld by larger offerings from the people, and that their hopes and efforts in the direction of a broader Church extension might be realized.

2d. But the second conclusion that I have reached through my new relation with these Boards is that it is absolutely necessary for each Parish and Mission to take the regular offerings at the times designated by the Standing Committee, the accredited agent of this Council, for making certain assessments or apportionments—if the word is a more pleasing one—and fixing the dates when all Canonical offerings shall be taken. But before discussing this theme as it bears on Missions of the Diocese, allow me to refer to the other offerings which the Canons require shall be taken on fixed days. I refer to those in aid of the Christmas Fund, the Diocesan Expenses and the Support of the Episcopate. Days have been by authority appointed for these collections, and it is the duty of every Clergyman and Lay Reader to take the offering on the designated date and arrange that it be forwarded at once to the Treasurer. Loyalty demands such action, and may I not hope that by this simple calling of attention to it by the Bishop, in every Parish or Mission of Western New York, there will be faithful performance and complete performance of this duty the year through—and in all years to come. With these very brief words I leave this part of the theme and turn to that other which has suggested this digression. A moment's thought, it seems to me, will convince my brethren of the absolute necessity for taking the four Canonical offerings in aid of Diocesan Missions and forwarding the money on time. The Reverend Clergy who are laboring with such consecrated devotion at our Mission stations are dependent for their living upon the stipends you furnish and which are apportioned by your elected Boards. If they come to their hands tardily—and certainly the largest of them is meagre enough—there is danger in some cases of suffering. Need I say that it is vital for a Clergyman to be prompt in payment to the merchants who furnish him with the commodities he buys? I have known some Missionaries who have impaired their usefulness in a community irretrievably by delayed payment of just obligations—and in many instances the fault was not theirs. The blame rested on their people, who were unmindful of their obligations and of the honor of the man who was over them in the Lord. Shall our Diocese forget its own honor and that of its Missionaries by any farther neglect on the part of any Mission or Parish to do promptly its duty in taking the four prescribed offerings annually for the good work being wrought by godly ambassadors of our Lord Jesus Christ within our own borders? I have felt as I have come in contact so directly with this work during the year past, that if I did not on this occasion before my assembled brethren with a more than ordinary earnestness stir you to duty in this behalf, I should be delinquent indeed. Brethren, when you return to your Parishes, let it be with the solemn resolve that naught shall hinder your entire obedience to this law of your Diocese. I shall be thankful indeed if our record of prompt and full offerings for each Canonical object shall be complete—shall be indeed a record. The report to me by the Archdeacon of Buffalo shows that our picturesque work among Indians is greatly blessed, that the places where our new Churches have been reared have entered upon a new life, that some one or two Missions have grown cold, but these were ever lukewarm, and Lay Readers and Clergymen have ever had aching heads and aching hearts over them. His report shows also long-continued visits to his Mission field, covering often several days at a time—to the great profit, I trust, of the work.

From the Archdeacon of Rochester I have not yet received his Annual Report, and so am not able to speak with as definite words regarding the details of his field. It is hoped that there may be time during the Council to hear the full reports of these, my brethren, read, that the Church in the Diocese may know of the hard, faithful work which these two gentlemen are doing in the name of the Lord.

GENERAL CONVENTION.

It may seem too long after the event for allusion to be made here on the subject of the last General Convention. Some brief comments, however, may not be out of place—possibly it will not be unprofitable to turn our eyes back upon its legislation and take to our thought its result for our good. It is quite fashionable to have a cheap sarcasm at the little achieved. I have seen some wonderful calculations as to the cost of each bit of legislation added to the statute-book of the Church. The elaborate estimates regarding expenditures of time and money—the former being rated at preposterous figures where multi-millionaires were concerned—were very commercial and very amusing. The devotional aspects of the Convention were most thrilling. Thronged Churches and resounding responses as in the primitive age of the Church—all seemingly—with audible voice reciting Creed or Amen or Litany petition—not relegating the duty and privilege thereof to a hired Choir or to a Committee of the faithful few. At times, as St. Augustine tells us of the worship in his day, the responses were as a roll of thunder, and a spiritual magnetism seemed to thrill throughout the vast gatherings. There were richness and joyous brightness in the services, with sober ceremonial from first to last. There was rubrical and canonical conformity absolutely, and no mediæval or whimsical observances which constitute the individual or corporate cult of a few who would exploit their personal tastes as Catholic worship and ancient order. Of course, there was enthusiasm on the Missionary side of the Convention. Not, however, as intense was it as when in the past times each Missionary Bishop stood before the great gathering—and in those days every inch of space in the great Churches was packed with zealous Church people—and told in fifteen minutes the story of his work. I have seen such great audiences tingling with enthusiasm as the prelate from the far-away field recited need and fear and failure and triumph which confronted him in his arduous sphere. It was the power of the living voice, of the real man, of the Missionary hero, to waken the conscience of the Church as men heard his voice and realized a reality. But from this Convention came profitable and healthy fruit—new Bishops chosen, new fields designated, new plans adopted. New changes in Constitutions or Canons found their places by authority on the Statute Books, new readings for passages of Holy Scripture, that seemed obscure, took their positions in the margins of our Bible by a popular vote, new advance was made in educating the Church's conscience on the subject of the Marriage and Divorce Canon. The House of Bishops spoke for a higher law. The House of Deputies so spake also by popular vote. The majority accepted a more rigorous Statute Canon. It was only when it came to a ballot by Dioceses and Orders that by a small Lay majority it failed in a concurrent vote. The old law stands. But are its safeguards in the matter of the re-marriage of divorced persons fully recognized by the Clergy? The Canon runs thus: Sec. 2. No Minister knowingly, after due inquiry, shall solemnize the marriage of any person who has a divorced husband or wife still living, if such husband or wife has been put away for any cause arising after marriage; but this Canon shall not be held to apply to the innocent party in a divorce for the cause of adultery, or to parties once divorced seeking to be united again.

This is the 2d Section of the Canon. There is a 4th Section, in which reference is made in a marked way to that which I have already recited—this 2d Section. It declares as follows: "Questions touching the facts of ANY case arising under Sec. II of this Canon, shall be referred to the Bishop of the Diocese, * * * in which the same may occur. And the Bishop to whom such questions have been so referred shall thereupon make inquiry in such manner as he shall deem expedient and shall deliver his judgment in the premises." It will be observed that the responsibility for the performance of such marriage ceremony—as to whether it shall be solemnized—does not rest alone with the Minister. It is always to be submitted to the Bishop.

The Pastoral Letter many say to me was too long. Possibly. But every loyal Clergyman will read it entire to his people. It certainly was burning with Missionary ardor and it spoke many a wise warning to the worldliness and sin and vice of the day. The Convention is a thing of the past. Its achievements were not brilliant nor numerous. Nevertheless it was a Council of one pure branch of the holy Church of the holy God.

Its voice to the children of that Church, who are not self-willed or self-opinionated or self-centred, will be the tender voice of a Mother—a voice to be hearkened to, a voice to be dutifully obeyed, a voice to be welcomed with a filial love.

VISITATIONS.

I would be a most ungrateful man did I not express in thorough-paced speech the pleasure and comfort that have come to me in my visitations of the parishes and missions during this past year. Everywhere the cordial greetings and the hearty hospitalities and the kind and generous words of appreciation accorded me by my dear brethren of the Clergy and by their good people have cheered my heart. Never have the Congregations, as a rule, been so large on the occasion of the Bishop's Visitation. Never has the enthusiasm been so keen in connection therewith, and never have services and the whole tone of the worship and the church-life been so moving and so impressive to me. It was most obvious that my Reverend brethren, the Rectors and Missionaries were praying and working with all their might. I took occasion last year in my address to dwell upon the universal faithfulness as "stewards of the mysteries of God" on the part of the Clergy of this Diocese. I return to the subject not because I would speak pleasant words to these, my brethren, at their Annual gathering. No! God forbid that I should indulge in purely pleasing platitudes of compliment. The insincerity of that I loathe—as I do the smooth speech in soft tone and well-modulated verbiage of the so-called tactful men—whose duplicity in the end only “makes their words very swords.” No! the utterances of commendation I am speaking are based upon a study which now covers five years and a half of this Diocese, and an equal period of comparison with other parts of the land. The Bishop learns day-by-day of acts of devotion and of self-effacement and of heroic sacrifice—both indirectly as well as directly—which few others have knowledge of. He finds himself marvelling often at the whole-hearted consecration, the Christian tenderness, the sweet patience which is making splendid in the eyes of the Angels of God the service and suffering and sacrifice of many, very many, of those whom he has the privilege of numbering among his co-workers in this vineyard of our dear Lord. He thanks God often for the touch he is thus permitted to have, through the goodness of our Master, with such self-surrendered, sacred lives. Whatever may be our anxieties for the cause of religion in these strangely world-tainted days the thoughtful man will not eliminate from his estimate of the world's future the conserving force and the purifying leaven which a Godly priesthood must exert, and must be in the world. Whatever the partial eclipses of piety in a doubting, world-serving and sin-loving age like this we will have the confidence that God's Anointed in their holy living will break forth from behind the shadow—a light anew—for the brightening of the darkened world. That is an unvarying law of life—and especially of spiritual life. The history of the Christian centuries reveals it. Our own experiences verify it.

Work on, therefore, my brothers—and pray on—and He will give the blessing of peace.

To the Right Rev. William D. Walker, D. D., LL. D., D. C. L., Chairman of the Board of Education :

The undersigned, as Warden of the De Lancey Divinity School, respectfully reports that the work of the School has been carried on during the past year on the plan of the Board of Education. Four courses of lectures have been given by the same Lecturers as heretofore, in October, December, February and April, in the Guild Room of Trinity Church, Buffalo, in continuation of the course of study begun last year. They have been attended by all but one of the students who were Candidates for Priest's Orders, viz : The Rev. Messrs. D. C. Monroe and E. J. Stevens, who have now been admitted to Priest's Orders ; the Rev. William L. Davis, and Messrs. George G. Ballard, Henry G. Buisch, Jr., George Huntington and George W. Hurlbut, Mr. A. E. Herrick, Candidate, and Messrs. H. S. Henry and F. C. Gunnell, Postulants, have done no work in the School. Mr. Louis Herman Buisch, of Rochester, has recently been admitted to the Preparatory Course. The students who have been in attendance on the Lectures have been diligent and faithful in their private study, as shown by their examinations and interest in their work. The annual examination is to be held May 26th.

The Library has been increased by 320 volumes ; 100 by purchase (mostly text books and books for the Lecturers) and 220 by gift (of which thirty-five were from the Rev. Henry W. Nelson, D. D., and 170 from the Warden), making the present number 1,720. There has been expended for books, including express charges and binding, $153 70.

Other expenditures by the Warden, with the approval of the Board, have been :

For expenses of Lectures (travel and board for Lecturers and students, including the last course of last year, which was later than the date of last year's Report) ..	$258.60
Private teachings for one student.....	7.50
	$284.84

The Divinity School House, 60 Park Place, Geneva, has recently been put in excellent order inside, under the direction of a Committee of the Board, at a cost of $644.68, of which $235.00 was paid from accrued rent from the late tenant. The house has thus been made a comfortable and pleasant residence for the Warden, who has occupied it since March 1, under the resolution of the Board of September 17, 1901, releasing him from parochial duty.

The Catalogue of the School directed by the Board is now complete and in type.

CHARLES W. HAYES,

Notes of parishioners.....	$200.00
Cash in Rochester Trust and Safe Deposit Co., 4% interest.....	3,162.22
Total Episcopate Fund.	$ 43,084.72

The DeLancey Fund is as follows :

Cash in Rochester Trust and Safe Deposit Co., 4% interest.....	$ 1,350.00
Real estate in Fulton County, 40 acres.....	850.00
Total De Lancey Fund.....	2,200.00
Total combined funds.....	$ 45,284.72

Annexed to this report is a tabular statement showing the particulars of the mortgages held in the Episcopate Fund.

By comparing this statement with that submitted last year, it will be observed that several mortgages have been paid off, others have been reduced, and new mortgages have been taken, amounting to $6,400 at 5%, and $4,100 at 6%. The uninvested fund is now only $4,512.22, as against $9,992.22 a year ago, and this cash balance draws four per cent. interest instead of three and a half per cent. as it did a year ago.

The interest on all the mortgages held by the Fund, which is due at the time of this report, has been paid, with the exception of the interest on the Vandenberg mortgage of $200, amounting to $21. This mortgage covers premises in the county of Oswego, and was originally for $800. The last time the interest was paid was April 20, 1901, when two years' accumulated interest was paid.

This indicates that the securities held by the Fund are in good condition.

The real estate held in both funds is carried for what it cost to buy it in on foreclosure. There have been no changes in respect to it since the date of our last report, and what was said in that report is equally applicable at the present time.

The receipts of income during the past year have been as follows :

Cash on hand May 20, 1901	$ 333.87
From Treasurer of Diocese	3,666.85
Interest on investments of Permanent Fund, rents, etc.....	2,039.00
	$ 6,040 07

The disbursements have been as follows :

Bishop's salary (13 months).....	$	5,416.66
Taxes, insurance and assessments on See
House.....		379.55
Other taxes and expenses connected with real estate.....		153.90
Treasurer's expenses for bonds, etc.....		25.05
		<hr/>	$ 6,

As compared with last year, the receipts show a loss of $54.93 in the receipts from the parishes received through the Treasurer of the Diocese, a gain of $227.74 in the income from the invested funds, making a net gain of $172.81.

It will be observed that the income for the year was sufficient not to pay all of the year's obligations, but one month's arrears in the salary of the Bishop. This is by far the best showing that we have been able to make in recent years.

The only existing liability of the Fund is the Bishop's salary for January, March and April, amounting to $1,250.00. As against this we have an asset in interest on the principal fund to May 1, 1902, earned but not due, of about $550.00. This makes a deficit of $700.00 as of May 1. If the income for the next two years equals that of the past two years the deficit should be entirely wiped out within the next two years.

Respectfully submitted,

ELBRIDGE L. ADAMS,
Treasurer

Resolved, That a Committee consisting of two clergymen and two laymen, together with the Bishop as chairman, be appointed by the Council to report at the next Council such alterations and amendments in the Constitution and Canons of this Diocese as will bring them into harmony with the Constitution and Canons of the General Convention.

The following resolution, offered by the Rev. Dr. Washburn, was referred to the Committee on Constitution and Canons:

Resolved, That said Committee shall so amend, if necessary, Canon 3 of Title I, so as to render it unnecessary and unlawful to elect both Deputies and Provisional Deputies to the General Convention on the same ballot.

On motion the following resolution, offered by the Rev. Mr. Duff, was referred to the Committee on Constitution and Canons :

Resolved, That this Council respectfully recommend that the Standing Committee in making the assessments upon the parishes for the support of the Episcopate and Diocesan expenses adopt a sliding or graduated rate of assessments, to be apportioned according to the following classification, based upon the amount of current expenses, as provided in Canon 6 of Title I.

Class A to consist of those parishes whose current expenses equal or exceed four thousand dollars.

Class B to consist of those parishes whose current expenses are less than four thousand dollars, but not less than two thousand dollars.

Class C to consist of those parishes whose current expenses are less than two thousand dollars, but not less than one thousand dollars.

Class D to consist of those parishes whose current expenses are less than one thousand dollars.

The following persons were nominated under the resolution of the Rev. Mr. Gatley and on motion of the Rev. Dr. Hubbs, the names were ordered printed on the list of nominations to be voted upon to-morrow.

For Committee on suggested alterations and amendments to the Constitution and Canons :

The Rev. W. C. Roberts ; the Rev. Pierre Cushing ; the Rev. J. A. Regester, D. D. ; the Rev. L. C. Washburn, D. D. ; the Rev. G. B. Richards ; John E. Pound ; the Rev. A. J. Graham ; S. S. Brown ; W. B. Rankine.

The Council adjourned to 8 o'clock this evening.

After the service a reception was held in the Parish House.

CHRIST CHURCH, May 20, 9 A. M.

The Holy Communion was celebrated by the Bishop of the Diocese, assisted by the Revs. E. S. Hoffman and Pierre Cushing.

10 A. M.

The Council met for business.

The roll of the Clergy and Lay Delegates was called.

On motion of the Rev. Mr. Cushing such portion of the Bishop's Address as referred to the bequest of the Rev. Francis Granger was referred to the Standing Committee of the Diocese.

On motion the following resolution, offered by the Rev. Mr. Graham as a substitute to that of Rev. Dr. Ashton, was adopted :

Resolved, That this Council is not averse to a change in the name of the Church, but deems such change to be inexpedient at this time. Clerical Vote, Aye 50, No 1. Lay Vote, Aye 30, No 0.

The Rev. Dr. Smith offered the following resolution, which was referred to the Committee on State Legislation:

WHEREAS, The statutes of the State of New York regulating religious corporations provides that the Annual Meeting of a parish shall be held immediately after Morning Prayer,

AND WHEREAS, In a very large majority of the parishes it is almost impossible to secure the attendance of anything like a representative number of the qualified voters at a meeting held in the morning, therefore be it

Resolved, That the Secretary of this Diocese be instructed to communicate with the Secretaries of the four other Dioceses of this State with a view to obtain an amendment to the present law, which will permit the holding of an Annual Meeting in any parish in the evening.

On motion of the Rev. Mr. Hoffman of the Committee on Admission of Churches, S. Thomas' Mission, Rochester, having fulfilled the necessary requirements and received the approval of the Bishop, was admitted to representation in the Council.

The reports of the Standing Committee, the Board of Education, the Trustees of the De Lancey Divinity School, the Warden of the De Lancey Divinity School, and the Financial Board, were read by the Secretary, the Rev. Dr. North.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Smith, they were received and placed on file.

The Rev. Mr. Cushing offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That 5,000 copies of the Bishop's Address be printed at the expense of the Diocese, and sent to the Clergy for distribution among their respective congregations, or so much of the address as the Bishop will furnish for publication, provided only that those parts of the address which refer to the proper observance of Ascension Day, of Sunday and also to the change in the name of the Church be published entire and as delivered.

The Council then proceeded to the order of the day, the Election of Officers.

The Bishop appointed as Tellers for the Clerical Vote, the Rev. Mr. Parrott and Mr. Prophet, and for the Lay Vote, the Rev Mr. Herendeen and Mr. Howard.

The minutes of the preceding sessions were read and approved, with the insertion of the name of the Rev. Mr. Sherman in the list of nominations for Deputy to the Federate Council.

REPORT :

The Committee has considered the proposed amendment of Dr. North to strike out paragraph IV of Canon III, entitled "of Deputies to the General Convention" and that paragraph V be numbered IV. and Dr. North has explained to the Committee that the object of his proposed amendment is to make definite and clear the method of filling a vacancy of the Council elect less than the full number of Deputies to the General Convention, as happened at the 64th Annual Council.

This definiteness can be accomplished by either one of two prepared amendments herewith submitted, the adoption of one or the other of which will express the will of the Council as to whether when the Council neglects or fails to elect Deputies or the full number of Deputies, the vacancies shall be filled from those in office elected three years before or from the Provisional Deputies elected at the same Council as the Deputies are elected.

If the Council wills the vacancies to be filled from the Provisional Deputies, then the Committee recommends the adoption of the following amendment :

"A"—Strike out paragraph IV of Canon III, and in paragraph V after the words "In default of which" insert the following words: "or in case of failure or neglect of the Council to elect the full number of Deputies"

If, on the other hand, the Council wills that vacancies in the Deputies be filled from those in office elected to the prior General Convention, the Committee recommends the following amendment :

"B"—Paragraph IV of Canon III to be amended to read as follows :

IV. "In case of a failure or neglect of the Council to elect Deputies or to elect the full number of Deputies, those already in office shall continue until successors are chosen, with priority of right in rotation as is provided in the case of Provisional Deputies."

The Committee does not consider it necessary to recommend the adoption of the amendment offered by Dr. Washburn that Deputies and Provisional Deputies be elected by separate ballot. Canon X of Elections does not require the names of nominees for election as Provisional Deputies to be placed on the one ballot with other nominees. Therefore they may be balloted upon separately.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES W. ASHTON,
PIERRE CUSHING,
W B. RANKINE.

The hour of noon having arrived, the Rev. Dr. Van Dyck offered prayers for missions.

On motion of Dr. Hopkins the recommendation "A" of the Committee on Constitution and Canons, providing that Provisional Deputies take the place of any vacancy in the list of Deputies to the General Convention, was adopted by vote of Orders: Clerical, aye, 45; lay, 26, unanimous.

The Rev. Dr. Ashton, of the Committee on Constitution and Canons, made the following

REPORT:

The Committee on Constitution and Canons respectfully reports that the following resolution offered by the Rev. Dr. Duff was referred to it for an expression of its opinion as to the canonical character of the recommendations therein contained. The Committee has examined the resolution and compared it with Canon 6, of Title I, and, in its opinion, there is nothing in said recommendations that conflicts with Canon 6, "of Diocesan Expenses." The Committee therefore moves its reference back to the Council for action.

JAMES W. ASHTON,
PIERRE CUSHING,
WM. R. RANKINE.

On motion of Dr. Smith the consideration of the report was postponed to the next Council.

The Tellers made their report of the election of officers, and the following were declared elected by concurrent vote:

For Standing Committee: The Rev. J. A. Regester, S. T. D., the Rev. Walter North, L. H. D., the Rev. R. R. McG. Converse, Henry R. Hopkins, M. D., John E. Pound, Henry B. Hathaway, Nathaniel Rochester.

The Rev. Mr. Gatley, of the Committee on the report of the Board of Education, made the following

REPORT:

The Standing Committee on the Report of the Board of Education respectfully submit the following:

The Report of the Board of Education has been received; but in-as-much as the Board of Education in no particular comes under the jurisdiction of the Diocesan Council, and therefore no recommendation suggested by this Standing Committee would have any special force with the Board of Education, the Committee presents the following resolution:

Resolved, That the appointment of a Standing Committee on the Report of the Board of Education be hereafter discontinued.

Signed,

H. S. GATLEY,
A. SIDNEY DEALEY.

On motion of the Secretary the report was received and placed on file.

The following resolution was offered by the Rev. Dr. Washburn :

Resolved, That the Bishop be hereby requested to issue a statement and appeal in behalf of the Christmas Fund, so that the appeal may be in the hands of each clergyman not later than the 4th Sunday in Advent.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Hayes the Secretary was instructed to ask the Trustees of the Christmas Fund to report to the next Council the number of beneficiaries, clergy and widows separately and the amounts given to each class.

The Rev. Mr. Burrows, of the Committee on the report of the Trustees of De Veaux College, made the following

REPORT :

The Standing Committee on the Report of the Board of Trustees of De Veaux College begs leave to announce that it has carefully examined the report of said Board for the calendar year 1902, and finds it satisfactorily clear and complete in the information it contains, and duly complying with the law of incorporation, which governs its form.

Respectfully submitted,

G. SHERMAN BURROWS,
CHARLES H. WILLIAMS,
EUGENE C. DENTON.

On motion the report was received and placed on file.

The Rev. Mr. Gaviller, of the Committee on Sunday Schools, made the following

REPORT :

Your Committee reports as follows :

The good work of church extension, through the agency of the Sunday School, continues to progress ; everywhere throughout the diocese there appears to be an increasing anxiety on behalf of the lambs of Christ's flock.

In the Archdeaconry of Rochester three new schools have been organized, in the missions of Dundee, Wolcott and Pleasant Valley. While in the Archdeaconry of Buffalo, a second Sunday School has been opened on Cattaraugus Reservation—this latter among the Pagan Indians of the reserve.

At Black Rock, in the City of Buffalo, a most prosperous Sunday School of one hundred and fifty scholars has been organized in the parochial mission of S. Mark's Parish, under the management of the Rev. Mr. Stanton, Rector.

The Sunday School Institute of Rochester has continued to do excellent work during the past year, notably the publication of a leaflet on the Joint Diocesan Series, supplying for each lesson a list of questions for written work to be done by the scholar at home; this leaflet provides for a long felt want in the direction of exact and careful Bible study, and has proved to be most helpful—and now a second leaflet is being issued on the Christian Year. The Institute has likewise inaugurated a system of scholastic examinations, and grants certificates of proficiency to the successful candidates.

It is with deep regret that your Committee has to report a very different condition as at present existing in regard to educational work on behalf of Sunday Schools in the Archdeaconry of Buffalo. The Buffalo Church Sunday School League has practically ceased to be. For some years it did a good work, and was the means of gathering together considerable numbers of teachers and officers from time to time during the winter months; the Institute under the auspices of the League also did for years excellent service, but during the past winter no meetings were held and nothing was done.

Your Committee would recommend that wherever possible the Archdeacons, under the direction of the Bishop, gather the Sunday School workers together at least once a year for instruction and mutual counsel. This, it seems, might be done in a series of local conferences held at such centres of church life as might be found convenient.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

G. H. GAVILLER,

Chairman.

On motion the report was received and placed on file.

The Rev. Mr. Cushing offered the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That this Council tender its sincere and appreciative thanks to the Rev. E. S. Hoffman for his painstaking and efficient care in arranging for the holding of this Council; also to the members of his parish for their unsurpassed hospitality during its session.

The Rev. Mr. Richards, of the Special Committee on Life Insurance, made the following

REPORT :

Your Committee, to whom was referred the subject of the raising of a fund or funds in the Diocese by authorizing a life insurance company to accomplish the same through its agents, respectfully submits the following report :

I. While your Committee recognize the importance of increasing materially the different Permanent Funds of the Diocese and the advantage from the mere point of view of raising money, which would inhere in a plan in which a large number of agents of a life insurance company are financially interested in its success as well as interested in it on account of the advertisement which it would be to them and their company, and that this strong personal interest by trained men would undoubtedly be of considerable advantage.

II. Nevertheless the following serious objections must be recognized :

a. That this plan does undoubtedly form a certain cold blooded commercial relationship between the Church in this Diocese and a body of men whose interests are solely financial.

b. That this plan invidiously selects one company and its agents to the exclusion of other strong companies, whose agents are scattered throughout our different parishes and in many cases are communicants of the Church. Thus the Council would seem to endorse one particular company without giving the others a hearing.

c. It is a serious question whether this plan of raising funds, although appearing easier, will prove as healthful to the parishes of the Diocese as the good old way of direct giving through loving self sacrifice ; what we need is more assurance of life rather than more life assurance.

d. Furthermore there is an organization under the auspices of the Church with offices in the Church Missions Building, in New York City, called " The Church Endowment Society," which exists for the very purpose which is before us, which is headed by a clergyman of the Church, and which therefore would undoubtedly remove the first two objections mentioned. As we have no specific knowledge of the methods of this association, we deem it objectionable to act favorably in any case upon the present plan before receiving information that this Church Organization cannot do the work as well as any purely commercial company.

III. In view therefore of the above considerations your Committee reports that it deems action by the Council at the time inexpedient and that it refrains from any discussion or recommendation regarding the General Clergy Relief Fund or the other funds for which money might advantageously be raised.

GEORGE B. RICHARDS,
JAMES W. ASHTON,
A. M. EBERSOLE,
CHARLES H. WILLIAMS,
W. H. STRADELLA.

On motion the report was received and placed on file.

The report of the Rev. Mr. Dantzer, Missionary to the Deaf Mutes, was read by the Rev. Mr. Berry.

REPORT:

To the Rt. Rev. W. D. Walker, D. D., LL. D., D. C. L.:

During the past year I have continued to do my work as in other years. I have held a total of 109 services; celebrated the Holy Communion in public 26 times, in private twice; baptized 7 infants and 3 adults; brought 6 to confirmation; married 3, buried 2; made a large number of visitations on the sick in mind and body, as well as the usual amount of house to house visitations, particularly in Buffalo and Rochester, where our people are widely scattered; have secured employment for a number, and when necessary have secured pecuniary assistance for the destitute, and in addition to this I have attended to a necessarily large correspondence. At my services there has been a total attendance of 1,425, and the average was 13.

There are now a total of 75 communicants, a gain of 5 over last year. But we have a much larger number, who, while not regularly affiliated with us, yet attend our services more or less regularly and contribute toward the success of the work by their own efforts.

The following places have been visited during the year for services, or to visit deaf mutes: Buffalo, Depew, N. Tonawanda, Lockport, Jamestown, Fluvanna, Salamanca, Bliss, Perry, Rochester, Canandaigua, Geneva, Watkins, Medina, Cohocton, Corning, New York City and Elmira.

In the Archdeaconry of Buffalo, much hard work has been done and some progress has been made in spite of opposition from those of an alien faith and the carelessness, thoughtlessness or worldliness of a number of the younger people—contrary to general belief our people are just like their hearing brothers and sisters—with the same failings. But with us there is no soul stirring music to attract those who have little religious feeling, or who are careless, thoughtless or worldly in their ways, so that most of those who attend our services do so from a feeling of religious obligation. In three of our big cities the attendances are unusually large, because there the deaf mute services have for years formed a centre of attraction, where deaf mutes know they can meet their friends. Of course, there is some advantage in this, in that a number are thus attracted to the Church itself. In Rochester our services are to some extent becoming the centre of attraction, but this cannot be said of Buffalo.

During the past year we have had the assistance of a society of young ladies, who meet once a month in St. Paul's Parish House for a short service of devotion and to transact business. There have been only six or seven members in this organization, but they have raised money for my charitable work in Buffalo and also provided the wherewithal for a Christmas celebration and nearly 50 children of deaf mute parentage, irrespective of religious affiliation, received a gift of a toy, a book or a game and a box of candy, an orange and some ice-cream.

St. Bedes Mission, Buffalo, has raised during the year a total of $42.10, and this was disbursed as follows :

Missionary's Traveling Expenses	$23.00
Printing and Postage	3.39
Sexton of St. Paul's Church.....	2 00
Lay Reader's Expenses.....	1.90
Diocesan Missions.....	2 50
Emergency Fund.....	9 00
Balance on hand.....	.31
	$42.10

Our Emergency Fund now amounts to, in cash, $100.50, to which must be added $64 00 in notes and pledges unpaid. There have been 56 services, 15 celebrations of the Holy Communion, 7 baptisms, 3 confirmations and 2 marriages. There are 32 communicants.

In the Rochester Archdeaconry, we are glad to report general progress. The work at Rochester is much like that at Buffalo, and here too we have a Ladies' Aid Society that meets monthly in St. Luke's Parish House—much good has been done by them—they also had a successful Christmas celebration in St. Luke's Parish House, and nearly 20 children of deaf mute parentage were made happy by some little remembrance.

There have been 52 services, 13 celebrations, 3 baptisms, 3 confirmations, 1 marriage and 2 burials, and there are on my list 43 communicants.

During the year Ephphatha Mission, Rochester, raised a total of $62.45, which was disbursed as follows :

Missionary's Expense Fund	$35.00
Diocesan Missions	5.00
Sexton of St. Luke's Church.....	1.50
Printing and Postage	7.63
Incidentals94
Emergency Fund	10.00
Balance on hand.....	1.38
	$62.45

The Emergency Fund now amounts to slightly over $120.00.

In the death last August of the Rev. Dr. Thomas Gallaudet, D. D., L. H. D., Rector Emeritus of St Matthew's Parish, New York, and Vicar of St. Ann's Chapel for the Deaf connected with that parish, the deaf throughout the country have lost one of the very best friends they ever had. Through the influence of his voice and pen, he had provided missions for them in nearly every large city in the country, besides building up St. Ann's Church and the beautiful home for Aged and Infirm Deaf Mutes, near Wappinger's Falls, N. Y.

Services in his memory have been held by the deaf in all the large cities throughout the country, and everywhere the large attendances and kind words have shown what a warm place he held in our hearts. In Buffalo an impressive service was held in beautiful St. Paul's Cathedral, on Sunday evening, Nov. 2d. The attendance was over 250. The service was read orally by the Rector, Rev. Dr. J. A. Regester, and in signs by Rev. Mr. T. B. Berry and myself. Addresses were made by the two latter.

In St. Luke's Parish House a similar service, was held on Sunday evening, Nov. 9th, the attendance being nearly 100, addresses being made by Rev. E. P. Hart, Dr. Z. F. Westervelt, Supt. of the Western New York Institution for Deaf Mutes, and myself. The addresses were all beautiful tributes to an unusually beautiful character. As Mr. Hart said in his address: "We thank God for the good example and the life of this good man, and we pray God that what he has done for the spiritual uplifting of the deaf may go on with new prayers and new faith and new courage. For a man is honored most, not in speech, nor by the silent admiration of his friends, but by the influence and power which goes into other lives to make them live holier, better, nobler, more Christ-like."

Very truly yours,

C. ORVIS DANTZER.

Rochester, May 16, 1903.

On motion the report was received and placed on file.

The Rev. Mr. Gaviller offered the following resolution which was adopted unanimously by a rising vote :

Whereas, In the Providence of Almighty God the hand of death has removed a most faithful and efficient member of this Diocese, and one who for many years was a member of the Council and of the Standing Committee of the Diocese, and one who also abounded in good works, therefore be it

Resolved, That this Council, while lamenting most sincerely the decease of the late W. H. Walker, thanks God for the good example of his noble life as a member of this church.

And further, That the Secretary of this Council be and is hereby directed to forward a copy of this resolution to the family of the late W. H. Walker.

APPENDIX I.

THE BISHOP'S ADDRESS.

My Dear Reverend Brethren and Brethren of the Laity :

I offer you my annual greeting, bidding you welcome to our Council, and wishing you good luck in the name of the Lord.

ASCENSION DAY.

Our gathering this year will have its limitations in duration in view of the nearness of that great Feast, which we would all honor and celebrate solemnly in our home Churches. I must pause here for a word of counsel touching that beautiful Holy day which will dawn upon the world two days hence. The Reverend Clergy of this Diocese, I know, are instant in season and out of season in their urgency upon their flocks to commemorate that wonderful Festival by attendance at Divine worship. But alas ! what a meagre result here—as elsewhere throughout the land. A few devoted women, some Damaris and others with her, and one Dyonisius, clustered together with reverent mien and thankful hearts at an early celebration of the Holy Eucharist. But the wonted roar of traffic, and the resounding tread of mankind on their way to the marts of business and speculation, obtrude upon the calm of the House of God, and almost drown the sursum corda and the awful words of Consecration that give such mystic beauty and sanctity to the Divine Sacrament of the Altar.

The logic among our Churchmen, which leads them to turn their backs upon and neglect the observance of the Feast of the Ascension, I never have been able to comprehend. That closing day of our Lord's bodily life on the earth was the completion of that wondrous miracle of the ages—the Incarnation. Why should not the finishing day of Redemption's work be equally precious with that on which humanity and Divinity were knitted together? Why should not the ascent to the God's glory and adoration in the heavens be equally glorious and thrilling to our hearts with the descent to the man's life amid the sons of men?

We rejoice that in our time the custom has been born which closes exchanges and banks and wholesale places of business, and many a minor shop on the Saviour's birthday and on his deathday. We are happy too that many Christians of other names are moving their people to an honoring and a commemoration of the hallowed days which are linked to these momentous events in the life of the God-man among us. But the event which opened the doors of Heaven to man—which elevated human nature to the abode of angels and the triune God—which finally consummated the restoration of a lost race, that is apparently little apprehended and wholly disregarded in those quarters—nay, by our privileged selves who are members of this uncorrupt Branch of Christ's Catholic Church. I am informed that in many parts of our land that very honorable fraternity, the Knights Templar, on Ascension Day gathers its members under the roof of God's House, and amid swelling anthems, and with swords drawn from the scabbard and lifted on high during the recital of the Catholic Creed of Nicaea proclaim their faith in and their self-surrendered allegiance to their risen and ascended Master and King. Is not such an example of a body which is semi-religious in its character worthy the imitation of every man of us who is signed with the sign of the cross, and who made the same confession and profession at the Font when the hallowed dew of Baptism sparkled on the brow? Brethren of the Laity here present, representing the nearly 23,000 Communicants of the Diocese—and constituting 1-33 of the whole number in the American Church—I address you, and through you all who kneel at our Altars—will you not aim to show your thankfulness at the yearly return of that great Feast-day to the Redeeming Lord of your life for His Ascension on high which completed and determined man's hope of Heaven and of an endless life, by seeking His Temple, and there offering Him prayer and service, sacrifice and praise—a fitting memorial for that His unspeakable gift.

NECROLOGY.

The fulfilment of few of the obligations resting annually upon a Bishop, as he stands before his Council and reads his address, is more moving to him than the duty now to be performed by me.

It is the recital of the names of leaders in the Church and those of lesser note—faithful and sanctified—who have gone to their rest. Four of my brethren who received Consecration to the Episcopate have passed forth from their labors to the reward beyond. They are

1. Rt. Rev. Francis McNeece Whittle, Bishop of Virginia.
2. Rt. Rev. Robert Woodward Barnwell, Bishop of Alabama.
3. Rt. Rev. Hugh Meller Thompson, Bishop of Mississippi.
4. Rt. Rev. Frederick William Taylor, Bishop of Quincy.

Two of these Fathers in God filled the highest office in the Church for only a brief period—a space of about two years each. I refer to the Bishops of Alabama and Quincy. Each was a man of learning. Each worked energetically at his post of duty. Each, during the short period of his Episcopate, commended himself warmly to his own flock.

Of the other two leaders—and they were leaders indeed—time would fail me to give full recital of their striking qualities and attainments and characters. Each left his mark on his work, and showed clearly the truth of the Apostles' teaching that in the Church of God there are the diversities of gifts. They were each "stalwarts" in their own sphere of responsibility. Each had the pronounced traits which threw out in strong relief the man and made clear to all observers, without blur or waver, where he stood and what he believed. Men of convictions, men of positive assertion, men of conscientious principles were they. And for these principles they were ready to contend, "speaking," as time and grey hairs mellowed their advancing years, "the truth in love." The Church of God was more and more honored by each, and more and more loved by each as the years brought them nearer the goal. And, too, in opinions and in loyalty to the same truth and the same household of faith they came to a nearer unity and fellowship as hand clasped hand in the fraternal intercourse and loving comradeship of the upper house of the General Convention. Bishops know Bishops, and see subtle bonds of gold linking one to another, of which the outer world has no knowledge and no comprehension. And the sweet communion, yet manly and courteous differences of view that characterize debate, manifest the sound wisdom that keeps closed doors against a curious and a gaping public which would demand elocution and display.

It is wholesome that there are no galleries in the House of Bishops. I trust that there never may be "while grass grows and water runs."

Our own ranks also have been reduced, and it becomes my melancholy duty to announce the removal by death from our number of clergy of four Reverend brethren.

Three of them were well stricken in years, and had long held Canonical relation to the Diocese, although not actively engaged in work. But in the past each was noted for zeand devotion wheresoever his lot was cast. Good names have they left behind them, and in reverend honor shall they be remembered by many of our brethren who yet recall their going in and out among us, as they fed the flock and preached the Word. Let me affectionately and with veneration rehearse their names :

The Rev. J. Henry Perkins.

The Rev. Noble Palmer.

The Rev. Peyton Gallagher.

One more brother has fallen asleep who companied with us. He never advanced beyond the Diaconate. After a ministry covering about two years there came the clouded brain, and from that grave of the intellect there was no full resurrection until the dawn of the new morning when. His servant's eyes opened amid the light of Paradise. We mourn the short ministry and the darkened days of our zealous brother, Rev. Thomas W. Atwood, Deacon, who went out from our family circle only a few weeks ago.

And now I will ask you, again, to follow the example of the Fathers of the Church, and join with me in rehearsing the Nicene Creed and in such appropriate supplications as our Book of Prayer provides for commemorating holy ones departed.

THE DIOCESE.

Your Bishop has been busier than ever during the year past. That is to say his official engagements and duties have been more numerous than at any time during his Episcopate. But they have had the charm of association with you and your enterprises and successes in work, dear brethren. Hence it was never weariness nor toil to him, but ever grateful and cheering and satisfying labor. It was a linking always to holy endeavors on your part, which God had blessed and prospered in your hands, and thus to be co-workers with you in the advancing of the dear Redeemer's Kingdom was happiness indeed.

My record of Episcopal acts shows the following totals. The details will be presented in the usual place in the Journal. During the year I have baptized one infant. As you are aware, it is my rule to decline officiating at baptisms, marriages and funerals, except as an assistant to the Rector or Minister-in-charge. I am always glad to take part with the pastor of a flock in such services where desired, but the essence of the office, its central act, I decline to perform in the presence of the clergymen to whose spiritual charge, in the Providence of God, the person or family interested may be committed. It is not for the avoidance of the labor that such a law has been adopted by me for my own governance. It is in the interest of the pastors of the flocks. Through the faithful and sympathetic performance of such duties many a minister has won for God souls that without such intimacy and contact as inhere in the relationship established by such offices would probably never have been won to the church. So may the strength of God's church be more thoroughly secured in this parish or that by the pastor's tender ministration than by the larger pomp of a Bishop's official service. I think I shall not make a fantastic use of the text I am now about to quote by applying it here. "And he gave some apostles; and some prophets; and some evangelists; and some pastors and teachers; for the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ." During the year past I have officiated at six marriages. Also during the same period it has been my privilege to take part in the solemn office which committed to earth two of God's faithful ones. One parish-house has been dedicated by me, and one altar, and one church tower. I have also consecrated the chancel of a church newly-built. And the beautiful office of the church for the consecration of a chapel was used by me in setting apart for its tender purposes the chapel of the Church Home in Rochester.

In connection with some of the aforesaid record, I wish to state for the knowledge of the whole Diocese that I have never set forth any office for the "dedication of places, houses and things"—to use the terminology of our Hymnal. The Bishop has authority from the Canons to compose, or adapt or adopt special services for special occasions. The duty in this behalf, and the responsibility, is vested in him alone—and all such offices are his privilege and his alone to perform unless—on specific occasions—he chooses to delegate his authority, for the time being, to another. So, too, the right to shorten the services of the church, except as authorized in Canons and Rubrics, rests with the Ordinary only, and special third services must have his sanction. I am prompted to this digression by some experiences of the last year in the Diocese. I need not name them. I trust that only thus vaguely to refer to them will lead my brethren to consider the binding force of the law in these matters, upon their consciences and upon their honor.

During the twelvemonth past I have attended in my official relation and presided at 54 meetings. These are meetings independent of those held with the corporations of the different parishes—the Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen thereof at my visitations. I must refer once more to the latter gatherings. Notwithstanding my earnest request, a few of the Rectors this year have not made arrangement for the Vestry to meet the Bishop. I fear it was not an oversight—at least on the part of some. And it pains me to be compelled to draw this inference.

In the period named I have officiated at 181 services within the Diocese, as well as many others beyond its borders. The sermons preached by me have been 142 in number. I have also made addresses on 139 different occasions. The confirmation services have been 111, in 110 different places. The largest number in my Episcopate. The number of individuals confirmed was 1,441.

This, I think, is the greatest number confirmed within a single year in the history of the Diocese. But I regret to say that after appointment had been made several visitations were postponed at the request of the clergy in charge of the parishes. Some have arrived at the conclusion that a service once in two years is the more profitable. I believe not. I know not. The Bishop wants to be with you for confirmation annually. It will be for your good and for your people's good. The parishes desire a confirmation at least once in a year.

In addition to the above duties within the Diocese, it is fitting that I should refer to offices performed in other parts of the church. It was my privilege, within the above mentioned period to take part in the consecration of two of our Bishops, viz., the Diocesan of Salina and the Coadjutor of Central New York. At the request of the Bishop of the latter Diocese, when unwell, I held confirmations in nine towns, and received to the higher privileges of the Christian Church by that apostolic rite 93 persons. The total number thus confirmed by me within the year was 1,534. I esteemed it high honor thus to be permitted to aid in his great work a Father-in-God whose name is in all the churches, and whose marvellous spiritual insight and whose saintly life and influence have leavened hosts of human souls. It has also been my welcome duty, since the last meeting of this Council, to admit to Holy Orders in the Church, by the laying on of hands, seven men who were made Deacons. I cannot but pause to have you note the apostolic and scriptural number here admitted to that sacred office. I also received into the holy order of Priesthood, by the laying on of hands on the part of the Episcopate and the Presbytery, two men who had, in accordance with the Canons of this church and by the law of God, won that good degree.

Three of the Deacons were students in the De Lancey Divinity School. A fourth received the larger part of his training in an institution in Canada, and took some of his instruction later at our own school. These men have been attending the lectures during the past year, and when their final examinations for Priest's orders shall have been completed, in a few days, will pass out of the doors of De Lancey, and it will then be emptied of students, save for one who has a quasi-connection with it. The other Deacons are graduates of the General Theological Seminary, in New York. From that institution in ten days four more young men, candidates for Holy Orders in this Diocese, will go forth, speedily to be ordained Deacons, and to undertake work, by God's will, in Western New York. It is now a happy condition in this our great family—this Diocese—that three only, of all our parishes—with their attendant missions—are vacant. And for these provision is made in the graduating class of the seminary. There is no place without pastoral care in the whole of Western New York, except one parish and its accompanying mission. In the other two, to which reference has just been made, there are clergymen, each of which, by the desire of the people, acts as a "locum tenens." We have, as you are aware, 151 parishes and missions in the Diocese. In addition to these, there are at least four or five places where a certain amount of work is being done of a sporadic character. Of the 151 parishes and missions above mentioned, nine are under the direct care of the two archdeacons, to be ministered to by them, or through such other help as they can secure, lay or clerical. The few unorganized missions, where the sporadic work—as I have characterized it—is being done—which, of course, is infrequent—falls to their lot. As you know, also, it devolves upon them in the case of some of the places where Deacons are ministering, to provide personally or by proxy for regular celebrations of the Holy Communion. Thus if the Archdeacons only be alert to this latter duty—securing celebrations of the Eucharist once monthly—and it is surely possible in view of the comparatively small number of places for which each is directly responsible—the whole family of Christ, numbering nearly 23,000 communicants in the Diocese, may be fed, or may have that privilege, with the heavenly food of the Holy Altar once monthly. It is spiritual privilege, comfort and duty on the highest plane, and to so great a degree as I think cannot be paralleled in any Diocese in the land. It is a condition that I have prayed for and hoped for and worked for through the years of my labors among you. Thank God! that thus my people may no longer be deprived of that chiefest aid to a godly life, that strongest defence against the specious wiles of a tempting and a naughty world. Let us pray, brethren, that in this coming twelvemonth and throughout all years these precious privileges may not be withdrawn from even the weakest of all the obscure corners in this great vineyard of our holy Master. I have said let us pray for such a condition of devotion and consecration in the Diocese. I presume such an appeal to the clergy is unnecessary. But do our laity all plead at the footstool of our Father that He will guide and direct the Diocese—its work, its head, all its workers day by day? Nobler results would come were all our 23,000 communicants on their knees each morning or evening pleading that the Holy Ghost may take this section of His Church constantly under His watching care. I ask this of you all, and through you, all the parishes, and all the people of those parishes that one united cry may go up to God daily for His commanding, sanctifying, comforting presence among us. Brethren, I have an overwhelming confidence in the power and results of such intercessory prayer. I am not one of those pseudo-philosophers of the day who declare that to pray is to be afflicted with a “disease of the will.” I prefer to accept the truth of the Psalmist’s promise, and to base my philosophy and give my faith to that, when he says to me and to all the world, “O, pray for the peace of Jerusalem. They shall prosper that love thee.”

During the year two legacies, which will be helpful to the Diocese, have come to us. 1st. On September 10, 1902, the sum of $4,550.45 was placed in the hands of the Bishop by the executors of the estate of the Rev. Francis Granger, who for many years was a Presbyterian of this Diocese. This sum of money constituted the residue of the said Reverend brother's property after the settlement of all other claims against his estate had been made. It was bequeathed to the late Rev. William D. Walker, Bishop of the Diocese of Western New York, to be used by him "for the spread of the Gospel in Western New York." I am here quoting the terms of the instrument itself. Soon after receiving the bequest for the above amount I deposited it in a savings bank in the city of Rochester, where it is drawing interest at the rate of four per cent. annually. The income therefrom will thus be upwards of $180.00 per year. As this is a concern in which the whole Diocese has interest I would ask the counsel of my brethren regarding the creation of a special Board of Trustees to hold and invest this fund, numbering, perhaps, three persons, of whom the Bishop, in accordance with the spirit of the will, ought to be one. In my opinion such a Board of Trustees should make report to this Council annually—if it be created. I ask this consideration of the subject and this action on your part because I deem it wise for every Bishop or other Clergyman to refuse to be sole trustee of any fund on earth. In the handling and care of trust funds the teaching of Scripture certainly applies "In the multitude of counsellors there is safety." I shall therefore feel grateful to the Council if its members will introduce this subject into its order of business before adjournment.

2d. Mrs. Van Bokkelen, the widow of a Clergyman who at one time was the Rector of Trinity Church, Buffalo, died somewhat less than a year ago. A will was discovered, a long time after her decease, which bequeathed the sum of $55,000.00, to be held and administered by a Board of Trustees consisting of the Bishop of the Diocese and the gentlemen constituting the body which has care of the Christmas Fund. This trust, by the terms of the will, was to bear the name of her first husband, and its income was to be devoted to the aid of aged and infirm Clergymen of the Diocese of Western New York. The will in due time was offered for probate, when it was announced and proven that the estate had been greatly impaired. After two or three arguments presented in the Surrogate's Court and several interviews between the lawyers representing the various parties in interest—and these were numerous—it became obvious that a compromise on our part would be necessary unless we took the risk of prolonged litigation, with, perhaps, no gain in the end. The Chancellor of the Diocese represented me, and Judge McLouth, one of the Trustees of the Christmas Fund, acted as counsel for his colleagues. After a thorough inquiry and search into the conditions of the estate had been made by our counsel, and it was clearly established that nearly three-quarters of the original property had been lost, it was thought expedient to settle our claim for the sum of $13,750.00. This was the amount actually received by us. We had no inheritance tax to pay and no counsel fees and no appraisement or other expenses; these were all cared for by the estate. We received therefore what was nearly equivalent—unless I am mistaken—to a gross sum of $15,000.00. This is a fund which is to be kept distinct from the Christmas Fund, because (1st) its Board of Trustees is differently constituted, inasmuch as it includes the Bishop of the Diocese. (2d) Its scope is somewhat different, as the will makes provision for Clergymen only to be its beneficiaries. (3d) There is no requirement in the testator's devise that it shall make report to or seek counsel of this Council. (4th) It must bear the name of the person designated by the testator and must be administered under that title. These four conditions therefore forbid any confusion in the management of the property and bar any amalgamation of the two funds.

DIOCESAN MISSIONS.

The reports of the two Archdeacons, at the annual meetings of the Archdeaconries of Buffalo and Rochester, gave testimony of rich fruit as the outcome of their constant and faithful labor. I need not repeat their interesting narratives. So far as the meetings of the two Boards of Buffalo and Rochester go I am able to report—as last year—conscientious, pains-taking, generous application of time and mind and heart to the work by the members of each. The fund, raised through the offerings taken at the Bishop's visitations, has assumed moderate proportions, and is doing its part toward the maintenance of the entire work, and so, in a degree, unifying our Diocesan Missions.

DE VEAUX COLLEGE.

That prolific subject for discussion in this Council—De Veaux College and its interests—will occupy only a small portion of our time on this occasion. Its report will be read, which will show the usual careful management and a prosperity that is worthy; but which is on a meagre scale considering the magnitude of which the work is capable but for the limitations put upon it—as I am more and more convinced each year of my study in the problem—unjustly and unnecessarily. My feeling is, and I do not hesitate to express it strongly, that we are to-day, in a sense, betraying or abusing a trust in that we are not securing the maximum of good for those who ought to be beneficiaries of that trust. I mean by this, for I would not be misunderstood by my brethren, that if the 20 to 30 applicants for admission on the paid tuition basis who have come to us within the year seeking admission had been enrolled on our books we could have provided for about seven more, nay eight or nine more foundationers, and so helped worthy boys to an education which shall fit them well for usefulness in the world. With that statement I leave the matter; adding that it is a sorrow to me every day of my life that an institution so splendid in its location and equipment is not accomplishing richer results for humanity, the world and the church—in accordance with the generous, the large-minded and the far-seeing plan of its kind and good founder. Agreeably to the mandate of this Council, the Board of Trustees passed a resolution soon after our session of a year ago, restoring the "term-pupil" department. Immediately protest was made by one of the members of that Board. Thus issue was joined. Counsel has been engaged on both sides. The suit has got its head into the first court. I think no progress has as yet been made. It is the old story of the "law's delay." It must, if I am not misinformed, pass the ordeal of two additional courts. When it will emerge from the last of the three, I nor anybody else knows not apparently. I trust it will not be another case of Jarndyce versus Jarndyce, and that our pulses will not have been stilled and the hearts of another generation shall have ceased to beat, before the edict goes forth which determines the opening or the non-opening of our doors to earnest youths seeking training and learning—without the brand of a charity-boy—under the oversight and with the nurture of God's church.

The numbers under our care during a portion of the year were 22. By a sale of a large plot of land we will be able out of the income from the proceeds to provide for about three more boys. But for this addition to our funds, it would probably become necessary to reduce the roll of students to 19 or 20 at the most. The diminished rate of interest on investments is the cause. And while I am Bishop of this Diocese my protest will be uncompromisingly raised against the incurring of any debt. I am glad also to announce here that the other members of our Board are of the same mind. We are absolutely a unit in this matter.

I cannot close this annual reference to De Veaux College without referring to one fact which, I think, many in this Council and throughout the Diocese, in the dust and heat of discussion, entirely lose sight of. I refer to the large amount of labor and time bestowed so ungrudgingly and so heartily by the Trustees upon the administration of that institution. When I consider the questions in law, the financial problems, the real estate custodianship, the differing matters of policy in administration, the difficult arranging of some former plans to meet changed conditions, and the ceaseless watchfulness necessary to sound management—all laden on the shoulders of this Board, and cheerfully met and anxiously and conscientiously carried by them, I feel that they are worthy—eliminating the speaker, whose load is the least of all—of the confidence and the gratitude and the encouraging support of the whole Diocese. I am not indulging in these pleasant words as a mere form. If the members of this Council could be present at all the meetings of the Trustees during a single year, they would soon see that my Reverend and my lay co-workers on that Board are no idlers in the work, and that the office is not a sine-cure which each fills.

CONFIRMATIONS.

Except in a few instances the classes presented by the clergy for Confirmation this year have been somewhat smaller in numbers than in the past. While the aggregate is above the standard, because several were abnormally large, the averages were lower. Whence the reason may well be asked: Is it because the attendance at services on Sundays is diminished, as the newspapers declare? or is it because Sunday is to-day less a holy day and more a holiday than formerly? And if this last be true, who is responsible for the altered and the lowered sentiment on the subject? Is it the Laity or is it the timid or half-secularized clergy who in their teaching regarding the observance of the Lord's Day are striving to accommodate themselves to the practice of society rather than thundering out the Command of the Lord God in their ears? It is nauseating to hear the old bugbear of the "Puritan Sabbath " made as an excuse for license in the use of God's own day. I am not here referring to the teaching of my own clergy. I am convinced from my conversations with many of them that theirs is a different standard in personal practice and in teaching. But I am referring to the instruction given from prominent pulpits in other parts of our own land, which reaches the eye of many everywhere, and encourages them to more non-attendance at Church and laxer Sunday observance than in the past. It is a tainting, demoralizing, unspiritualizing influence, such teaching is pestiferous, and it is eminently disloyal on the part of the men who stand in any pulpit of this Church and proclaim it. For as my Reverend brethren are aware we have a Canon of the whole Church, which clearly defines the duty of all members of this family of God touching the one day in each week, which the Church of Christ in conformity to Apostolic sanction and usage, and in harmony with the life and history of that Church, has set apart in its entirety for the worship and honoring of the holy God.

Let me read that Canon. Its heading runs thus: "Of the due celebration of Sundays." All persons within this Church shall celebrate and keep the Lord's Day, commonly called Sunday, in hearing the Word of God read and taught in private and public prayer, in other exercises of devotion, and in acts of charity, using all godly and sober conversation." This is our Mother, the Church's law, which has stood on her statute book from the beginning for Clergy and Laity alike.

The teaching here is certainly not clouded. It is not admonitory or advisory. It is absolutely mandatory. In all the changes and amendments that have come to the law of the Church in these years of its life that Canon, amid storms and alterations that were numberless, has stood unrelaxed, undimmed, unaltered in a hair's breadth. It is a splendid evidence of the unhesitating voice of our beloved Church in behalf of the Anglo-Saxon, Christian day of worship and in Opposition to the lax and licentious and godless Continental Sabbath. Heaven deliver us as a people from a lost Lord's Day. It shall be only too soon then a lost, dead Nation. Now if this Canon means anything, it implies that the day, the whole day, is for God. That would eliminate golf, tennis, base-ball from the life of Churchmen. Thank God, the advocates of these things in the pulpit are very few, and they are classed, and deserve to be classed, among the eccentrics or the audacities or the traitors of the time. This too shuts the doors of country clubs in their Sunday amusement feature, of liquor saloons, of the card party to our communicants, to our baptized membership. And by them too the Sunday evening sacred concert, whether in Music Hall or Church, the swell dinner party and fashion's Sabbath receptions, will be eschewed. Do these eliminations make a dreary, arid day of Sunday? No man can be honest and say that they do. Is the cheer taken out of life when you come into your Father's house and there join in glad anthems which sound forth the glory of Him who out of His mighty love for you endured a homeless life and a suffering death—all that he might pay the price of your sin? Is the cheer taken out of life when your waking hours are being spent in converse regarding the sweetest things, the purest things, the noblest things, the most beautiful things that the mind of man can grasp? Is the cheer taken out of life when you are going here and there touching sorrow with a gentle sympathy, speaking to the suffering the soothing which is balm, telling the young the great story of a Mediator's love? Is the cheer taken out of life when resting from the fever and din and struggle of week-day life, in the seclusion of home, among the sacred and sweet intercourses of family communion, meeting the calm which the world's contests banish, you are separated from business care and worldly mirth? And this is what this Church means by observance of the Lord's Day. This is what it asks of her children as their service for the Creator, the Redeemer, the Sanctifier of them all. It is no hardship she asks. It is wholesome, logical, recruiting recreation that she urges to the aching body and the strained heart and the wearied mind. Brethren of the Clergy, in your teaching on the theme of the right use of the Lord's Day relax naught from your Mother's doctrine. Urge a consecrated day of worship and peace and family union. Whatever the specious reasoning of newspapers or of would-be-Sabbath-breakers or of pleaders for the working man's relief, hold the Church's standard aloft. That demands all the Lord's Day for the Lord. Remember that whatever our personal opinions, whatever our individual desires, whatever our changes of view, you and I promised in the most solemn and in the holiest hours of our life "to give our faithful diligence always so to minister the Doctrine * * and the discipline of Christ, as the Lord hath commanded, and as this Church hath received the same." There is your Charter, your Commission. There is your standing ground. There is your unchanged, your unalterable vow.

But I have diverged from the topic of diminished Confirmation Classes. Whence the cause, I ask again? Let me speak a practical word. Several of my Reverend Brethren have said to me this and last year. "Bishop, the class I have presented to you consisted entirely of people who voluntarily offered themselves for the Laying-on of Hands. I sought none myself, I feel proud that every one came of his or her own accord." Now, my brothers, let us consider this matter briefly. It is a healthy symptom indeed when in a parish the Holy Ghost has blessed the preaching and ministry of His Ambassador so that the people give heed—or rather some of them do—to the call to go forward in His service. I rejoice tenderly with every brother whose sacred work is thus prospered. But is there an entire fulfilment of obligation when such faithful ones alone are welcomed by their Pastor to his training and to the solemn renewal of vows on Confirmation Day? Is there not a duty to the careless, the halting, the timid, the procrastinators, the doubting, the worldly, the wilful, the defiant, the sinning even? As opportunities come should they not be sought out, wooed, entreated, reasoned with, comforted, warmed, welcomed to—not taskwork, not hardness of service, not a straight jacket of toil—but to honorable duty, to high privilege, to gracious service, to beautiful living, to richest health.

Every time we in the ministry abstain from such personal appeal, such ad hominem counsel and entreaty, are we not derelict of duty? I think so.

I asked the devoted Rector of the Church in which the largest classes in this Diocese are presented for Confirmation every year, the secret of his marvellous success. The reply was, "Bishop, on the day after I present a class I begin to watch out for new candidates. The Church teaches me to seek for Christ's sheep that are dispersed abroad, and for his children that are in the midst of this naughty world that they may be saved through Christ forever." Those two sentences showed the spirit of the man. The ordination vow ever before him. Not the new theology, not Henson's notions of the Church's claims, nor Deletsch's Babylonian discoveries and doubts, nor Cheyne's, nor Driver's last book of criticism, nor Hamack's "Wesen des Christenthums"—not these wasting his time or shaking his faith, but the pastor's duty, the daily, nightly prayer for and care of the flock; this was his sense of obligation. These to be exhorted and taught and wooed and welcomed to their dear Lord's Church and vow of allegiance, whether met by the wayside, clasped by the hand in the home, or addressed from Pulpit or in Confirmation class in the Church. And this, not by obtrusive importunity or out-of-season, zeal or cold, business formality; but with the tingling sympathetic, fatherly interest of a good shepherd who careth for his flock—as the man of God waiting, watching for each moment when the plea for God may be whispered in His children's ears.

I know a group of Clergy who join in a Corporate Communion hebdomally on Mondays, and so gird themselves for the week's responsibilities in the field and work which is a common one to them all. In their Churches, each and all are there annually, the goodly, often abnormal, numbers coming forward to renew baptismal vows and to seek frequent strength in the sacrament of the Altar. Better such observance of the Clergyman's Sabbath than the nervous gossip and conflict of some Clerical gatherings or the strained exploiting of new notions in theology or criticism given through the medium of stilted essays in others.

One of the most brilliant women in this Diocese—one whose peer intellectually and so far as highest accomplishments of every sort go—is rare in the entire country, as I sat by her side at a dinner party, within a couple of years, said to me, "Bishop, I am not a Communicant." I asked the reason. She replied "I have never been invited to become one." Further conversation revealed the fact that her rector had never introduced the topic of her soul and its salvation, in all his many talks with her. Perhaps he took it for granted that to speak on that topic would seem an intrusion or an impertinence to her, and that with her wide intelligence and broad culture it had no place in her life, and so was timid, altho' anxious to win her for the Saviour. I cannot excuse and did not then—her neglect of her duty—nor can I apologize for his either. I believe that many a man and woman in the Church is simply waiting for a Pastor's leading hand and an encouraging voice to go forward to duty. I know that many of the versatile, influential, popular women of the world—gay and light apparently in the social whirl, and self-confident too—yet are awed into silence or timidity in the presence of religion's august realities. The nonchalant and the flippant cowers before these awful sincerities. It is really a psychological study. I, of course, am speaking of religion as presented by and in a holy man. Your clergyman dangling on the edge of the world, your club-frequenting, self-indulgent parson, who ignores clerical costume and shapes himself in dress and manners to the swagger of the smart sets of his community, has no such influence. The world laughs with him and AT him and calls him a good fellow and pats him on the back, and then flings him out as a counterfeit at last. It demands, and it has a right to demand it—not bonhommie and flippant jocoseness and boisterousness, but serious mindedness, gentle manners, sincere character in the priest of God. Even in the corrupt court of Louis XIV. the ecclesiastic was never the court jester.

And so your people, rich or poor, self-contained or most modest, conspicuous among men or lowliest in station, all look to you to lead them on to the confession of Christ, to the Heavenward way. And so let not riches daunt or position silence, or the world check you. Bear your Master's Message unhaltingly and unhesitatingly and unabridgedly to the individual soul. "Speak unto the children of Israel," captain or humblest camp follower, "that they go forward."

CHANGE OF NAME.

It will be remembered doubtless by all present that at the last General Convention certain action was taken bearing upon the subject of altering the legal name of this Branch of the Church. The following Resolution was adopted by both Houses:

"Resolved, That a Joint Committee be appointed, consisting of five Bishops, five Presbyters and five Laymen, to take the whole subject of a change of name of this Church into consideration, to ascertain as far as possible the mind of Church people in general concerning it, and to make report at the next General Convention, with such suggestions as may commend themselves to their judgment."

The Joint Commission was appointed. From it I have received the following Communication:

“Resolved, That the Secretary be directed to communicate to the Secretary of each Diocese and Missionary District a copy of the resolution under which this Committee is acting, coupled with the statement that in pursuance of the direction contained in said resolution ‘to endeavor to ascertain as far as possible the mind of Church people in general concerning the subject of a proposed change of name,’ this Committee, before making any recommendation to the General Convention, asks that, at the next meeting of the Convention or Convocation of each Diocese or Missionary District, said Convention or Convocation be requested to inform this Committee whether it does or does not desire that the name of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States shall be changed at this time, and if it does so desire, what name it wishes substituted therefor.

“Resolved, That each Diocesan or Convocation Secretary be requested to communicate to the Secretary of this Committee prior to October 1st, 1903, any action of his Convention or Convocation upon the subject, together with a statement of the Clerical and Lay vote, separately, upon any definite resolution that may have come before said Convention or Convocation.

“Resolved, That a copy of these Resolutions be sent by the Secretary of this Committee to every Bishop of this Church ”

This procedure on the part of the appointed Committee is unique and unusual. So far as my knowledge of the history of this Church goes it has no precedent. All subjects, as Constitutional or Canonical changes, alterations in the Hymnal, enrichments of the Prayer-Book and the like submitted to the Dioceses for consideration or for action, have come directly from the General Convention itself—in definite form—to be approved or respected by each Diocese respectively. This may seem technical as an objection. But I think it involves much.

And now as to the subject itself, namely—the question of the change of name of the Church. I desire to state at the outset of these remarks that during the year past I have been, times without number, urged to give my views upon the matter. I have been asked in private to express myself by intimate friends, by many of my beloved Clergy, by earnest laymen of the Diocese. I have been urged by interviewers, reporters of daily and weekly journals—ecclesiastical and secular—to give my opinion for public record. All have wooed and not won in the matter. My invariable reply has been that the subject, in its present form, is one presented not for the opinion, action or decision of one or another office or order in the Church, or any person in the General Body, or in a Diocese, separately; but for the consideration and action of each unit in the corporate life of the Church to-day—namely, the Diocese; and the Diocesan action is to be taken only in the regular legal assembly, where all men who are members of the Church have their properly chosen representatives. Hence, I have claimed that I owed it to my brethren of this Council to hold my peace upon the subject until we came together. 'It seemed to me unfair to bring the Episcopal opinion to bear upon this body or upon any of its membership in advance on a subject upon which there is such varying and such honest differences of opinion. Beside all this, I have the full conviction that I would be guilty of a grave breach of courtesy toward my beloved brethren—all the members of this Council—should I allow myself, away from this place and prior to this gathering, to discuss this question, or publicly—or privately, for that matter—to strive to shape public opinion among my flock. The leadership, if it is to be exercised, should manifest itself here only. A Bishop—as well as other men—ought to be a gentleman.

Hence it is, brethren, that you have seen nothing in the newspapers of the views of the Bishop of Western New York on the change of name—as well as on many other current and popular topics.

I have an argument to offer on the subject. It is brief.

The first point I offer for your thought is that the different Conventions of the different Dioceses are asked in an irregular and informal manner to give expression on a subject which comes to them in an unusual way and form. Cui bono? I ask. This Council may take up the matter presented to them and arrive at a formal vote. Then its representatives a year and a half hence will go to Boston for the General Convention which meets there. Shall our deputies at that time be bound and tied to our action now, no matter what changes in sentiment or conditions may arise in the meantime? or what views they may have after hearing debate on the questions at issue there. Is a fair result of the whole Church's conviction obtained by having groups of people here and there discuss a question and then, after each group has reached a conclusion—influenced, probably, by the prejudice or training of the neighborhood—fling their votes into a common pot and announce the winner to be the recipient of the majority of such informal votes? Such decisions as are asked to be made by us should be presented, I think, in an entirely different guise. The initiative in definite action should be in the General Convention. There, where all sections and schools of thought in the Church are supposed to be represented—and that by picked men—the struggle should be made. Those whose ballots give decision should have opportunity to learn all sides. Every argument should be heard by the chosen men whom each Diocese appoints as its representatives. The deputies sent to General Convention are likely to represent the Diocesan sentiment. Decisions having been reached in the Great Council of the Church, then, in my opinion, should the Dioceses be formally and solemnly asked to give their voice in the matter. At the Diocesan Convention, after action has been taken in the greater Council, may, by the returned deputies, be presented all phases of the subject in hand. Then, it seems to me, and not till then, is the time for our action as a Council and as a Diocese. But the Committee—which in my opinion has a very difficult business upon its hands—proposes this action to us. As courtesy to them, I bring the subject before you, but I am free to confess that my conviction is that the General Convention had no intention that the business should take such form when it appointed the Committee and assigned it its duties.

And now as to the subject itself. The readers of the Church papers have been deluged with the matter ad nauseam. Shall we change our name? That is question No. 1. As a general principle the title of any corporation should have the minimum of words that define or characterize its functions. This is a law which governs forcibly in the business world. It is more convenient. It can better describe to the ordinary mind the purpose of the organization. On this basis no man who has read ecclesiastical history fairly, and who grasps the idea of a Church, as presented in Holy Writ, but will confess that the name "Protestant Episcopal" is cumbrous and unnecessary as a description of a branch of the Church of God. Because it is the Church it is ever protesting against error, whether that error be heathen or pseudo-Christian—whether it take the costume of Protestant sectarian defect or of Roman Catholic excess, whether it shew the absurdities of Christian Science, the keen disloyalty of Neo-Anglicanism, or the sentimental sympathy with the mystic cults of the East. Thus on every side the Church, this National Church of which we are Clergymen and Communicants, is Protestant. I am not afraid of that word. I honor it, if you give it its right significance. And I am a Protestant indeed, if you mean by that—which is my meaning in my giving it honor—one who protests against the addition of twelve new articles of faith added to the Catholic Creed by Pope Pius IV. I am a Protestant, too, through and through, if that means one who denies the right of one National Church to claim for its Chief Bishop the supreme authority over all branches of the Catholic Church; if that means one who denies the right of any provincial Council to add to the Creed Apostolic, or that of Nicaea, one scintilla, of a doctrine, one letter to a single word; if that means one who denies the authority of forged decretals in connexion with the canonical system of the Catholic Church; if that means stout objection to any dogma which lifts the blessed Virgin Mother of our Lord to any place in heaven or earth where the Divine Master, or His holy Word, or the Primitive Church, or the Ancient Creeds, did not exalt her: if that means stouter objection to the audacity of one Bishop of a National Church who dares to pronounce ex cathedra that the Holy Orders of Bishops, priests and deacons who received their authority from the same fountain-head—and from the many collateral sources, and handed them on through sixteen centuries—out of which his own came—are null and void. I cannot but pause here to gaze in amazement at that presumptuous man of title in England, who, unauthorized, sought a decision on such a theme from the vanity of a so-called intallible Pontiff—I mean the present President of the English Church Union. In these I am a Protestant, and on such a basis I glory in the name. But standing on such a foundation I must, too, be a Protestant against Protestants—any Protestant body or Protestantism which has broken the unity of the Catholic Church; which has robbed a Christian organization of one—the perpetuating—order of the ministry; which has forced upon men as articles of the faith, what are mere pious opinions or subtleties of philosophy or transcendental conceits; which has eliminated a sacred and Biblical and Apostolic rite from the warp and woof of religious life; which has robbed the holy Sacraments of their miracle-character in its teaching; which minimizes the force and the meaning and the sanctity of that marvellous and yet primarily fundamental doctrine of the Scripture, the Church and the Creed, the very keystone of the religion of Jesus, I mean the Incarnation of the Lord Christ, who, by the power of the Holy Ghost, was born of the Virgin Mary. Thus am I a Protestant. And for this I do not despise the name. It means the "via media," which is "tuta." It means vigorous protest against all uncatholic truth or unapostolic order; it means an arraying of myself in opposition to all false or incomplete teaching, whether it take the shape of Protestant defect or Romish excess.

This, then, is the necessary attitude, the actual condition, of a Church that is a Church. And by a Church I mean a body that clearly possesses the four "notes" of Catholic life—Unity, Sanctity, Catholicity, Apostolicity. A body that holds quod semper, quod ubique, et quod ab omnibus creditum est. Such a Church is, must be, Protestant to the core.

But is such a descriptive adjective necessary to define it, any more than it is essential in announcing a human being you should describe him as a heart-possessing, eye-beaming, active-brained, reasoning creature? It is enough for you to say he is a man. The solitary word describes the character of the being. And so, on such a basis and in such a spirit I call for its brevity, its scripturalness, its sanctity and its truth, the sacred organization to which I belong, the Church. All else—even in view of this divided Christendom and these many bodies of many names—in the way of titles and adjectives are really superfluous.

And now I turn to that other adjective, "Episcopal." Is not episcopacy necessary to the Church's very being—not alone its "bene esse"—as much as sap is needful to a living tree or the sparkle is the adjunct of the cut diamond? I am asking the question, basing it upon not this man's opinion in the Church or that, this school of thoughts theory or that school of thoughts opinion. I am asking it, founding my question upon the teaching you and I find in this Church's formularies and are bound to teach as its loyal priests. But perhaps it will be asked, "Is there no room for that broader view of the ministry and its system of three orders which affectionately and reverently holds its convenience and general advantage and historic hoariness, but denies the Divine authority and the necessity or the fact of an Apostolic succession?" Is it not true of your claim of an unbroken chain of the Episcopate from the Apostles—as I myself heard a clergyman once shout out with great eclat from the pulpit—"The chief difficulty with that chain is that it is weakest near the staple?" He thought he had uttered a wonderful truth and exploited a keen witticism, and he paused as if for applause. He was one of those forlorn preachers who desecrate the pulpit by their wicked and their silly attempts to be funny there. Heaven deliver us from all such defilers of God's holy sanctuary. But is there room for such so-called broader view of Episcopacy in the Church? I reply no! Why? You and I pledged ourselves at ordination "Always so to minister the doctrine, the sacraments and the discipline of Christ as the Lord hath commanded and as this Church hath received the same." There is no shadow of doubt as to how this Church stands on the doctrine of Holy Orders. Witness the preface to the Ordinal:

"It is evident unto all men diligently reading Holy Scripture and ancient authors, that from the Apostles' time there have been these Orders of Ministers in Christ's Church—Bishops, Priests and Deacons—which offices were evermore had in such reverend estimation, that no man might presume to execute any of them, except he were first called, tried, examined and known to have such qualities as are requisite for the same; and also by public Prayer with Imposition of Hands were approved and admitted thereto by lawful Authority. And, therefore, to the intent that these Orders may be continued, and reverently used and esteemed in this Church, no man shall be accounted or taken to be a lawful Bishop, Priest or Deacon in this Church, or suffered to execute any of the said Functions, except he be called, tried, examined and admitted thereunto, according to the Form hereafter following, or hath had Episcopal Consecration or Ordination."

What on earth can be more definite than that?

Again this Church, when a minister of any denomination of Christians desires to serve at its altars requires the Bishop to ordain him. This is the demand of its Canon-law. The statute recognizes, by special enactment for such cases, the qualifications in a literary or theological way of which the man may be possessed, by shortening the time of his preparation, but there is no admission that any of the specific functions inhering in the sacred ministry are his. The Church does not acknowledge it as reordination. She claims by her practice that his action must be, "de novo." This is the Church's claim and the Church's position. Is she then presumptuous in assuming such an attitude? I trow not. For in so doing she challenges an appeal to the only authority in such matters, viz.: Holy Scripture and ancient authors and the whole practice of the Catholic Church in every clime and amid every people from the day that Jesus Christ our Holy Redeemer walked the earth. Hence, then, again the adjective "Episcopal" as applied to the Church is superfluous and redundant. And now we are brought fairly in front of the question which has prompted these words of your Bishop. Shall we change the Church's name? Is it expedient? Is it necessary? What benefit will accrue to the world or the Christian cause thereby? Will many—or any—outside our borders be drawn within the fold? Will Christian unity be advanced thereby? Will clear knowledge of the Faith result to those who have obscure views of that once delivered to the saints? That an affirmative will be the answer to one or more of these questions, it seems to me is necessary clearly to prove before the answer made to the main question should be affirmative. Of course, as to the reply to some of these queries there will be differences of opinion. But it is my firm conviction that there ought to be indisputable evidence that some such outcome as I have hinted at shall be the sure and inevitable result of such action before the voice of the Church should answer aye to the question. To change a name for the mere sake of change when it is not a clear misnomer, I opine, is a childish proceeding. And especially if it be a name of honor, allegiance to which has called out enthusiasm and loyal love and service from hosts of the learned and the good through generations, will it not be unseemly and unwise to make the proposed alteration?

I have perused article after article in our wise newspapers, treating the subject from every possible viewpoint, and I fail absolutely to find one argument proving with an absolute certainty that any present (or remote) good is coming to this branch of the Church by such a course.

And this being the case, I am constrained to enquire, on the other hand, as to the possibilities of harm working through such a proceeding on our part were it carried out in the early future. It would involve changes in the Prayer Book and Canons, with the interminable discussion in General Convention and Diocesan Conventions, and the more intolerable heat in argument of the newspapers. Already a spirit other than brotherly love is manifest in the latter from week to week. Then would come the transfer of the subject from the General Church to the Diocese, and then the too certain ferment in parishes—all the confusion and fire and dust and sound that characterized Prayer Book revision, with even more multiplied, intemperate and intensified excitement and rancor. From such a condition may we be delivered, is my earnest prayer.

But, again, as chief Pastor here, it is impossible for me to divest myself of concern for the many souls that would be wounded all over this land by changes in our name such as those suggested by the advocates of this measure. That there would be the drifting away of hosts from our borders I truly believe. Is it worth the while to run such a risk for the mere sake of a correction or readjustment in a title? "What's in a name?" we may well ask, if such dire results shall be the consequence of such action! Finally, there is a truth, which we cannot gainsay, whatever the indifference of some reasoners to the fact. It is a truth, men learned in the law affirm, that such action may imperil many a title deed of this Church. There are possible legal complications that have a very serious side to them. And if a change of name that brings no spiritual advantage, that stirs no enthusiasm for church extension, that wounds the souls of myriads of God's elect, shall also cause bitter litigation and fill the courts of law with numberless trials, which shall array brother against brother, and flock against flock, through passing years, then I say, away with it all. Rather my cry shall be “Ó, ever pray for Salem's peace,

For they shall prosp'rous be—
Thou holy city of our God—
Who bear true love to thee.

“May peace within thy sacred walls
A constant guest be found ;
With plenty and prosperity
Thy palaces be crowned.”

So I present my personal views. The argument I offer for what it is worth. I have said naught regarding a specific new name for our Mother. If a change be needless, and be unfitting now, then why worry concerning any new title as yet? I leave the matter in your hands. In this and in other concerns that shall be our care, may God the Holy Ghost give us constant guidance and an unfailing holy wisdom.

January 12, 1903.

The following minute was proposed on the death of Mr. W. H. Walker, and, on motion, was adopted, with direction to be printed in "The Churchman," "The Church Standard," "The Living Church," and sent to the family of the deceased.

MINUTE ADOPTED ON THE DEATH OF MR. WM. H. WALKER,

By the Standing Committee of the Diocese of Western New York on the 12th day of January, A. D., 1903 :

The members of the Standing Committee of the Diocese of Western New York solemnly bear testimony to the great loss sustained by the Diocese and by the entire church in the death of their late associate, Mr. William H. Walker.

Mr. Walker became a member of the Standing Committee in the year 1866, almost at the time of the organization of the present Diocese, and continued in that position by re-election from year to year until he passed from earth to Paradise on Sunday, the fourth day of January, A. D., 1903. This brief statement of fact is conclusive evidence of the high esteem in which he was held by the churchmen of the Diocese. We believe this record is almost without parallel in the history of the church, surely without parallel in the history of our Diocese.

Not alone as member of the Standing Committee did he serve the church. He was one of the Trustees of the De Lancey Divinity School, a member of the Board of Education, Chairman of the Financial Board and Trustee of the Episcopate Fund when he died. He had also served as President of the Church Charity Foundation, and had represented the Diocese in the General Convention of the Church.

We knew him best as a member of the Standing Committee, the duties of which he performed faithfully and well. He did his full share of the work which devolved upon the committee. We found him a safe counsellor and guide. He combined progressiveness and conservatism in a most sagacious way. Urbane in his manners and gentle in his judgment of others, he was more than a pleasing associate—he was a dear friend.

Venerable in age, he nevertheless continued to participate in the activities of life until the end, and his seventy-seven years were fruitful years in the many public and charitable works in which he took a prominent part.

Although at the head of large business industries, he was able to, and did, give largely of his time and means to the promotion of the material and spiritual interests of the church to which he was devoted.

We commend his example of good living and good works to the men of the church and the men of the world as worthy of their imitation.

By his death we are deprived of his rich experience, his ripe judgment, his courteous manners and friendly interest, and to perpetuate our evidence thereof and our sense of bereavement over our loss and our deep respect to his memory, we direct that this minute be appropriately entered upon our records and a copy thereof transmitted by the secretary to the family of our late associate and that the same be published.

Mr. Nathaniel Rochester was unanimously nominated to the Bishop as a member of the committee to take the place of the late William H. Walker.

March 3, 1903.

The Bishop conveyed his approval of Mr. Rochester as a member of the committee.

Rev. William H. Goss, Deacon, was recommended for Priest's orders.

The committee ordered the payment of $46.41 for printing and engrossing resolutions on the death of William H. Walker. Also, for expenses of Registrar, $2 00.

The Secretary was directed to have blanks printed for the testimonials of the Standing Committee.

April 28, 1903.

By request of the Bishop, and with the necessary two-thirds vote, the time of the Diaconate of the Rev. Stephen F. Sherman, Jr., was shortened to eight months.

The Rev. Stephen F. Sherman, Jr., Deacon, was recommended for Priest's orders.

Consent was given to the transfer of the property of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Buffalo, from William P. Northrup, as survivor of James M. Smith, James N. Matthews, William P. Northrup, joint tenants, to the Church of the Good Shepherd, Buffalo, and the same was duly acknowledged.

The report of the Trustees of De Veaux College was received, and also the report of a sub-committee on the same, which was on motion accepted and directed to be presented to the Council as the report of the Standing Committee.

The undersigned, to whom was referred the report of the trustees of De Veaux College for orphan and destitute children, for the year ending December 31, 1902, as a special committee to examine and report upon the same, hereby respectfully reports that he has examined said report and has found it to be in conformity with the requirements of the "Act to Incorporate De Veaux College for Orphan and Destitute Children," as amended, and recommends that the same be approved. He notices with pleasure an increase in the amount of the Endowment Fund of over $49,000, mainly from the sale of land.

HENRY B. HATHAWAY.

Rochester, April 25, 1903.

The bill of Turner & Porter, for printing circulars for the Bishop, amounting to nine dollars and thirty-two cents, was ordered to be paid.

All which is respectfully submitted,

WALTER NORTH,

(B.) REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

To the Sixty-Sixth Annual Council of the Diocese of Western New York :

The Board of Education herewith reports its official acts for the Diocesan year 1902-1903.

September 9, 1902.

The Board met and organized by the election of the Rt. Rev. W. D. Walker, D. D., LL. D., as President, the Rev. Walter North, as Secretary.

The report of the annual examinations of the students of the De Lancey Divinity School was received and read.

The Secretary was authorized to sign the bond of James P. Mellen, Treasurer.

The lecturers of the past year were renominated for the ensuing year.

Biblical Learning.—Rev. G. G. Ballard, M. A.

Ecclesiastical History.—Rev. T. B. Berry, M. A.

Ecclesiastical Polity and Canon Law.—Rev. L. B. Van Dyck, D. D.

Dogmatic Theology.—Rev. Walter C. Roberts, M. A.

Ethics and Evidences.—Rev. W. F. Faber, M. A.

Liturgics.—Rev. C. H. Boynton, Ph. D.

The recommendations of the Warden and lecturers contained in their report herewith submitted were made a special meeting of the Board, and the Bishop was requested to call such a meeting.

Necessary bills were ordered to be paid.

From the report :

“The experience of the past two years has satisfied us of the practical efficiency of the plan of education as a whole. It has also brought to view some difficulties which we wish to lay before the Board.

“1. The want of sufficient supervision of the students in the long intervals between the lectures, the students being at present ‘non-resident,’ as regards the Warden and lecturers.

“To meet this, we suggest :

“(a) That the lectures be monthly instead of bi-monthly.

“(b) That the Warden give some personal supervision to all the students, at least once each month between the lectures, either by visiting them or bringing them together for a day, as may be practicable, with the assistance of one of the lecturers, if needed, in the case of non-residence of students.

“The slight additional expense of this change will be much less, in our judgment, than the advantage gained by it, for the sake of which the lecturers will gladly give the additional time and work required.

"2. The want of sufficient classification of the students who are candidates for Priest's orders. They should give their time and attention each year chiefly to the studies leading to the Canonical examination for that year, and to other studies only so far as they may extend beyond one year. This is provided for to some extent by the course of study, as now arranged, and only needs a corresponding adjustment of the lectures and examinations.

"3. The want of any definite relation between the Canonical and the school examinations; e. g., the students have, in some instances, been admitted to the Canonical examinations and to Priest's orders, and given up their work in the school long before it was finished.

"We recommend that every student of the school, applying for any examination for Priest's orders, be certified as having passed the corresponding school examination."

Certain amounts were voted for the assistance of students in the General Seminary.

January 7, 1903.

A communication was received from the Bishop relative to a change in the plan of increasing the usefulness of the De Lancey Divinity School, and the Rev. Dr. Smith was appointed a committee of conference.

Appropriations were made.

March 3, 1903.

The Board took up the Report of the Warden and lecturers of the Divinity School.

The report of the Warden and lecturers of the Divinity School, dated May 26, 1902, was read.

Section 1, (a), which provided for lectures being monthly instead of bi-monthly was deemed inexpedient.

Section 1, (b), which provided for supervision of students by visitation or by bringing them together was left to the Bishop and Warden.

Section 2 was read, and, on motion, Section 6, paragraph 3, of the "Plan for Increasing the Usefulness of the De Lancey Divinity School," was made to read

"The course of study, text-books, classification of students, shall be prepared by the Warden in consultation with the lecturers, and submitted for the approval of the Bishop and Board of Education."

Section 3 was adopted, "providing that every student of the school applying for any examination for Priest's orders shall be certified as having passed the corresponding school examination, and that the three years' course of study be made as full and complete as that of our Theological Seminaries, that two years' work, in addition to what has been done thus far, be required of all the students now in the school."

The Secretary announced the acceptance of the lectureship of "Old Testament Literature and Interpretation," by the Rev. G. G. Ballard, M. A.

"New Testament Literature and Interpretation," by the Rev. Edward M. Duff, M. A.

"Ethics and Evidences," by the Rev. John B. Hubbs, D. D., D. C. L.

Provision was made for the loan of duplicates and text books to students, the publication of a catalogue of the library, that the books might be loaned to any of the clergy, and that the Secretary might be authorized to make the necessary advances for books and expenses of lectures, on the requisition of the Warden.

April 28, 1903.

The report of the Secretary of the actions of the Board was read, and directed to be presented to the Council as the report of the Board of Education.

All which is respectfully submitted.

WALTER NORTH,
Secretary.

The Board of Trustees of the De Lancey Divinity School herewith submits its annual report.

May 21, 1902.

The Board met and organized by the election of the Rt. Rev. W. D. Walker, D. D., LL. D., President; the Rev. Walter North, L. H. D., Secretary.

No special business was transacted by the Board.

WALTER NORTH,
Secretary.

To the Board of Education of the Diocese of Western New York:

The Warden of the De Lancey Divinity School respectfully reports that the four courses of lectures for the past year were given at the Guild Rooms of Trinity Church, Buffalo, in October, December, February and April, and attended by all the students who are candidates for Priest's orders, viz: The Rev. Messrs. George G. Ballard, Jr., Henry G. Buisch, Jr., William L. Davis, George Huntington, and George W. Hurlbut, Deacons. The annual examination was held at the Parish House of Trinity Church, Geneva, in the last week of May, as has been fully reported to the Board.

Mr. Louis H. Buisch, who was for some time in the preparatory course of the School, entered the General Theological Seminary in October.

To the Library have been added 332 volumes, of which 143, mostly text books and books for lecturers, were bought at a cost of $139 83, and 189 were gifts, including a set of the Spirit of Missions from 1836, from Hobart College Library and other sources, through the kindness of Mrs. P. Norborne Nicholas, President of the W. N. Y. Woman's Auxiliary. The Library has also acquired by gift a complete file of the Journals of the Diocese, and of the General Convention, 32 bound volumes. It now contains 1,999 volumes, including 429 duplicates, most of which are in use by the students.

There has been expended for Lectures and Examinations $245.16 for printing the Catalogue of the School, $26.00 for miscellaneous expenses aside from books, $35 92, in all $306.98, which has been reported in detail to the Board each quarter.

CHARLES WELLS HAYES,

Warden.

Geneva, May 1, 1903.

The Warden has received during the year from the income of the Swift Book Fund, $50.00, which has been expended in part, in accordance with the terms of the endowment, for books and Library work, as stated in the quarterly account of this date.

(C.) REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF DE VEAUX COLLEGE FOR ORPHAN AND DESTITUTE CHILDREN FOR YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 31, 1902.

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., January 15, 1903.

To the Bishop and Standing Committee of the Diocese of Western New York:

Pursuant to the terms of the charter of this institution, the Trustees respectfully submit herewith their report for the year ended December 31, 1902.

The total number of boys received on the foundation during the year 1902 was 33; the greatest number present in attendance at any one time was 25; the least number present in attendance at any one time was 22; and the average number in attendance throughout the year was 23.4.

The course of training and education remains the same as printed in full in the De Veaux Register 1898-9. It is the course of study recommended by the Regents of the University of the State of New York, and is the same as that commonly followed in the public high schools and in the upper grades of the grammar schools of this State.

Schedule A, hereunto annexed, is a statement of the Endowment Fund of the College, showing all payments made upon loans during the year, and also moneys invested in new loans made during the same period. It will be seen that the Endowment Fund has been increased during the past year by various amounts aggregating $49,089.90, of which amount $41,069.50 is represented by sales of lands made during the year, authorized by the Board of Trustees. The fund has been increased by the payment upon an old judgment of $10.00, and by recommendation of Messrs. Henry Cornell, Meech & Co., certified public accountants, who made the examination of the Treasurer's books for the calendar year 1901, the Strickland Fund and the Reed Military Medal Fund, which heretofore had been carried as separate accounts and did not appear in the Endowment Fund of the College, have been placed upon the general account books of the College as assets of the Endowment Fund.

By authority of the Trustees, there has been charged to the Endowment Fund during the year, and is now held as real estate, the property heretofore represented by loan, No 532, W. S. Lehon, to which property the College now has title, having taken the deed to save the cost of foreclosure. This has resulted in a deduction from the Endowment Fund of $2,051.97, leaving the net increase to the Endowment Fund during the year $47,037.93.

Schedule B, hereunto annexed, shows the receipts and disbursements for the year from the income of the College. While it has been necessary to borrow $2,000.00, as shown in this statement, in order to provide for the running expenses of the College, there was a cash balance of income on hand on December 31, 1902, of $354.38, and there was due interest and rents amounting to $1,761.49, none of which were in dispute, and all of which will be paid in the near future. There are no outstanding bills, and the expenses of the College, therefore, have been kept within the income proper for the year.

Schedule C, hereunto annexed, gives a trial balance of the books of the College at December 31, 1902, with certificates of the various banks in which the funds of the College are deposited, verifying the cash upon deposit to the credit of the Corporation on that date.

Schedule D, hereunto annexed, is a detailed statement of the invested funds of the Strickland Fund.

Schedule E, hereunto annexed, is a statement of the General Endowment Fund investments in bonds and mortgages.

Schedule F, hereunto annexed, is a statement of the funds of the General Endowment Fund invested in land contracts.

Schedule G, hereunto annexed, is a statement of the real estate owned by the Corporation other than that designated as the domain of the College, which is shown as an asset in the balance sheet (Schedule C).

During the year there have been held seven meetings of the Board of Trustees at which meetings the attendance of the Trustees has been as follows :

(D.) DIOCESAN MISSIONS.

(2.) REPORT OF THE ARCHDEACON OF ROCHESTER.

MAY, 1903.

In presenting this, my Eighth Annual Report, I take pleasure in declaring a continuance of extensive enterprise, crowned with an encouraging share of progress.

There have been seventeen ministers working under stipend from the Board of Missions, assisted by a willing (though insufficient) group of lay-readers. They have held some twenty-six hundred services, in thirty-seven places. Six other brethren have been doing similar missionary work, without remuneration from the Board, in seven places.

So far as the result of these labors is expressible in bare figures, they are on record in the tabulated statistics to be printed elsewhere. Personally, it has been my privilege to officiate as follows :

Morning Prayer.....	67 times	Sunday Schools	43
Evening Prayer.....	126 times	Marriages	3
Litany.....	20 times	Burials.....	11
Holy Com. (publicly). 62 times		Sermons	178
Holy Com. (privately). 5 times		Addresses.....	53
Baptisms, 11 adults and 18 infants.....			29
Confirmations, 29 in 5 Classes.

Financially, the year's record has been truly remarkable. A larger spirit of interested liberality has been manifested by the missions themselves, as well as by the parishes generally. S. Peter's, East Bloomfield, has maintained its resident pastor, and disbursed a total of $2 600.00, as in comparison with but $260.00 in previous years. Grace Church, Dundee, has been cleared of all indebtedness by the gift of $3 248 00 from Mr. Geo. Lord, and has received $125.00 from Miss Harris, for a bell. S. Stephen's, Wolcott, has a minister in charge for the first time ; has purchased an excellent lot, and has subscribed considerable towards a new church. And in other missions a proportionate development of the habit of giving is to be noted.

At the same time an unusual increase has been secured in the receipts for the treasury of the Board. We have for the first time in our experience attained to several longed-for goals. (a.) The Sunday School Advent offerings bespoken in behalf of the Wolcott Church have passed the $500 00 mark. (b.) The total receipts have reached and exceeded the sum of $5,000.00, and (c.) All obligations to date have been paid, and there is a balance in hand nearly sufficient to meet the next quarterly stipends, so that we have apparently done with the necessity of negotiating loans.

There have been $4,058.45 expended, while the income has been as follows :

Balance, May, 1902.....	$ 454.34
For Deaf Mutes.....	351.32
From the Bishop's Special Offerings....	290.00
From Sunday School Advent Boxes.....	528.04
From the Permanent Fund.....	1,003 86
From Quarterly Offerings	2,895.03
Total.....	$5,522.59

Our grateful appreciation is extended to all who have contributed to these welcome results ; and our humble thanksgivings arise to the Great Head of the Church.

Respectfully submitted,

LOUIS C. WASHBURN.

Annexed to this report is a tabular statement showing the particulars of the mortgages held.

The interest on all the mortgages held by the Fund, which is due at the time of this report, has been paid, with the exception of the interest on the Vandenberg mortgage of $200. This mortgage covers premises in the county of Oswego, and was originally for $800. The last time the interest was paid was April 20, 1901, when the accumulated interest was paid. Repeated efforts to collect the interest now due have failed up to the present time. A foreclosure of this mortgage should be avoided, if possible, owing to the comparatively insignificant amount of the principal unpaid.

Of the uninvested funds, applications for loans amounting to $4,200 at five per cent. have been favorably passed upon, and that amount will shortly be carried as bonds and mortgages.

The real estate is carried for what it cost to buy it in on foreclosure. There have been no changes in respect to it since the date of our report for 1901, and what was said in that report is applicable at the present time.

An offer of $1,050 for seven vacant lots on Lark Street, in Buffalo, has been recently made and accepted, and it is expected that a sale at that figure will shortly be consummated. It is doubtful if the remainder of the Buffalo property will bring the amount at which it is carried.

The receipts of income during the past year have been as follows :

Cash on hand May 20, 1902.....	$ 64.91
From Treasurer of Diocese.....	3,461.55
Interest on investments of permanent funds, rents, etc	2,155.34
	—————	$ 5,681.80

The disbursements have been as follows :

Bishop's salary.....	$4,999.99
Taxes, insurance and assessments on See House.	374.59
Other taxes and expenses connected with real estate	113.25
Treasurer's expenses for bond, etc.....	25.20
Cash on hand.....	168.77
	—————	$ 5,681.80

As compared with last year, the receipts show a loss of $205.30 in the offerings from the parishes received through the Treasurer of the Diocese, and a gain of $116 34 in the income from the invested funds, making a net loss of $88.96. While the income for the year has been sufficient to pay all the obligations of the year, we have not been able to make up anything on the arrears in the salary of the Bishop as we did last year.

The only existing and unpaid liability of the fund is the Bishop's salary for February, March and April, amounting to $1,250.

As against this, we have an asset in interest on the principal fund, earned but not due, of about $650, and cash on hand $168.77, which makes a deficit of $431.23 as compared with $700, May 1, 1902.

ELBRIDGE L. ADAMS,

(2.) REPORT OF THE TREASURER.

Rt. Rev. Wm D. Walker, D. D.:

RT. REV. AND DEAR SIR—I herewith submit my report as Treasurer of the Board of Trustees of the Parochial Fund for the year ending May 1, 1903.

There have been since the last report the following changes in the Fund:

There has been one piece of land sold for more than our mortgage by.....	$150 00
There has been capitalized from the income of the Stanley fund	400.00
	<hr/> $ 550.00
Two pieces of land have been sold for less than our mortgages by	$1,300.00
Reducing the principal.....	$ 750.00

These lands were unproductive, and the taxes upon them heavy, so that the Trustees thought it better to sell, even at this reduction, than to hold them and continue to pay taxes, as there seemed no prospect of their increasing in value.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

The Standing Committee on Non-Reporting Clergy and Parishes made the following

REPORT:

Your Committee begs leave to report that the list of non-reporting parishes has been read in the course of the Bishop's address at the session of Tuesday evening, May 17. In view of this fact, your Committee deems it unnecessary to incorporate this list in the report, but would refer the Council to the page in the Journal of 1904-5, upon which the above-named list in the Bishop's address appears.

Your Committee takes pleasure in stating that ten missions in the arch-deaconry of Buffalo which have not reported for some years past have sent in reports this year.

The Rector of Dunkirk affirms that he prepared a report for his parish last year, and that this report was lost in transit.

W. W. RAFTER,

On motion, the report was received.

The Standing Committee on Constitution and Canons made the following

REPORT:

The Committee, to whom was referred the proposed Amendment to Canon Six, Title I, beg leave to report the following resolution:

Resolved, That the following amendments be hereby made to § I, Canon Six of Title I:

(1) To title reading "of Diocesan Expenses" (p. 23 of copy of "Constitution and Canons"), add "and the method of assessment."

(2) In line 2 of Canon, p. 23 in § I, for "an" read "a single."

(3) In line 2 of p. 24 following comma after the word "council," insert the following: "And to meet probable deficiencies in the income of the Episcopate Fund."

(4) In line 8 of p. 24 after the period following the word "journals," insert the following: "Such assessment shall be made according to the following method of determining the amount against each parish:"

(i) First. To obtain the particular basis of assessment for each parish, of the first thousand dollars, or any part thereof, of its current expenses, there shall be taken four per cent.; of the second thousand, four and one-half per cent.; of the third thousand, five per cent.; of the fourth thousand, five and one-half per cent.; of the fifth thousand, six per cent.; of the sixth thousand, six and one-half per cent.; of the seventh thousand, seven per cent.; of the eighth thousand, seven and one-half per cent.; of the ninth thousand, and of the whole amount above eight thousand dollars, eight per cent.

(ii) Second. The sum of the results thus obtained for each parish shall be the general basis upon which its assessment shall be reckoned.

(iii) Third. The formula for determining the exact amount of assessment that shall lie against each parish shall be the final rate per cent. of its particular basis, the final rate being the percentage which the total expense to be met (estimated by the Standing Committee) is of the general basis.

The Standing Committee on State Legislation reported on the resolution offered by Mr. W. B. Rankine, relating to the income of De Veaux College, and recommended its passage.

On motion, the report was received and the resolution adopted.

The Standing Committee on the Report of the Trustees of De Veaux College made the following

REPORT:

The Committee, to which was referred the Annual Report of the Trustees of De Veaux College, has carefully examined the report with its exhibits and certificates, and finds it most complete and satisfactory, and duly complying with the requirements of the Act of Incorporation of the Institution, except in one small particular: the report does not give, as the law requires, the ages of the pupils attending the College. The Committee recommends that the report be referred back to the Trustees of De Veaux College to be corrected by them before permanently filed.

Respectfully submitted,

G. SHERMAN BURROWS,
CHAS. D. VAIL.

On motion, the report was received and the recommendation contained therein adopted.

The Standing Committee on Archives and Annals made the following

REPORT:

The Committee on Archives and Annals reports as follows:

The Registrar states that the files in the Archives' Room are in due order; that of the $100.00 appropriated last year by the Council for binding Journals, between $60.00 and $70.00, have been used for binding 96 volumes of the Journals of the various dioceses, the unexpended balance being in the hands of the Rev. Dr. North.

The Registrar has great difficulty in getting complete files of the Journals of other dioceses, they being sent for the most part to the Bishop and to the Secretary of the Council.

We have no more copies of the Constitution and Canons, edition of 1896, and no more Journals of the Council of 1903.

The Registrar asks that, in addition to the unexpended balance of last year, $50.00 be appropriated this year for binding.

An unusual number of calls have been made for complete sets of the Journals of Western New York; but the file of these Journals, while there are many duplicates, is not now complete. The requests have been complied with as far as possible.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

JAMES ROY,
Chairman.

On motion, the report was received and the sum of $50.00 was appropriated for binding Journals for the coming year.

The Secretary of the Committee on General Missions and Apportionment in Western New York made the following

REPORT:

In compliance with the recommendation of the Diocesan Committee on General Missions and Apportionment in Western New York, the Secretary of that Committee would present to this Council the following report:

The Committee met at the See House, by appointment of the Bishop, on Thursday, November 5, 1903. The matter of the Apportionment of our Diocese for this year (Sept. 1, 1903—Sept. 1, 1904) of $17,600 by the Board of Missions was at once taken up. It was found to be an increase over last year of $2,800, and over that of the year 1901-02, upon which our rate of apportioning the parishes has been based these three years, of $4,815.68, or nearly 34 per cent. increase. To raise the first (1901-02) year's apportionment of $12,784.32 your Apportionment Committee apportioned on each parish and mission 8 per cent. on the item of "Salaries and Expenses," which rate has been maintained without change ever since. From the fact that of the $14,800 apportioned to us last year the Diocese only raised $6,333.50, or less than one-half. The Committee, after full discussion, decided that it would be better not to raise the rate of apportionment, but rather to strive to more nearly attain the amount already set.

Mr. John W. Wood, Corresponding Secretary to the Board of Missions has kindly sent me a report to May 1. The total receipts to May 1, 1904, are $4,876.90, an increase of $594.64 over last year at the same date.

Mr. Wood writes: "I am glad to see that the amount so far received is about $600 ahead of last year, even though the outlook is that the Diocese will come very far short of giving the full amount suggested. For anything you can do to bring home to the individual clergy the importance of giving their people an opportunity to help forward the support of missions at home and abroad, we shall be grateful. I am sure that if more of them realized the matter as something in which they had a personal concern, and if they understood more the real and practical nature of the work that is being done, they would be the more ready to respond."

There are, according to the Board's report :

Total parishes and missions in Diocese.....	138

" " which have not contributed.....	61

The following parishes and missions have paid their apportionment in full, or exceeded it to May 1, 1904:

Of these, of which we can well say "well done" of all, Grace Church, Buffalo, the Rev. John C. Ward, Rector, deserves especial mention. Grace Church is not classed among the so-called rich parishes of the Diocese, and we were surprised to find in the Board's report for January that within the first three months Grace had more than paid its apportionment for the year. We wrote the rector for information and learned that all the secret there was to it was, that the rector set at it conscientiously and methodically as a recognized duty which a priest owes to his parish and to the Church. Mr. Ward's letter is of such general interest that we take the liberty to quote in part, as follows :

"I take pleasure in saying that the bulk of our apportionment came from a strictly parish offering, which amounted to $124. In this sum the largest single offering was $25. There was no other near this size. Most of the offerings were of less than one dollar.

"We went at the offering in this way : First, we gave notice of the matter for two Sundays in Church. Early in the week before the Sunday fixed upon (Nov. 22), we sent to every family or person connected with the parish an envelope (addressed by the ladies and delivered by the boys of the Cadet Corps) containing envelopes and leaflets furnished by the Board of Missions, also a special letter of appeal to the parish explaining the object of the offering. On the Sunday fixed two missionary sermons were preached and the offering taken."

Another parish deserving mention is S. Luke's, Brockport, Rev. J. S. Littell, Rector. It represents another type of missionary parish to the above. In response to a letter of inquiry, Mr. Littell writes: "I would say our apportionment was paid by generous people here who have always done a great deal for missions. It was an old habit, no method of mine, and I deserve not the least credit in any way for this happy result."

Here we have a parish where the people of wealth give substantial gifts for the Missionary Work of the Church, keeping up the traditions of former generations ; where devout Church people of wealth give generously according to their ability to the cause of Missions as a most important part of their religious life—a tradition, alas ! falling too much, we fear, into abeyance.

Grace Church, Lockport, has the honor of most largely exceeding its apportionment this year of any parish in the Diocese. It was apportioned $293.76 ; it is credited by the Board with $371, being $77.24 in excess, while All Saints' Chapel, Lockport, gave nearly twice the amount of its apportionment. It was apportioned $30.16 ; it is credited with $51.31.

We now turn to a less pleasing part of our report, that of the parishes not contributing for the apportionment. It would not be just to read the entire list of those parishes which have not yet made a contribution this year. For since there is yet four months remaining of the year, they are entitled to this margin before being classed as non-contributing parishes. But as this report covers in a general way the past three years, we find, on comparing the Board of Missions report for last year (1902-03) with the report for the eight months of this year, that of the 61 parishes and missions which have thus far given nothing for General Missions this year, 41 gave nothing at all last year. It looks very much as though, with some of the clergy, the matter of entirely ignoring the cause of missions is a habit.

We give a list of those parishes whose apportionment is $50 and upwards, which gave nothing for missions last year and nothing so far this year, 17 in number :

Angelica, S. Paul's.....	Apportionment, $	72 00
Avon, Zion.....	"	86 00
Buffalo, All Saints'	"	115 73
" S. Andrew's	"	124 45
" S. Philip's.....	"	51 54
" S. Thomas'	"	103 24
Clyde, S. John's.....	"	68 00
Cuba, Christ.....	"	86 65
East Aurora, S. Matthias'	"	52 63
East Bloomfield, S. Peter's.....	"	70 96
Fredonia, Trinity.....	"	144 00
Lyons, Grace.....	"	128 00
Mayville, S. Paul's.....	"	72 00
Middleport, Trinity.....	"	78 48
Newark, S. Mark's.....	"	114 32
Rochester, Ascension	"	63 52
Wellsville, S. John's.....	"	56 00

Were we to add the names of those parishes which have given mere nominal amounts as compared with the amount of their apportionments, the list would be considerably lengthened.

That there is fault somewhere goes without saying. It is the mind of the entire Committee that in those cases where not one cent is credited to a parish or mission the responsibility lies at the door of the clergy in charge. They are guilty of a plain neglect of duty. The Canons of the Church and the Diocese make it their duty to give their congregations opportunity to give for the support of Missions. So long as they neglect to give the opportunity, the responsibility is theirs.

In concluding, the problem of the Diocese is patent. It is not whether the rate of apportionment should be increased from 8 to 12 per cent. That would be very easy, and soon done. The Board is not especially concerned about the rate of our apportionment, but it is much interested in, and we should be most deeply concerned about, the amount of our giving. Last year the Committee apportioned the parishes and missions 8 per cent. on "Salaries and Expenses;" they gave about 4 per cent.

Our problem is :

1. How to arouse the clergy of about one-third of the parishes and missions of the Diocese to a sense of their duty in this matter who are now ignoring it.

2. How to increase the spirit of giving in those congregations, now contributing, but not yet according to their ability.

To this end, we would again commend the two recommendations urged by the Committee in their last circular letter :

1. That every Parish and Mission in our Diocese make an earnest effort to meet its apportionment.

2. That each clergyman adopt a plan by which a personal appeal shall be made to each member of his congregation.

Respectfully submitted,

EDWIN S. HOFFMAN,
Secretary.

On motion, the report was received as amended.

The hour of noon having arrived, a recess was taken and prayers for Missions were made.

The business of the Council was then resumed.

On motion, the following resolution, offered by the Rev. Dr. Washburn, was adopted :

Resolved, That the report of the Committee on General Missions be received and ordered printed in the Journal, and that the resolutions incorporated in the report be adopted; furthermore be it resolved that the Council thanks the Committee for its helpful work in furthering the fundamental duty of the extension of the Kingdom throughout the world ; and particularly for getting the list of apportionments into the hands of the rectors at an earlier date than in the previous year ; and that the Committee be instructed to aid the movement yet more in the ensuing year by announcing the list of apportionments on or before the 15th day of November.

The Tellers made a report of the first ballot for the election of officers.

On motion a recount of the ballots was ordered.

The Council then took a recess.

REPORT:

The Committee has examined the reports of the two Archdeacons, that of Rochester being in the form of a complete illustrated pamphlet covering 32 pages, which is recommended to the careful reading of all the Clergy and Laity. The Buffalo report is a brief resumé of work done during the year, and with the recapitulation in the closing page of the Rochester report, should be read to the Council.

Commendation of the work performed and the flourishing condition of both fields is made.

The Committee approves the report of the Board of Education and recommends that the above reports be printed in the Journal.

W. C. ROBERTS,
Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Sunday Schools made the following

REPORT:

Your Committee begs leave to report that everywhere signs of increasing interest in Sunday School work are abundant.

The Rochester Sunday School Institute continues to be as active as during former years, and now publishes a leaflet of printed questions on the Christian year, thus affording an admirable companion to their leaflet on the Inter-Diocesan Bible Lesson.

Your Committee pleads for a more general recognition of the blessings and substantial benefits of a uniform study of the Bible in our Sunday Schools, the Inter-Diocesan system affording an excellent basis for Bible study, especially when published with questions for written answers by the pupil.

The work done by the New York Sunday School Commission, especially the results of the conference held in New York during last January, has made more manifest than ever the unsystematic system under which Sunday School work is being done. This was strikingly demonstrated by the answers received from the fourteen Dioceses having Sunday School Commissions, in reply to certain questions submitted by the New York Sunday School Commissions. The questions were:

I. Has your Commission put forth any specific movement toward the training of teachers in your Diocese? If so, what, and with what success?

II. Do many of your Rectors make use of Normal Class Methods for the instruction of their teachers?

III. Has your Diocese an Official Sunday School Examiner or Secretary for Sunday School work?

IV. How far have the principles of grading and graded courses of study been adopted?

V. Are examinations common? Do you put forth any suggested questions for the scholars by which to secure a certain modicum of knowledge?

VI. Are Teachers' Reference Libraries established in connection with your Commission?

VII. How far have your schools gone in the matter of school appointments, as maps, blackboards, sand tables, etc.?

VIII. What lesson systems are most used? What ones do you consider at present the most available for your local needs and conditions?

IX. How far does the quality of Spiritual Life among your pupils show increased strength and devotion?

X. What do you consider a course of study should cover for the schools?

The answers received clearly reveal the truly chaotic condition of Sunday School work in the American church at the present time.

No doubt strenuous efforts are being made by many of the Clergy and Lay workers to duly and faithfully instruct the children of the church; but why should there not be some more adequate and uniform system established—or is it necessary that the Sunday School remain forever the experimenting realm of all would-be but inexperienced church educationalists?

Our own Diocese is a striking example of the imperative necessity for the due consideration of the Sunday School problem. To almost all of the above questions we would have to answer in the negative.

Not only so, but the Clergy themselves frequently need to be taught. Our young men come from the Theological Seminaries wholly untrained for this great department of pastoral and educational work, which demands of the Clergyman a large place in his heart, and a considerable portion of his time! while in many parishes, in the Sunday School itself, untaught teachers teach; with no system of examinations, nor any attempt to introduce a systematic grading of the pupils.

Therefore, with a view to the general improvement of the Sunday School in this Diocese, your Committee recommends:

I. That negotiations be entered into by the Council with the Sunday School Institute of Rochester, which is a branch of the American Church Sunday School Institute, with a view to its recognition as that of the Diocese of Western New York, and be so designated.

II. That the Standing Committee on Sunday Schools be hereafter named the Sunday School Commissions of the Diocese of Western New York, and that it be instructed to open correspondence with the Bishop and Clergy with a view to the establishment of a normal course of study for those who desire to be Sunday School teachers.

III. That your Committee shall be authorized to ask an expression of opinion from the Bishop and Clergy as to the possibility of introducing a graded system of church teaching—such as shall be of a practical and efficient kind—and that the Inter-Diocesan system be recognized as the duly authorized course of Bible instruction—the choice of leaflet being always left to the proper authority in each parish using the Inter-Diocesan scheme.

IV. That three delegates be elected at this session of the Council to represent this Diocese at the next conference of Sunday School Commissions.

Your Committee also feel that the time has come for the due consideration by the General Convention of the "Sunday School and its Work," and that the Sunday School should be considered as much a part of the churches' organization as the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society, or the Women's Auxiliary; also that the church would do well to authorize a proper office for opening and closing the School.

Your Committee would also recommend that it be authorized to ascertain the possibility of establishing a traveling library system in this Diocese—specially for the benefit of the Sunday School workers and scholars in the smaller towns of the Diocese—and that the necessary expenses of the Committee be paid by the Diocese.

G. H. GAVILLER,

Chairman.

On motion, the report was received.

The tellers reported the result of the second ballot for the election of officers, and the following were declared elected by concurrent vote.

For Deputies to the General Convention: The Rev. J. A. Regester, D. D., the Rev. W. F. Faber.

On motion, consent was given that the Secretary cast a ballot for Mr. Rufus A. Sibley and Matthew D. Mann, M.D., as Lay Deputies to the General Convention.

The ballot was cast and Mr. Sibley and Dr. Mann were declared duly elected.

The Council proceeded to the election of one Clerical Deputy to the General Convention.

The Standing Committee on State Legislation made a report with reference to "an act to amend the Religious Corporation Laws relative to Annual Elections in incorporated Protestant Episcopal parishes."

On motion, the report was received and the Secretary was directed to print the said act and send a copy of the same to the Rector of each parish and to the Wardens of vacant parishes.

The Standing Committee on the Report of the Trustees of the Episcopate Fund made the following

REPORT:

Your Committee, to whom was referred the Report of the Trustees of the Episcopate Fund, respectfully submit the following report :

We find the report in due form and accompanied by a certificate signed by Gilman N. Perkins and E. Walter Smith, stating that the books and accounts of the Treasurer of the Episcopate Fund, together with vouchers in connection therewith, had been examined, and that the same were found on May 11, 1904, to be correct.

While there has been a gain in the receipts from the parishes, we view with concern the fact that owing to the fall in interest which operates generally in the financial world, the income from the Episcopate Invested Fund shows a loss of $127.96, and this in spite of the fact that this fund is so wisely invested as to yield an income of about 5¼%. In view of this fact your Committee suggests that the time is not far distant when a systematic effort must be made to increase the principal of this Episcopate Fund Endowment.

We contemplate with satisfaction the fact that for the first time in some years this Fund is out of debt, having available assets slightly in excess of its obligations.

GEORGE B. RICHARDS,

Chairman.

On motion, the report was received.

The Council took up the report of the Committee on Sunday Schools.

A resolution that three delegates be elected by the Council to attend the meeting of Sunday School Commissions to be held in Boston, October, 1904, was adopted.

On motion, consent was given that the Secretary cast a ballot for the Rev. Messrs. G. G. Merrill, E. M. Parrott and E. P. Hart as delegates.

The ballot was cast and the Rev. Messrs. Merrill, Parrott and Hart declared elected.

The tellers reported the result of ballot for election of one Clerical Deputy to the General Convention. No election.

On motion, consent was given that the Secretary cast a ballot for the Rev. R. R. McG. Converse, D. D., as Clerical Deputy.

The ballot was cast and the Rev. Dr. Converse declared duly elected.

The Council then proceeded to the election of Provisional Deputies to the General Convention.

On motion, all those nominated for Clerical or Lay Deputies were nominated as Provisional Deputies.

On motion, written ballots were declared valid.

The following resolution, offered by the Rev. Dr. Boynton, was adopted :

Resolved, That the Council appreciates the courtesy of an invitation to a ride over the Gorge route and regrets that the weather makes its acceptance unadvisable.

On motion, hearty thanks were extended to S. Peter's Church, the Church of the Epiphany, and De Veaux College for the hospitality shown the Council during its sessions.

The Rev. Mr. Berry, on behalf of the Rev. Mr. Dantzer, made the following

In the Rochester Archdeaconry : Rochester, Geneva, Watkins, Burdett, Lyons, Newark, Honeoye Falls, Lima and Avon ; and outside the Diocese : The Gallaudet Home for Aged and Infirm Deaf Mutes, Wappenger's Falls, N. Y. ; S. Ann's Church for Deaf Mutes, New York City ; All Souls' Church for the Deaf, Philadelphia ; S. Mark's Church, Brooklyn ; Christ's Church, Binghamton ; Trinity, Elmira ; S. Paul's, Erie, Pa. ; Grace Church, Cleveland, O. ; S. Paul's, Evansville, Ind. ; Deaf Mute Institute and Christ Church, Indianapolis, Ind. There are now scattered throughout the Diocese a total of 78 communicants who are deaf. But there are a number of others who ought to be enumerated, who, although affiliated with a regular congregation, have not for various reasons come under my ministrations, while some, through the neglect of the Parish Priest, or from some other cause, have lapsed from communion.

The work in the Archdeaconry of Buffalo continues to be most difficult and trying, but there is every reason why the work should be continued there as elsewhere in the Diocese. There are a large number of deaf mutes in Buffalo, and they certainly need a spiritual guide to follow them and endeavor to bring them under the church's influence. During the past year the Clere Society of Deaf Mutes, with a membership of about 15, has been of great help to the missionary. They meet twice a month in S. Paul's Parish House, Buffalo. They raised over $20 00 for our annual Christmas tree, and now have on hand for next year's Christmas celebration $4.80. They also have on hand a "Benevolent" Fund, to be used for the sick and needy deaf of Buffalo, now amounting to $9.44.

During the year the Mission raised only $11.86, and this, with the Emergency Fund, made a total on hand of $115.21. This was disbursed as follows :

Diocesan Missions.....	$ 5.00
Endowment Fund of S. Paul's Church, Buffalo.....	5.00
Gallaudet Home for Aged Deaf Mutes.....	2.50
Lay Reader.....	5.00

	$115.21

Services have also been held with more or less regularity in Lockport, Medina and Jamestown.

In the Archdeaconry of Rochester progress has been made. Here also at Rochester we have the assistance of a society of deaf mutes, meeting in S. Luke's Parish House at least once a month. For our Christmas celebration they raised $20 16, and have a balance on hand for next Christmas of $5.36.

The "Sick" or "Benevolent" Fund now amounts to $6.64, there having been expenditures of $1.62.

Ephphatha Mission, Rochester, raised a total of $55.55, which was apportioned as follows :

Diocesan Missions.....	$ 5 00
S. Luke's Church.....	5.00
Chefos (China) School for the Deaf.....	2.00
S. Luke's News.	1.00
Gallaudet Home for Aged Deaf.....	2.00

The Emergency Fund now amounts to $124.78.

As I have accepted a call to the pastorate of all Souls' Church for the Deaf, Philadelphia, and expect to leave the Diocese June 1st next, I take it for granted that it would be of interest to give a resumé of my labors since I began the work, Feb. 1, 1890, as a lay-reader in old S. John's Church, Buffalo. As a lay-reader I held services in both this Diocese and Central New York, until my ordination as deacon March 10, 1892, and as priest June 5, 1895. During these 14 years I have held 1 841 services; baptized 158; brought 125 to Confirmation; married 28; buried 17. Besides this I have made a large number of pastoral calls, of which no record has been kept, and attended to a necessarily large correspondence. I will not attempt to give any detailed account of my experiences, my mishaps, my sorrows and my joys during these years, but will just let the figures I have given and the annual reports speak for themselves.

But before closing this report I wish to record my deep anxiety lest through hasty action by the Council the work among the deaf in the Diocese may be allowed to lapse. To do so would be a great mistake. It would be to acknowledge defeat and leave the field to others of an alien faith. To leave the work to parish priests would also in my opinion be a great mistake. It is true we have two priests who might do the work very well in Buffalo and Rochester, but they could not hope to do more than give occasional service, nor could they look after the deaf outside of these two places. The deaf mutes themselves are already expressing concern lest there should be no provision made for a successor in the work, and this feeling has got hold of some to such an extent that there is already talk of disbanding their societies in Buffalo and Rochester. But I am sure the Council will make provision of some sort for this really important work.

With thankfulness to God for His past mercies and blessings and trusting in His help for the future, this report is respectfully submitted.

APPENDIX I.

BISHOP'S ANNUAL ADDRESS

Reverend Brethren of the Clergy and Brethren of the Laity:

Our annual duty summons us to Council once more. Mine is hearty welcome to you. At the outset I would speak Episcopal blessing upon you and wish you mercy, grace and peace from God Our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

I know of your zeal and labors in the Lord, and how, through his merciful grace,—prayed for night and day,—sanctified success has crowned the effort of so many of you in your humble toilings for Him.

It is the Bishop's privilege to witness often the peculiarly happy days in the life of his clergy and to be partaker with them in their best joy. In the Confirmation hour he has seen so often the light of gladness in the eyes of his Reverend brethren as one after another of those of their flock that they had reasoned with and wooed and prayed for came to the altar to renew vows and make a life-long consecration to the King's service. The holy rapture in the face of those brethren, the tender, humble joy at the spiritual advance made in the family life of the parish, the sense of the presence of God that was with them prospering the work of their hands, has made one feel that Heavenly light and Angel Ministries were there. And I have seen on such occasions men's hearts burning with that highest desire that can inflame a man—the godly priests' consuming passion for human souls. I could then realize the intensity of the Apostle's glowing speech when he cried, "Brethren, my hearts desire and prayer to God for Israel is that they may be saved," and again when with fiery rapture he proclaims, "I could be accursed from Christ for the brethren's sake. And so one of the chief happinesses of the Bishop's life is to breathe the atmosphere so charged with a hallowed zeal and delight as earnest shepherds of Christ's dear flock lead their loved children thus nearer to Him.

Is it not true, brethren, that such comforts in the ministry give glow and take away some of the hardness in its life? In the days when the cloud is above us and the load bears heavily, such memories cheer and support. And lo! a voice speaks. It is the Master's breaking through the shadows. And He saith, in tender tone, to you, His child, you, his dedicated Priest, "my grace is sufficient for thee," and with that pledge, and only because of that pledge—added to blessed experience before-named—you go forward—His arm supporting, His voice cheering, His hand leading. And thus the stolum of the Priest—"His yoke upon us—becomes easy and His burden light." It is perhaps not inappropriate here to repeat some personal statements made by me on the 20th day of last December when it was my high privilege and happiness, in the Church of the Ascension, Buffalo, in conjunction with the laying on of hands by several of my Reverend brethren, to admit to the holy office of Priesthood the largest number of men ever ordained in this Diocese, viz., 8 Deacons, members of our own ecclesiastical household. It was with humble and solemn remembrance that your Bishop in the course of his discourse made statement that at that hour and on that day 20 years before he had entered upon his responsible office as a Bishop of the Church of God through the laying on of hands by 7 Bishops of this Church, and it was also his sacred privilege to announce that on that same day and at that same hour, exactly seven years ago, he spoke his first word and ministered in holy things as the Chief Shepherd in official relation for the first time, to you, his great flock of this great Diocese. Those seven years have been years crowded with incident and experience. How memory calls back sacred privileges and loyal service and kindly offices which have been accorded him thro' those passing years, and he can but stand in this sacred place and thank Almighty God for the loving helpfulness and the true hearts of those his people here to-day and those away from here worshipping in little sanctuaries and great churches, in village and city, and on the country-side all across this fair territory of Western New York.

It seems fitting that at such a time some brief review of these seven years of life in the Diocese should be presented. During that period, my beloved brethren of the clergy, almost to a man, have been toiling hard. With them, sympathetic and earnest laymen and laywomen have been working side by side in hosts.

And so laboring together, laity, clergy, bishop, in zealous harmony, through the blessing of our Almighty Father and the ever-sought and ever-granted guidance of the Holy Ghost, we are able to point to these comforting fruits of work :

I. Seven years ago there were 126 parishes and missions; to-day there are 151.

II. Seven years ago the clergy numbered 120 at work; to-day there are 128 laboring within our borders.

III. Seven years ago there were upwards of 19,000 communicants; to-day there are more than 23,000.

IV. Within the last seven years, 11 churches have been consecrated, 23 new churches have been built—two others are in process of erection and 28 new missions have been established.

V. The offerings for the Missions of the Diocese in 1896 were $6,132. In 1902-3 they were $8,325. The offerings in 1897 for the General Missions of the Church were $6,495. Those of 1903 were $18,426, which includes the gifts of the Sunday Schools and Woman's Auxiliary, the Junior Auxiliary and Babies' Branch.

VI. Seven years ago the total of all the offerings in the Diocese for every purpose, external and internal, during the year was $320,446. This year the entire amount contributed was $439,294. This remarkable record of liberal giving on the part of our good clergy and people places us among the foremost of the Dioceses of this American Church. Among the 86 we stand No. 8 for giving and No. 10 for the aggregate of Communicants. One other item and I will close this splendid record of Christian labor and devotion. The estimated value of the Church property and Institutions of this Diocese in the year 1897 was $3,057,164. Within the last seven years there has been added to this great sum, in new buildings, Churches, Parish-Houses, additions to Churches, Rectories, Endowments and the like, the splendid total of upwards of $411,000. This aggregate, however, excludes a legacy of $50,000 to our "Church Home," left within the past year; the sum of $30,000 bequeathed by one of our Communicants to Hobart College, to be used for the education of students for the Sacred Ministry in our own Diocese, and $13,750 left for the benefit of Aged and Infirm Clergy in the Diocese by a Communicant residing in Buffalo. These sums added to the amount already named make a grand total contributed during seven years past of $504,750. Thus this more than half a million of dollars addition to the material values of the Church in this Diocese during these seven years last past has swelled the total of our property to $3,561,914. It is a rich increase for which we have reason to be glad, and for which we should thank the "Giver of all good gifts" that He hath put it into the hearts of His servants to devote and appropriate such generous offerings to His glory and service. I cannot but cry out with a full heart—and I know I have your voices too—Laus Deo.

This is our common work for the first seven years of our laboring together side by side on its material side. Of the statistics spiritually the Record book on high has its account. We can take comfort in the fact of larger numbers Baptized and Confirmed, and a Communicant list greatly increased and more frequent Celebrations of the Lord's Supper in many of our churches. May we not recognize the power of the Holy Ghost among us in such growths as these? I believe so.

And now, naturally, I turn to my own record of—by me loved—labors during the year past. The Baptisms at which I officiated were two in number, one Wedding and three Funerals called for my official ministries. During the twelvemonth I have attended in my Episcopal relation and presided at 61 meetings. Last year the number was 54.

In that period, too, I have officiated at 203 services—either Morning or Evening Prayer. Last year the number was 181. The sermons preached by me were 153. Last year 142. I have also made addresses on 154 occasions. Last year the record was 139. The Confirmation services were 128 in 126 different places—the largest number during my Episcopate and in the whole history of the Diocese. Last year there were 111 Confirmations in 110 different places. The number of persons this year Confirmed by me in the Diocese was 1,519—a larger aggregate than in any twelvemonth since the Diocese was born—as I believe. Last year the total of individuals receiving the Laying on of hands was 1,441.

Three Corner Stones of new Churches were laid by me, two new Churches were set apart for worship by a service of Dedication:—this because all encumbrances financial had not been removed on their erection. Five Churches, however, were Consecrated during the year, all obligations against them having been blotted out. I have ordained to the Diaconate three of our own sons in the Gospel, and advanced nine Deacons to the Priesthood during the year.

It was my privilege likewise to take part in the Consecration of one of our Bishops within the twelvemonth.

I need not dwell upon these details of genuine growth within our borders. They speak for themselves. I can but rejoice with you, dear brethren, that by the gracious help of the Holy Ghost your self-denying, unceasing labors have been so crowned with blessing.

NECROLOGY.

It is one of the tender requirements of the Canons of the General Convention that the Bishop of a Diocese in his Annual Address shall make reference to those who have departed this life among the Reverend Clergy. Out of this direction has grown up the hallowed custom of calling to remembrance the Fathers in the Church—the Right Reverend, the Bishops—who have gone to their rest, as well.

It is with a peculiar and reverential sorrow that I speak in your ears the names of some of my Episcopal brethren this year who are no longer numbered with us.

1. And pre-eminently I utter with a venerating love that of the late Presiding Bishop of the Church, Right Rev. Thomas March Clark, D.D., LL.D., Bishop of Rhode Island. He was in his 92nd year when his Father called him hence—the senior in the Episcopal office among all the Bishops in the Anglican Communion, and the veteran of the Episcopate in length of days in all Christendom—as I believe—and as he himself was convinced and often declared. Mine was a personal loss in his departure hence. He had been to me friend and tender father indeed. I am told from out the closed doors of the House of Bishops that his was the nominating voice when I was chosen to the responsible post of first Bishop of North Dakota. He was my Consecrator on that solemn day when I was invested with the authority and privileges, the anxieties and the cares of the Episcopate.

From his hands I received the Holy Communion on—to me—that holy day. At the end of last August, less than ten days before he passed into the nearer presence of that King whom he loved and adored, and nearly twenty years after he had administered the Holy Eucharist to me, it was my privilege, in the feebleness of his years and fading strength, to administer that same blessed Sacrament to him, at his own request. That was one of the most solemn Communion of my whole life. It was a Communion indeed; for we communed together about our Redeemer's kingdom. His was, in that sacred hour, the tender, trusting heart of a little child. There was the self-depreciation of the true penitent, there was the uplooking humbly for pardon, and there was the solemn declaration of the man of faith, that his one hope lay in the atoning blood of the Redeemer's cross. It was a demonstration of that sweet gospel, piety of a faded generation, which brought men face to face with Jesus and gave them a profound sense of the vision of God. I have rarely felt nearer to the feet of the Saviour than on that Lord's Day, when in the still chamber of the weary patriarch, at his last Communion on earth, the great brilliant Bishop, who in his day held vast congregations of moved men spell-bound as he told the story of the cross, was finding that same Redeemer and that same cross of salvation, his comfort, his strength and his peace. It made my faith a stronger faith and it showed me the Saviour as the "Christus Consolator" for the sons of men in every station and of every degree—as Ary Sheffer intimates in his masterpiece which bears that beautiful name.

2. Right Rev. Abiel Leonard, D.D., first Bishop of Salt Lake—sometime Bishop of Nevada and Utah. He was a brother beloved indeed to me. When he was Consecrated to his high and laborious office it was with genuine gladness that he who speaks joined with others of his Episcopal brethren in the laying-on-of-hands. He saw in him then, as ever later, the manly, discreet, fearless and devout administrator, as well as the godly and well-learned Bishop. His face was a familiar one and a welcome one in the parishes and the homes of this Diocese. As the honored and honoring classmate and the guest from time to time of the Rector of S. James' Church, Buffalo, he came to be well and lovingly known among us. His simple story of his pre-eminently difficult field of labor, his self-abnegation in his recitals of weird and weary experiences, his modest allusions to his own trials and difficult problems, and their wise solution through his singular sagacity, won our hearts and lifted him to a high plane as a sage-holy Bishop in the minds of many of us. The social questions and the abnormal domestic conditions that were ever facing him gave no primrose ease to his post of labor. Out of harmony with the ever-present environment, continually a protest against the strange community with its vicious legalities, in which he was constrained to live, he manifested the sober, moderate patience and temper, which never condoned the iniquity of that life, but ever watched for the opportunity to "speak that word in season" of which the wise man once said "How good a thing is it!"

And yet with all that sad wickedness which surrounded him, which he was powerless to correct or to "cry aloud against and spare not," and which must have afflicted his soul with a mighty grief, he was the cheerful, happy-spirited, hopeful man—bringing Western breeziness with him where-soever he went. It was the grace of God within his soul which kept him from breaking his heart—as I think—when he gazed on the moral leprosy that tainted and honey-combed—and does still, as recent revelations at Washington proved—the commonwealth in which he abode. God be praised for such a character and such a wise life. God be praised for the bravery and the grace in his Consecrated servant that could keep the heart unbroken amid the dreary, vicious atmosphere of broken hearths and violated marital vows. God be praised for the upbuilding toil of his true servant, who amid adverse winds pushed his way with following hundreds stoutly, unblenchingly toward life's happy goal.

3. And now there comes to my thought the genial face of the Bishop—eloquent of the South-land in this Republic of ours. Who can help under that description naming Thomas Underwood Dudley, D. D., LL. D., 2nd Bishop of Kentucky for nearly 30 years. What burning torrents of oratory poured forth with a convincing power as he stood before great, breathless audiences and told of the needs and the duty of us men to the black men—our brothers—in the States nearer the Equator. How in narratives that bristled with humor or in words that were hot in their appeal and convincing in their logic he stirred Christian men to sympathy and to action for the needing colored folk. The emancipated hosts of the South, I believe, never had a truer friend, nor a more effective pleader for their cause. In behalf of those teeming millions, I believe that “he being dead yet speaketh.” For I am convinced that the tremendous influence exerted by him when in those days pulsing with white heat he held those great gatherings spellbound, cannot die, because the physical man has died and passed from our sight. And in view of the terrible crimes committed in the revenging of serious outrages we cannot but feel that those fiery appeals of the dead Bishop to Christians North and South to educate and christianize those seething masses of neglected and degraded humanity should ring again in our ears from his tomb with an added power. Surely his brave work—for it was sometimes at the cost of Southern friendship he spoke—cannot perish and must not be in vain.

But it was not alone as the platform orator he was a Cicero or a Chrysostom. In the pulpit he was a marvellous power. Brought up in the school of Theology that emphasized personal piety and the need of the individual Christ to the personal man—a beautiful side of the Saviour's religion—he developed into that higher type of Christian which recognized the fact and the need and the comfort of a rounded creed and a living organization. And so he became the preacher who presented "all the counsel of God. To Evangelic faith he added Apostolic order. And thus with a consummate eloquence he made the arches of great churches ring as he told of a saving Jesus and a living Church; the one who would have all men everywhere come to Him, the other the great Ark in this tempestuous world, where when storms beat and billows roll there is refuge for the lost and the tossed and the weary, and where a Redeemer is present with welcoming love and soothing for each returning child—for each negligent or defiant man who will but lift his eyes to behold the beckoning finger and his ear to hear the wooing voice.

Good night, brother beloved. The shadows have fallen with the closing of thine eyes, but only to open again at the dawn of the everlasting morning and to gaze forever on the unfading glory and the eternal light.

4. I name Rt. Rev. James Addison Ingle, Bishop of Hankow, China. How we marvel as we look back upon his brief Episcopate! During less than two years did he serve in that office. What hopes we had—those of us who heard his winning words and his pathetic story of labors in the far Eastern climes—when he stood in our midst at Buffalo—for work in China and for abounding blessings on his special field in that land of the rising sun. But God had need of him in the "land that is very far off," and so early he took his faithful servant. The Providence is inscrutable to us now. We bow in awe. We dare not speak. The work seems wounded, the field deserted, the harvest unhusbanded. But God knows best. We drop the tear upon our brother's grave—but we hold God's hand still.

In our own Diocesan family we have met with only one loss by death among the clergy during the year, viz: Rev. Frederic Hall, Rector for upwards of three years of Trinity Church, Middleport.

His record in the parish was one of great devotion. He won all hearts by his faithfulness to duty, his very earnest preaching, and his gentle sympathy as he went hither and thither among the homes of his flock. George Herbert in his "Country Parson" gives us his beautiful pictures of the ideal priest and pastor for an English parish. Such characters and characteristics as he portrays should not be obsolete in this land and age. The kind, forbearing, benignant, gentle Pastor is the need for this or for any time—or for any Church. There is too much bustle, too much organization, too much Parish House, too much Sunday concert, too much taint of the world, too much unreality or artificiality in the life of the modern Shepherd and the modern flock generally. The holy calm, the placid demeanor, the peaceful atmosphere that was the charm and the helpful power in God's ministering servants throughout our motherland in the country vicarages and rectories—and for that matter, in our own land less than a century ago, alas! is too much lacking now. Perhaps electric lights and more nerves in our men and women, and quicker travel from place to place and luxury and young Americanism and shameful nooks that verge on the unclean and a faster and more furious life and broken hearthstones through the divorce habit and the freer use of drugs and the easy remarriage of those who have won so-called freedom from the nuptial-bond, and Sunday pleasure-seeking and the rest—perhaps these, I say, have helped to banish the sanctified gentleness and calm from the mien and the heart of some of our clergy of to-day. God help the Church if the reckless rush and the Gallo-like skepticism of the time is going to dominate in the life of God's kingdom on earth. My Reverend brother to whom I have above referred was a pastor of the type George Herbert pictures—and it is strange how, notwithstanding his very modest, quiet, restful demeanor, he had influence over and peculiar affection from his flock. I learned from his work and life that not noise and sensation win for the Priests' office, but self-poise, humility and the godly life. It may be truly said of him that everywhere throughout the community in which he lived, "men took knowledge of him that he had been with Jesus."

One more name I must add to this necrological register. It is that of a layman—justly honored and I will say loved of many in the Diocese. I refer to the Hon. John E. Pound, for some years our Chancellor. Only to mention his name is to call to the memory of nearly every member of this Council the genial face and the earnest demeanor of a good man, tried and true. Naturally his close relations to the Bishop gave the latter opportunity to know well his spirit and his character. First and foremost he was a Christian—a Churchman-Christian—which is the highest type. I say that with meaning. And I think many here comprehend me. His religion was not without emotion, but too it was strengthened by sober reason. There are mysteries in it he could not comprehend—nor anybody. But he was a believer, and so he accepted that which rightful authority revealed as true. Hence the Divine Word and the Divine Church were dear to him, and they had the obedience of his conscience and the homage of his heart.

But, second, he was a man of high consecration to the work of the Church. Warden of his parish for many years, Superintendent of the Sunday School, Licensed Lay-Reader, leader in the Parish Club, he was unsparing of himself as he discharged with a singular fidelity the duties of each of these prominent and useful posts. All looked to him as the graceful and the gracious head of the lay departments in the parish's life, under the Rector. Here he was the model layman. The Pastor of the flock was his leader, and to him he gave unshaken and unceasing and unadulterated loyalty. The Church's accepted and attested principle of the centuries since the Ante-Nicene Fathers has been "nil sine Episcopo." The law of life for the late Chancellor of this Diocese, touching parochial concerns, was "nil sine pastore" in his parish.

But he had honored and laborious relations with the Diocese. On the Standing Committee and in the Board of Education and the Financial Board he was peculiarly painstaking and conscientious. None were more regular in attendance at meetings, none had a better grasp of the business, none gave closer attention to the details of duty, none studied more closely and zealously the various questions falling to the lot of those bodies to determine. Every work given him to do was performed with exactness and completeness, and thoroughness—and the willingness and the kindness with which he undertook difficult and intricate items of business, to unravel them, made co-operation with him a delight.

To me he was of unspeakable service. The Bishop's relations with the Chancellor of a Diocese must necessarily be close and confidential. Judge Pound never failed in the honest and hearty and gracious and wise discharge of every duty I laid upon him. I speak these things with a very grateful heart. His memory is a sacred one to me. His parish, his Diocese, his Bishop have experienced a profound loss.

In accordance with the custom in the House of Bishops as well as that of our own Diocese now, we will recite together the Nicene Creed and engage in suitable devotions commemorative of the good lives of these, God's servants, who having departed in His faith and fear do now rest from their labors.

PAROCHIAL REPORTS.

Brethren of the clergy, with affectionate urgency, I must present to your consciences the matter of Parochial Reports. Every Rector or Missionary is required by the Canon to forward to the Secretary, for the Bishop, a complete statement of his own ministrations and of his parish concerns, annually, and before the assembling of the Council. Blanks for the purpose are forwarded to every Clergyman in charge of a flock, in some cases to Lay-Readers who have been assigned to specific missions and to the Archdeacons for the fields under their special charge. As loyal Clergymen of this Church, each is conscientiously bound to prepare and forward these documents at the time named. It is as much a sacred duty as to keep the Parish Register written up or to hold divine service or instruct the people, or preside at vestry-meeting. The law which authorizes the one commands the other. And yet it is my painful duty to be obliged to here announce that many of the Clergy were delinquent last year. No less than 26 different parishes and missions sent no report to the Bishop at that time. They are as follows, and it is pain to me to read them. (Having been read at the Council it is needless to make further record of them, and so I omit them from this printed address.) There were some failures, as I know, because of changes of the Ministers in charge. But what has been the result? The Diocese in its communicant list, in its offerings, and in other matters has not a truthful record of its real condition in church almanacs or in our own Journal. Figures showed that there was a seeming decrease in communicants and in baptisms and the like, when there was really a large increase last year. I know it is only necessary to call the attention of my brethren to these facts in order to secure from them loyal obedience to the Canon, and a prompt return of the Bishop's Report. Need I say that a neglect on the part of any one to do this duty is an act of injustice to the Diocese and to every parish and clergyman in it—and for that matter to the whole American Church.

GENERAL CONVENTION.

We are looking forward to the great Council of the Church, which assembles in Boston next October. Its important work is, of course, of interest to us all. Matters of serious moment, as always, are to come before it. Some of them are: 1. The amendments suggested in the Canon bearing upon the management of the Mission work of the Church. 2. The question of the creation of Appellate Courts. 3. The matter of the adoption of a Provincial system. 4. The Report of the Committee on the change in the legal title of the Church. 5. The Canon on Divorce and Remarriage in the case of Divorced persons. It is unnecessary for me to discuss them. The press will make us all familiar with them, in all their bearings, between now and the opening sessions of that Body.

Of the Canon on remarriage of divorced persons I would speak briefly. I call it by that title, because after all the crux of it, its pith, has to do not so much with the right or wrong of divorce, but with another marriage on the part of the divorced person during the lifetime of the other party. I believe there are some cases where divorce is justifiable, where under awful circumstances a soul's salvation may be in peril, unless the bond is severed. But when we contemplate the other side of the question, that of the remarriage of either party—innocent or guilty—it is a concern of a different character. It will be remembered that at the last General Convention in the House of Bishops a Canon was passed forbidding the remarriage of any divorced person by a Clergyman of this Church, under any circumstances, while the party of the second part is living. The Canon as thus adopted by the upper House went to the House of Deputies. There it was discussed in Committee of the Whole, and after a prolonged conflict adopted, too. It was then reported to the same House in regular session, and there liberally discussed again. When the vote was taken at last by Dioceses and orders, it was found that the Clergy had passed it—but the Laity, by a comparatively small majority of their order, rejected it. It was, therefore, lost by a lack of concurrence on the part of the two orders:

I believe that a similar bill will be reported to the Convention when it gathers in Boston. I am inclined to believe, as are many whom I have met, that it will be then adopted.

Public opinion, as you have noted, has been rapidly drifting in that direction. This is clear from the attitude taken by the inter-denominational meeting held recently to decide upon some concert of action, as to their relations toward each other, on this question. The declaration set forth by them is remarkable in its tone. Fourteen different influential Christian bodies were represented, and they sent out a preliminary statement, from which I shall quote briefly, as showing the decided trend of those who call themselves Christians, on this very serious subject.

“ We plead for a recognition of the sanctity of marriage. We are facing a condition in our country to-day which threatens danger to the most sacred things. The very sanctuary of human life and of human love is assaulted and profaned. Manhood, womanhood and childhood, the home and the family, are involved; and neither civil legislation nor ecclesiastical discipline can save them, until and unless the conscience of Christian humanity is reached.

“ Behind the monster of polygamy, behind the spectre of the lax divorce court, with its collusions, its corruptions, and its contagion, stands the sad fact of the low ideal of marriage.

“ Marriage is a holy thing. Marriage is the institution of God Himself and is sanctified under the solemnities of the old sanction by our blessed Lord. This is the root of the matter.

“ The hope of curing and crushing the horrible tendencies to facile and frequent divorce rests, we believe, upon impressing and inculcating such an intense conviction of what marriage is, and of what marriage means, that it will cease to be entered into ‘unadvisedly or lightly;’ that the festivity which accompanies it shall be sobered and consecrated by the conscious presence of Him ‘who adorned and beautified the marriage at Cana in Galilee by His presence and first miracle that He wrought;’ that neither man nor woman shall dare to enter the precincts of bethrothal without the tested certainty of love; without the full recognition of the mutual duty of service, forbearance and faithfulness which it involves.

“What words can we find to express the abhorrence which ought to raise in righteous indignation against the present possibilities and the existing facts of the divorce habit in America! Just now polygamous Utah looms large and ugly in our minds. But we must look nearer home to realize the true condition of things.

“The proportion of divorces to marriages in 1902 in eight states reporting statistics is as follows: In Maine, 1 to 6; in New Hampshire, 1 to 8.3; in Vermont, 1 to 10; in Massachusetts, 1 to 16; in Rhode Island, 1 to 8; in Ohio, 1 to 8.8; in Indiana, 1 to 7.6; in Michigan, 1 to 11. In these states there has been a steady and rapid increase in divorces during the decade, and this increase is believed to be true of the country at large.

“This appeal is to the conscience of Christian people to cleanse and purify the atmosphere of public opinion and social recognition. The fear of legalized polygamy in one state is enhanced by the fact of unholy divorce in many states. The faces of Christian people must be set against this. The voices of Christian people must be lifted against this, not only to secure civil legislation, not only to enforce church discipline, but to correct the tendency, to control the inclination and to condemn the fact.

“We are pleading for the home, for the family, for the children born and to be born, for the protection of society, and for the preservation of the state. We ask you to unite with us in earnest effort, so that more and more the manhood, the womanhood and the childhood of America may make itself heard and felt in the determined purpose to stem the currents which are sapping the foundations of all that is best and holiest and dearest in human life.

“Let us strive unitedly for the things which are pure and true, for the sanctity of marriage, for the permanence of the family, for the preservation of the home, and for the perpetuity of the state."

In view of such a general expression by religious people of all names—so strong and so wholesome—it is likely, I thoroughly believe, that the vigorous Canon of the last General Convention will be adopted at Boston.

Western New York by its voice showed no uncertain tone in this matter, but came forward unhesitatingly for the right in the last convention. I have no doubt she will be true to her traditions and positions of the past when the time comes in the House of Deputies at Boston.

DE VEAUX COLLEGE.

I have asked you to come to this College for one of our meetings during this session for the purpose of teaching an object lesson. I presume I am not exaggerating in an iota when I make the declaration that four-fifths of the members of this body have not entered the doors of this institution before this evening. And yet you have been legislating in its behalf or to its hurt for forty years long. Anyone strolling through the Crypt of St. Paul's Cathedral in London will come upon a great tomb. It is that of the Architect of that ponderous and mighty structure, Sir Christopher Wren. Carved in the stone are these words "bideas opera sua circumspice:" "Would you behold his work, then gaze around." We may gaze upon these empty rooms and untrod corridors and listen to the echoes of resounding footsteps in these yawning stretches of unfrequented halls and class-rooms and behold a work which is unlike Sir Christopher Wren's—because it is a work of unaccomplishment and not of result, neglect. I am bold to say that the closing of the doors of this splendid Institution to the pay-scholar was a grave wrong. When I consider the many promising youths who have been barred out and have been deprived of the rich privileges afforded here my heart as Bishop of this Diocese is sick indeed, with a perennial grief.

I frankly can only characterize the policy forced on the Trustees during the last seven years as mal-administration and waste. Do you know that the cost of maintenance for each boy is upwards of $525 a year? Such extravagance was never contemplated by the noble founder and endower. I believe we could make more economical use of our Trust Fund by closing the doors and boarding the students in another institution. In making this statement I know there is not a syllable of exaggeration. Of course, that we cannot do. The moneys must be used for an institution founded in accordance with the terms of the will by the gifts of the testator and bearing his name. Are those to whom its management is committed responsible for this fact? Emphatically, no. I repeat, as in former years, I have never met a more conscientious body of men in the administering of a Trust. Every economy that can rightly be practiced, every possible expense that can be saved, every means that can be used to increase the usefulness of the Institution and secure the maximum of scholars is studied and adopted and they will incur no dollar of debt and take no risk financially. In these particulars the Board is a unit, as in everything that is right in administration. The fault is in the conditions—a large plant and a small income. The plant, necessarily costly to maintain, and needing repairs constantly—the more so perhaps because in part unused—and yet providing no revenue. That is the matter in a nutshell.

We have unproductive real estate. We have what is equivalent to unimproved town lots—everything going out and nothing coming in from them. Business men are inclined to question the sagacity of the man who has worked himself, eyes open, into that corner where he is land-poor and then when he is in such a plight taking no steps to extricate himself. We are so, by our own action, in this Council. Ought we to be so any longer? Ought this College to continue the comparative weakling that it is? Should there be a continuance of this condition of suspended animation, to use the medical term, allowed? Ours is a state of "arrested development." Were that the case in a human form, heroic measures would be resorted to to change the conditions of the organism.

I am free to say that I have a troubled conscience in this matter, that I feel a grave moral wrong is being done, that there is misuse of valuable property, that there is a serious responsibility resting on us to bring about a reform. And I think every man in this building will agree with me as he moves up and down through these corridors and rooms and beholds their almost absolute uselessness to-day. Brethren, face the solemn responsibility and meet it. God forgive us for this waste, and this, shall I say it, grievous sin? I now give notice of my intention to lead a movement for the restoration of the pay-pupil department in De Veaux College, under law. And I feel that in it I will have the voice and the helping hands of the great mass of the Churchmen of this Diocese, because it is right. And I ask now the aid of this Council to that end. Judge De Veaux entrusted this property and its management to the Convention of the Diocese of Western New York, and as he had been one of its members for many years he felt that he could trust it. The terms in which he makes this announcement are as follows: "I especially entrust this institution to the fostering care and protection of the Protestant Episcopal Church. I place it under the charge of the Convention of the Diocese of Western New York, with the earnest request that the Convention will take the same under its care as a dependency of the Church."

That trust was accepted, and the authority and the responsibility and the duty in the case is ours.

But how would I achieve this purpose, you may properly inquire? The first Court whose decision was asked regarding our power under the will has decided against us. But the conclusions of the first Court may not be supported by the second or third which are yet to give pronouncement upon the case.

Let me read a portion of the Judge's opinion who tried the case. Says he: "The scheme proposed by the Trustees, as evidenced by the resolution of June 5th, 1902, is to establish a boys' boarding school, the conducting of which, if we are to consult the records of the College during the period from 1868 to 1896, it may be assumed, would constitute the major part of the business of the corporation; and the maintenance and education of the foundationers, the minor part. Such venture is in no sense incident to the execution of the trust and would necessarily be affected by the usual risks incident to the conducting a boarding and day school as a business enterprise, and thus liable to endanger the trust-fund. It would in some sense overshadow and suppress the benevolent features of the institution, and deprive the unfortunate class intended to be benefited of the special care and attention of the officers and teachers in the institution, whose attention would naturally be taken from the real purpose of their work and directed to the building up of an institution for purposes not contemplated by him who created this trust, whose purpose was to found a benevolent institution and not a commercial enterprise. It may be that such a school as it is proposed by the Trustees to create would be useful, but it is not necessary. All the facilities which it would afford are within the reach of those who can command the means to pay for the same."

Now, if a layman may be permitted to differ from a learned Judge in his legal opinion or decision I submit that he doth "protest too much," that the vital clauses are "petitiones principii." He seems to conclude that because mistakes have been made in the past, or let us say for argument's sake, wrongs have been done, that there is the same condition and the same spirit in the men responsible for De Veaux's management to-day. I desire here in behalf of my colleagues and for myself to repudiate such an insinuation. As for the men of the future they will be as honest as we are—and for that and that that shall be, this Council is responsible before God.

Again the learned Judge intimates that in reintroducing the pay-pupil department the Trustees and Professors will necessarily give the bulk of their energy to the work which that involves. Here I take issue again with the amazing statement from the Bench. If there be one thought which is dominant in the mind of all men—trustees or laymen or Clergy of this Diocese—or any one who has interest in the movement proposed—it is that what is to be done shall be done in order to make the Institution more efficient for the work given it to do by the Testator—that is the providing for the maintenance of a maximum number of foundationers. They would make DeVeaux College the Alma Mater of twice the number of orphaned and necessitous youths than now rest in its arms. And that can be done—the statistics of management of four or five years past show it incontestably—without impairment of capital to the extent of one dollar. I am speaking to facts, not conjectures, not untried experiments. So I close my comment on the Court's opinion. The contention has been made that the terms of the will should be absolutely obeyed. I certainly am in entire accord with that. But suppose a property bequeathed to an institution, because of certain conditions in the instrument of donation, loses some of its power of usefulness, can there be any means adopted legally to secure a more thorough carrying out of the design of the donor? St. Cross. Bristol. Sixpences.

Within two years in this State of New York a law has been placed on the statute book to the effect that “after 25 years from the date of a gift or a bequest for educational purposes the Supreme Court may administer the property without literal compliances with the terms of the donor, but in such manner as will most effectually accomplish the general purpose of the gifts.”

If I mistake not then—I do not speak with the confidence of one learned in the law in such a matter—it will be in the power of this Council to ask the Supreme Court to take such action as will permit of the admission of pay-pupils in order to the accomplishment of larger work by the College in the direction aimed at by Judge DeVeaux.

Such a course would naturally not be pursued until the Courts now trying our case rendered decisions against the departing from what some claim to be the literal interpretation of the will. I submit the matter to you and ask its consideration to-morrow at some convenient hour. So my remarks on this Institution—its right efficiency and our duty to the departed benefactor—ends.

It is fitting to add that on the day upon which this address was delivered, in the City of Rochester the decision in the case of William B. Rankine versus the Trustees of DeVeaux College was handed down in the Appellate Court. The judges were five in number. Three sustained the opinion of the first court of trial and two judges dissented therefrom. It is with satisfaction I make this record here as showing that the contention is unfounded, that there can be no difference of opinion upon the subject. A further appeal therefore becomes necessary and will be made. I now proceed in accordance with the suggestion of the Canon touching the duties of Bishops to their Clergy and Dioceses to deliver this brief charge. Its subject will be obvious. I need not give it a title. I have aimed to make it short, and not to weary you by the introduction of excessive detail. It is with a deep sense of my accountability to your Master and mine, as also my responsibility as your Father-in-God that I undertake to address you on the grave subject which shall occupy the short time that I shall give to this charge. I have asked guidance from above, and in a spirit of deepest tenderness speak to you, my sons, in the Gospel—Priests and Deacons of the Diocese of Western New York. It is a day of reckless and unconsidered speech in too many pulpits—and in some chief seats of the Church in this land and abroad. Our ordination vows and the address in the Ordinal to the Deacon about to be received into the Priest's office show the concern of the Church for her teachers that they shall be wise and that they shall preach the truth in its soberness and in its Divine proportions. Carelessness, misstatement, overstatement, understatement, inexactness, vivid imaginings, personal fancies—anything but sound, sober, correct statement of God's great revelations of His heavenly and eternal truth is warned against, is forbidden, is denounced. There is a natural sense and a non-natural sense in which Biblical doctrine may be stated. The one is "as this Church hath received the same," the other is as the individual man warps it to suit his personal fancy. The one shows honest loyalty, the other manifests obvious dishonesty. The one displays the spirit of the great Fathers of the English Church, Bull and Pearson and Butler, and like; the other presents the Italian juggling of a Newman and a Ward and others of their time. There is clearness and exactness in the standards of this Church as to all the articles of the Faith. Their statement is definite, scientifically precise, without a scintilla of haziness in them, and they are called the essence of Christian truth, its fragrant sum and substance—from the very heart of the inspired word itself. They demand—they have a right to do so—in view of the solemn vow of ordination, a literal, ingenuous, frank acceptance of and belief in them as a matter of common morality and simple integrity on the part of every Clergyman—in highest rank or lowest—throughout this Church—a belief of them in their simple, obvious, plain meaning. That is the clear sense of the sacred vow at the altar. Has a man—in his pride of opinion—concluded that he has outgrown such stale delusions? Has a man in his arrogance of will—decided that the doctrine of Apostles and Saints of the ages is obsolete? Has a man in the wickedness born of communion with the evil one reached the pass that he feels constrained to deny any truth of this Catholic faith? To any of these I say then if he would not be a Benedict Arnold in the Church—he will surrender his commission and go forth into the world and in honesty proclaim his new creed whatever of loss or sacrifice it entails. Only so can he be a self-respecting man, a man respected, in any degree, of men. There is talk in some of the newspapers, and in some pulpits of the sensational type, of a necessity for restatement of Christian doctrine. What is there to restate? The standards of this Church—extracting them as did the Church at the beginning from Holy Scripture—give you and me doctrines to believe that are facts—that are truths; as absolutely so as that any of you who sit before me have blood coursing through your veins, or an eye that sees, or a memory that has power of recollection. These are physical facts, no man will deny. And the same is true of the Faith of the Gospel. It tells us of one God, the Father of us all, simply, in unmistakable terms. That is a fact, or it is not a fact. There can be no restatement of a thing which is simply a fact. If it is not a fact, then there is nothing to be restated. It tells us of one Jesus, the son of God, taking upon him human flesh and miraculously born—born of a Virgin. I repeat it, born of a Virgin. That, too, is a fact. It can have no reconstruction. It means but one thing. To restate it would be to confuse plain truth. It tells us of that same Jesus dying to make atonement for our sins. Here too is another truth. It has obvious meaning. No multiplication of words in the shape of readjustment can alter it as a fact or change its reality. It tells us again of that Redeemer rising again from the grave—quickened anew, although the victim of the fell destroyer. Here is another bald truth. How can it be reconstructed? And so of that other article of the creed and doctrine of the Gospel and dogma of the Church—the Trinity. It tells us “we worship one God in Trinity and Trinity in unity, neither confounding the Persons nor dividing the substance. For there is one person of the Father, another of the Son, and another of the Holy Ghost.

But the Godhead of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost is all one, the glory equal, the Majesty co-eternal. Such as the Father is, such is the Son, and such is the Holy Ghost * * * the Father eternal, the Son eternal, and the Holy Ghost eternal. And yet they are not three eternals, but one eternal. So likewise the Father is Almighty, the Son Almighty and the Holy Ghost Almighty. And yet they are not three Almighties, but one Almighty. So the Father is God, the Son is God and the Holy Ghost is God. And yet they are not three Gods, but one God. This is the Catholic faith," declares that noble "confession of our Christian belief," commonly called the Creed of St. Athanasius. Here too are declarations of truths. To restate is to deny, because reconstruction of such a heavenly fact is beyond human power. It is a fact or it is not a fact. If it is a fact, there is nothing to restate. If it is not a fact, then we have nothing before us. There is nothing to be restated.

And so with all the other articles of the Faith—the Ascension of the risen Lord to His Father's presence—the Holy Catholic Church, the coming of the King to judgment "when all men shall rise again with their bodies" to use the careful and clear words of the Athanasian Creed—and the life everlasting. Here then is no conjecture or theory or romance given you and me as Ministers of this Church to believe and to teach. I am not referring to transcendental notions, to scholastic or philosophical conceits, to systems built here and there out of a fragment of the faith or imported from some Pagan institution. I am speaking only of the plain, bald, clear creed of the Catholic Church in the simplicity of its statements and the exactness of its declarations. As a man, as an honest man, as a consecrated priest, I cannot, I must not explain away, modify, alter, amend, slur over one atom of it. The Arian struggle depended on a single iota,—its rejection or retention—in the symbol of nicaea. And the contention to-day is to be as strenuous and determined for an exact, unmarred creed as in the old day when for a time it seemed as if it was solitary "Athanasius Contra Mundum." This may be thought by some here hackneyed, old fashioned, trite. It is. That is why I accept it and believe it. Because it comes to me from the fountain-head—from the primitive Church, the Apostolic Day, the Sacred Word, the Divine Lord himself. But why is it thought by me needful, as your Bishop, thus to speak, thus to traverse the old paths? Because of the "signs of the times." There seems to be a craze to say audacious things by some men in high places who think themselves seers. Witness the recent outre lucubrations of a Canon of Westminster who talks of goodly portions of the Divine Word as trash and fable, or that priest in our land who, with sad irreverence, seems to fling overboard many attested truths in recent books, and dares to head one of his chapters with the title "the inhuman Christ," and limits the immortality of all souls by a theory of immortability in some, or that modern preacher in another Christian body who writes about a "new Evangelism," contending that old standards must be flung away or rewritten, and like every other iconoclast I have known, providing no substitute for that which he would destroy. I heard a sermon by a brilliant preacher within a fortnight, which seemed to admit all the claims of scientists—I mean the claims which are studied attacks upon the Bible—and all the declarations of the destructive critics thereupon. With a weakness that was unworthy him or any other man representing a cause having any reality in it, he announced that there were some things beautiful and wise in the Christian's religion and the Christian's Bible—and so we were to console ourselves with those. The man was disloyal, and such half-hearted allegiance to his country, openly professed by an official of the army, would win for him a court-martial and condemnation.

If a man in the Ministry is curious about authorship and Canonicity and the time of writing of one or another of the books of the Word, where is the need of revealing his restive questionings and his skeptic unrest to his flock to distress and hurt their souls? One of our Bishops quotes aptly that striking utterance of Moody the Evangelist to Adam Smith when he said that "it was folly to preach about two Isaiahs to people who had not found out that there was one." To edify, not to tear down should be the aim of the Pastor as a teacher. Positive truth—not the difficulties or the questionings or the doubts of this, that or the other sour or dyspeptic or disappointed so-called scholar is the biblical and the spiritual food people crave. What I am about to say I utter with the absolute affectionateness of one who loves you—and who speaks it not as fault-finding, but with a Father's concern. It is this: If some of those standing in great pulpits but knew of the soul-hunger of some of their people, and the utter nausea and sickness of heart they have, strong men of their congregations I mean—when they are displaying the views of this or the other critic on God's Word, they would be appalled and pray forgiveness for the neglect to feed the flock, for the poor vanity that led them with an appearance of learning to preach other than the gospel. Such are the revelations to a Bishop—not as complaints—no; these anxious souls are too thirsty for that—they have too much honor and reverence for the office and for the man as God's priest for that. It is the cry simply of hungering, starving souls for food, for the comforts of Christ's Gospel for the Bread of life. Let us remember our seeming learning will be confronted by a better learning when we meet the devout man who knows in whom or in what he believes and our poor scaffolding will fall down before the strong stone tower of his unquestioning, unchanged belief. His attitude will be that of Spurgeon, I think it was, who was addressed by one of the Biblical critics with the question: "Why do you believe the Bible inspired?" His rugged but withering reply was "Because it inspires me."

But my purpose in dwelling upon this theme is a deeper and a more serious one. It has to do with the square question of saving or losing souls to God. Let me tell you an incident. Not long ago I was visiting a certain city—no matter where. In a public place a gentleman probably 27 years of age accosted me. His manner and speech showed the man of culture and of high education. In conversation it soon developed that he had at one time been trained in journalism—a man of earnest, serious mind and heart. “Bishop” said he, “I am troubled. May I speak with you for a little while?” Of course I was glad indeed to talk with any sincere man on the things which belong to the soul. He then proceeded to tell this sad, this terrible, story into my ears. Said he; “I am unmarried. I have lived at home with my dear mother for years. She was a saint. Her Bible was dear to her, and read by her—and she taught me to read it. And I have read it with reverence and regularly all my years. Of course I could not understand parts of it, but all the same it was to me a holy book, and I prized it, and what I learned from it helped me thus far in life—and because there were deep mysteries in it beyond my ken it was therefore all the more wonderful and sacred to me. I know the fallibility and the capacity for mistake and prejudice among men—but especially among those that are called the learned. My long experience in my daily work taught me that. My mother went to Church and found it a home—and in it she had peace. I was somewhat negligent in that duty. It was a habit that grew upon me through my peculiar occupation. I never, however, lost my respect and honor for the Church and what it teaches—and its simple, rich, direct creed appealed to my reason and my emotion and my conscience. It seemed to me definite; it seemed to me a recital of clearly attested truths. Well! my dear mother has passed away peaceful and full of the comfort that her religion gave her. I was heavy-hearted and disconsolate. It may seem unmanly to have taken my bereavement so much to heart. But as I think it over—months have elapsed since then—I am not ashamed to have had the grief I had at the loss of one so sweet and so holy as my mother was. In the whirl of my sorrow I called to see a Clergyman of our Church. I asked some questions about the future. I felt that perhaps he could give me light and comfort regarding the future and Christian hope. To my horror he stated that he knew naught about that. It was an undetermined question as to whether all men—or any lived again—that he had no confidence in the immortal life, that some of the statements in Scripture were against Nature—as the Virgin-birth of Jesus, the unjust demand of God that men should be saved by the slaying of an innocent man to satisfy his justice, that this body which disintegrates so thoroughly should ever possess a restored life, and the like. I listened appalled. Every beautiful doctrine of the Creed I learned from my mother and at my Sunday School was flung to the winds. I felt as though there was no standing place left me. I was as a man falling over a precipice and being torn to pieces on the jagged rocks. I have seen much of the world, but never in my experiences of men and their thoughts have I had so crushing and heart-breaking a surprise. I have been thinking it all over, by night and by day—and it seems to me that if that Clergyman tells me all there is of religion and that what he has rejected is only fable, that the weak and ignorant only hold them, I have been a deluded dupe all these years. God help me. Hope is gone with me forever and the light of my life is quenched.”

I never was confronted with so awful a scene in all my life. The man was the victim of an absolute despair. Finally he said to me, “Bishop, I have introduced myself to you in order to inquire whether you think the same thing about all these teachings of yours—I mean of my Church.” My reply was unhesitating,—“that I believed every article of the holy Creeds in their natural sense, with the meaning that the clear words clearly imply—that every hope I have of happiness here or peace hereafter hangs on that faith, that if I did not believe that my Saviour is God, that He came to this earth and was born of the Virgin Mary, that He suffered, died and rose again in order that I, a lost sinner, might attain to eternal salvation—and that my only hope of that salvation was thro' that Redeemer's sacrifice, and that so I am to rise again from the death which shall have passed upon me to newness of life, and that for all men there is life eternal beyond the grave either of shame or of glory—if I did not believe all this—that these things are—other than poetic fancies than dreaming delusions of the ascetic or the demented—not riddles or curious enigmas or puzzling cryptograms, but truths—God Almighty's eternal truths—then I would tear from my shoulders these sacred robes of my office and fling them into the fire and go forth an untrammelled man, untroubled by a conscience charging me with standing for one thing officially and outwardly, and rejecting it in my heart." He said, "But, Bishop, that Clergyman seemed to have no compunction about making these statements,—and he named him—God forgive him. He, at a time, was a minister in this Diocese." Then said I, the man is a traitor in the Lord's family—as much as Judas was—as much as some of the officers who were members of the Army of the United States before the Civil War and gave their allegiance and their swords for use in the Southern Confederacy were. That man left me still an unhappy and an unhoping man. The iron had entered into his soul—the poison was beating its burning throbs in his very veins. At that priest's door lies perhaps—out in the midnight of despair—a lost soul.

Brethren of the Clergy, what is my closing word—not only take heed how ye hear—but take heed what ye speak.

God help us all to do our duty now and ever.

That we have examined the said report, and that we have found it to be in accordance with the requirements of § 2 of "An Act to Incorporate De Veaux College for Orphan and Destitute Children," passed April 15, 1853, being Chapter 243 of the laws of 1853, as amended, and we recommend that the same be approved.

Dated March 8, 1904.

JOHN E. POUND,
HENRY R. HOPKINS,
NATHANIEL ROCHESTER,
Committee.

Mr Hathaway, a special committee to prepare a suitable minute on the death of the Honorable John E. Pound, made the following report, which was adopted, ordered to be published in The Churchman and sent to the family :

At a regular meeting of the Standing Committee of the Diocese of Western New York, held in Buffalo, on the third of May, 1904, the following minute was unanimously adopted :

Resolved, That in the sudden death of the Hon. John E. Pound, Chancellor of the Diocese, a member of this Standing Committee and Diocesan Boards, taken in the prime of vigorous manhood, we have lost a most valuable member, and as his colleagues feel the loss as a personal bereavement.

Judge Pound was prompt and constant in attendance at the meetings, careful and painstaking in his work, whether it was general or as a member of some sub-committee to which, on account of his excellent judgment and conscientiousness, he was often appointed, and where every detail was by him carefully considered and well weighed. Extremely courteous and kind in his association with his fellow members, each of us learned to love him and value his friendship, while now we deplore his loss.

In sorrow we extend to his family our warmest sympathy ; to the church with which he was connected, our sincere regrets, and place this minute upon our records.

The bill of the John D. Smith Co., for $8.40, for repairing the furnace of the See House, and of the Natural Gas Fuel Co., for $70.00, for putting natural gas and five grates into the See House, were ordered to be paid.

In connection with this, the Standing Committee would advise the Council that the housing of the Rt. Rev. the Bishop of the Diocese is not suitable nor creditable to the Diocese, and therefore recommends that the Council authorizes the Cathedral Chapter to provide a suitable home for the Bishop, and to rent, sell or otherwise dispose of the present See House.

The Committee recommends the remission of the assessments of S. Matthias' Church, East Aurora.

May 17, 1904.

Consent was given Christ Church, Cuba, to place a mortgage of two thousand dollars on a new rectory completed on a lot of land adjoining the church building.

All which is respectfully submitted,

WALTER NORTH,

Secretary.

REPORT OF THE WARDEN OF THE DE LANCEY DIVINITY SCHOOL.

To the Board of Education of the Diocese of Western New York:

The Warden of the De Lancey Divinity School respectfully reports that the four courses of lectures for the year ending June 1, were given as heretofore in the Guild Rooms of Trinity Church, Buffalo, by the kind permission of the Rector, and attended by three of the students of former years, the Rev. Messrs. Henry G. Buisch, Jr., George Huntington and George A. Hurlbut, who will complete their course of study with the examinations to be held this month, and by Messrs. Henry S. Hendy and John V. Cooper, students of the first year. The Rev. William L. Davis attended the first course of lectures for this year, but did not complete the course before his ordination as Priest. The students have all done creditable work through the year, considering the inevitable disadvantage of studying without the constant supervision of an instructor.

To the Library there have been added during the year 138 volumes, not including duplicates of text books for students. It contains now 1,708 volumes, besides 463 duplicates, in all 2,171 volumes. The catalogue, directed by the Board to be published for the use of the Clergy and others interested, is completed and printed, and will be ready for distribution soon.

(C.) REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF DE VEAUX
COLLEGE FOR ORPHAN AND DESTITUTE CHILDREN FOR THE YEAR ENDED
DECEMBER 31, 1903.

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., February 6, 1904.

To the Bishop and Standing Committee of the Diocese of Western New York :

Pursuant to the terms of the Charter of this Corporation the Trustees respectfully herewith submit their annual report for the year ended December 31, 1903.

The total number of boys received upon the foundation during the year 1903 was 34 ; the greatest number present at any one time was 25 ; the least number present at any one time was 23 ; the average number for the year was 24.

The course of training and education remains the same as reported in former years. It is a course of studies recommended by the Regents of the University of the State of New York, and is the same as that commonly followed in the public high schools and the upper grades of the grammar schools of this State.

Schedule A, hereunto annexed, is an exhibit of all transactions in the Endowment Fund of the College during the year 1903, and shows the loans made, and the payment upon loans and contracts received during that year, and the balance of uninvested funds on deposit in the banks on December 31, 1903, as per certificates of such banks thereto attached.

Schedule B, hereunto annexed, is an exhibit of the income account of the College, and shows the sundry receipts and disbursements of that account duly classified, and the cash balance on hand December 31, 1903, as per certificate of the Electric City Bank thereto attached. There are no unpaid bills at the close of the year, and the income of the Corporation has been sufficient to maintain the School, and to pay $1,000 upon its indebtedness.

Schedule C, hereunto annexed, shows a balance sheet of the books of account as at December 31, 1903. It will be noted that past due and accrued interest upon loans are not taken account of as an asset of the Corporation, and that these items amount to a sum more than sufficient to offset the loan carried for running expenses of the Institution.

Schedule D, hereunto annexed, is a statement of bonds and mortgages of "Strickland Fund" at December 31, 1903.

Schedule E, hereunto annexed, is a list of the bonds and mortgages of the "Endowment Fund" at December 31, 1903.

Schedule F, hereunto annexed, is a list of the land contracts of the "Endowment Fund" at December 31, 1903.

Schedule G, hereunto annexed, is a statement of the lands, lots and real estate owned by the Corporation, and which are not carried as an asset of any stated amount in Schedule C.

During the year there were held six meetings of the Board of Trustees, and the attendance of the Trustees at said meetings was as follows:

(F.) REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE EPISCOPATE FUND.

To the Sixty-Seventh Annual Council of the Diocese of Western New York :

The principal of the Episcopate Fund at the present time is as follows :

Real Estate :

Two building lots, corner Market and Garden Streets, Lockport.....	$ 474 50
119 acre farm near Brockport, (sold on land con- tract to Nelson A. Miller).....	3,000 00
House and lot North Colvin Street, Rochester....	1,400 00
Vacant lot, Fillmore Avenue, Buffalo, N. Y.....	3,000 00
	<hr/>	$ 7,874 50
Notes of Parishioners.....		200 00
Cash in Rochester Trust and Safe Deposit Co., 4 per cent. interest		2 22
		<hr/>
Total Episcopate Fund.....		$ 42,836 72

The De Lancey Fund is as follows :

Cash in Rochester Trust and Safe Deposit Co., 4 per cent. interest.....	$1,350 00
Real estate in Fulton County, N. Y., 140 acres ...	850 00
	<hr/>
Total De Lancey Fund....		$ 2,200 00
Total combined funds.....		$ 45,036 72

The only change in the principal of the funds is a loss of $248.00, due to the sale of real estate for less than it was carried upon the books.

Since the last report we have sold the farm of 119 acres near Brockport, Monroe County, which was taken on foreclosure about ten years ago, and which has been carried at $3,048, for $3,150 upon a land contract. $150 of the purchase price was paid down and the balance is to be paid at the rate of $100 a year, with interest at 5 per cent. This sale, therefore, not only shows a profit of $102, but makes this property yield a regular annual income to the fund of about $150.

We have also sold seven vacant lots on Lark Street in Buffalo for $1,050. Although these lots were carried at $1,400, it was thought best to sell them at a loss, inasmuch as they were producing no revenue, and were a source of constant expense. The balance of the Buffalo property consists of a vacant lot on Fillmore Avenue which is carried at $3,000, although we have not been able to secure an offer for it at anything like this figure.

Regarding the other real estate held at this time, we may say that the property in Rochester, consisting of a small house and lot taken on foreclosure in 1890, is rented and produces a net income of about six per cent.; that the Fulton County real estate, consisting of a farm of forty acres, is rented and produces a net income of about four per cent., and that the Lockport property is of doubtful value. In respect to this last property, which is subject to very heavy assessments for street improvements and taxes, amounting to a practical confiscation of the property, the judgment of your trustees is that it is wiser to lose the property than to pay the accumulated taxes against it. Every effort has been made to sell it, without success.

Annexed to this report is a tabulated statement showing the particulars of the mortgages held. The whole fund is now practically invested in bond and mortgage, and the average net yield is about $5\frac{1}{4}$ per cent.

The interest on all mortgages held by the fund which is due at the date of this report has been paid with two exceptions. One of these is the Vandenberg mortgage of $200. This mortgage was originally for $800, and was taken in 1865, and covers premises in Oswego County. The interest has not been paid since April 20, 1901, when two years' accumulated interest was paid. Owing to the comparatively insignificant amount of the mortgage, it has not been deemed advisable to foreclose it. The other mortgage on which interest is overdue is the Marsh mortgage of $1,100 on a 37 acre farm in Genesee County, now owned by W. E. Nichols. We have reason to believe there will be no loss on this mortgage.

The mortgages which have been taken in the last few years are all on improved Rochester real estate. No loan is made until the property has been appraised by one of the trustees, and upon any indication that the mortgagor is becoming lax in his payments, a call is made for a part of the principal.

The receipts of income during the past year have been as follows.

Cash on hand May 12, 1903.....	$ 168 77
From Treasurer of Diocese.....	3,781 76
Interest on investments of permanent funds, rents, etc.	2,025 38
	—————$ 5,975 91

The disbursements have been as follows :

Bishop's salary for 13 months.....	$5,416 66
Taxes and assessments on See House	299 70
Other taxes and expenses connected with real estate.	166 23
Treasurer's expenses for bond, etc.....	20 50
Cash on hand.....	72 82
	—————$ 5,975 91

As compared with last year, the receipts show a gain of $320.21 in the offerings from the parishes received through the treasurer of the Diocese, and a loss of $127.96 in the income from the invested funds, making a net gain of $192.25. We have been able to meet all the obligations of the year and to pay one month's salary to the Bishop in arrears. The arrears on the Bishop's salary now are $833.33. As against this liability we have an asset in interest on the principal fund earned, but not due, of about $750, and cash on hand amounting to $72.82. For the first time, therefore, within the term of any of the present trustees, the fund is out of debt.

The attention of the Council is respectfully called to the fact, which has been foreshadowed in our recent reports, that by reason of the constantly decreasing rate of interest, which we are able to earn upon our invested funds, we must look more and more to the offerings from parishes for the support of the Episcopate. This year, as has been noted, these offerings have increased over the year before $320.21. We recommend that the assessments for next year be made upon a basis of a total requirement of not less than $3,800.

Respectfully submitted,

HIRAM W. SIBLEY,
JOSIAH ANSTICE,
DANIEL BEACH,
WM. B. RANKINE,

(G) REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE PAROCHIAL FUND.

REPORT OF TREASURER, MAY 1, 1904.

Rt. Rev. Wm. D. Walker, D. D. :

RT. REV. AND DEAR SIR—I herewith submit my report as Treasurer of the Board of Trustees of the Parochial Fund for the year ending May 1, 1904.

There have been since the last report the following changes in the fund:

One piece of Michigan land, belonging to the Anne N. Dox Fund of Dresden, was sold for $50 more than the face of our mortgage, and that amount has been added to the principal of that fund.

The congregation of S. Luke's Church, Branchport, have added $50 to that fund.

The interest in the savings bank has been added to the principal of "The Church for Colored People in Geneva" Fund $16.90, making in all an addition of $116.90 to the total principal of our fund.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

JAS. P. MELLEN, Treasurer.

At a meeting of the Finance Committee of the Trustees of the Parochial Fund held this 16th of May, 1904, present all the committee, it was resolved, that the above Annual Report of the Treasurer of the Fund be approved and ordered presented at the Council of the Diocese.

(The item of accrued interest of $308.53 is included in the above deposit.)

Cash on hand in bank to pay annuitants.....	1,230 27
	<hr/> $27,136 28

All accrued interest due on land mortgages has been paid, except on one there is accrued unpaid interest for the last year of $180.

There have been disbursements for annuities and funeral expenses and temporary relief during the past year, $2,875.

Under a resolution passed by the last Council, we add and state that there are on the list of annuitants, 5 clergymen whom we pay $200 per year and 13 widows of deceased clergymen that we pay $150 per year, each payable quarterly.

It is the custom of the trustees to allow $50 to assist in paying funeral expenses in case of death of annuitants, and also temporary relief in cases recommended and approved by the Bishop.

There needs to be elected one trustee in the place of William H. Farnham, whose term expires.

The outgoes have exceeded the income by $473.83, to reduce which there is $180 of interest on mortgage unpaid and promised to be paid in very soon. That will reduce the excess to $293.83.

The trustees understand that it is contrary to their instructions by the Council, but same is owing to offerings not meeting expectations.

Respectfully submitted,

HENRY P. KNOWLES,
Treasurer.

WM. H. FARNHAM,
CHARLES McLOUTH,
HENRY P. KNOWLES,
Trustees.

To the Rt. Rev. Bishop Walker, Bishop of the Diocese of Western New York:

We have examined the foregoing account and securities and find the same in our judgment to be accurate, and the fund as well invested as the times will permit.

May 14, 1904.

JNO. K. WILLIAMSON,
S. N. SAWYER.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., May 10, 1904.

This is to certify that there was to the credit of the account of V. Moreau Smith as Treasurer of the Diocese of Western New York on the above date, twelve hundred twenty dollars and sixty eight cents, ($1,220 68.)

CHAPTER 85.

AN ACT to amend the religious corporations law, relative to annual elections of incorporated Protestant Episcopal parishes.

Became a law March 18, 1904, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, a majority being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows :

Section 1. Section thirty-three of chapter seven hundred and twenty-three of the laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-five, entitled "An act in relation to religious corporations, constituting chapter forty-two of the general laws," as amended by chapter three hundred and fifty-eight of the laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-eight, is hereby amended to read as follows :

§ 33. Annual elections of incorporated Protestant Episcopal parishes.—The annual election of a Protestant Episcopal parish, hereafter incorporated, shall be held on the secular day in the week commencing with the first Sunday in Advent, designated in its certificate of incorporation. The annual election of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal parish or church heretofore incorporated shall be held on the day fixed for such annual election, by or in pursuance of law, or if no such date be so fixed, then on the Monday next after the first Sunday in Advent. Notice of such annual election shall be read by the rector of the parish, or if there be none, or he be absent, by the officiating minister or by a churchwarden thereof, on each of the two Sundays next preceding such election, in the time of divine service, or if, for any reason, the usual place of worship of the parish be not open for divine service, the notice shall be posted conspicuously on the outer door of the place of worship for two weeks next preceding the election. Such notice shall specify the place, day and hour of holding the election, the name and term of office of each churchwarden and vestryman whose term of office shall then expire, or whose office shall then be vacant for any cause, and the office for which each such officer is to be then elected. The presiding officer of such meeting shall be the rector thereof, if there be one, or if there be none, or he be absent, one of the churchwardens elected for the purpose by a majority of the duly qualified voters present, or if no churchwarden be present, a vestryman elected in like manner. Such presiding officer shall be the judge of the qualifications of the voters; shall receive the votes cast; and shall declare the result of the votes cast at such election. The presiding officer of such meeting shall enter the proceedings of the meeting in the book of the minutes of the vestry, sign his name thereto, and offer the same to as many qualified voters present as he shall think fit, to be also signed by them. Only men of full age belonging to the parish, who have been regular attendants at its worship and contributors to its support for at least twelve months prior to such election or since the establishment of such parish, shall be qualified voters at any such election. The action of the meeting upon any matter or question shall be decided by a majority of the qualified voters voting thereon. The polls of the election shall continue open for one hour, and longer, in the discretion of the presiding officer, or if required, by a vote of a majority of the qualified voters present and voting. The churchwardens and vestrymen shall be elected by ballot from persons qualified to vote at such election, and no person shall be eligible for election as churchwarden, unless he be also a communicant in the Protestant Episcopal church, nor be eligible for election as vestryman, unless he shall have been baptized. At each annual election of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal parish hereafter incorporated, one churchwarden shall be elected to hold office for two years; and one-third of the total number of the vestrymen of the parish shall be elected to hold office for three years. At each annual election of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal parish or church heretofore incorporated, two churchwardens and the total number of its vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for one year thereafter, unless the terms of office of but one churchwarden or of but one-third of its vestrymen shall then expire, in which case one churchwarden shall be elected to hold office for two years, and one-third of the total number of its vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for three years. Each churchwarden and vestryman shall hold office after the expiration of his term until his successor shall be chosen.

CHAPTER 208.

AN ACT to amend the religious corporations law in respect to the sale or mortgage of real property.

Became a law March 22, 1902, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows :

Section 1. Section eleven of article one of chapter seven hundred and twenty-three of the laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-five, entitled "An act in relation to religious corporations," constituting chapter forty-two of the general laws, and known as the religious corporations law, as amended by chapter three hundred and thirty-six of the laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-six, and by chapter five hundred and twenty-one of the laws of nineteen hundred, and by chapter two hundred and twenty-two of the laws of nineteen hundred and one, is hereby amended so as to read as follows :

§ 2. Sale, mortgage and lease of real property of religious corporations. A religious corporation shall not sell, or mortgage any of its real property without applying for and obtaining leave of the court therefor, pursuant to the provisions of the code of civil procedure. The trustees of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal church shall not vote upon any resolution or proposition for the sale, mortgage or lease of its real property unless the rector of such church, if it then has a rector, shall be present, and shall not make application to the court for leave to sell or mortgage any of its real property without the consent of the bishop and standing committee of the diocese to which such church belongs ; but in case the see be vacant, or the bishop be absent or unable to act, the consent of the standing committee with their certificate of the vacancy of the see or of the absence or disability of the bishop shall suffice. The trustees of an incorporated Roman Catholic church shall not make application to the court for leave to mortgage, lease or sell any of its real property without the consent of the archbishop or bishop of the diocese to which such church belongs, or in case of their absence or inability to act, without the consent of the vicar-general or administrator of such diocese. The petition of the trustees of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal church or Roman Catholic church shall, in addition to the matters required by the code of civil procedure to be set forth therein, set forth that this section has also been complied with. But lots, plots or burial permits, in a cemetery owned by a religious corporation, may be sold without applying for or obtaining leave of the court. No cemetery lands of a religious corporation shall be mortgaged while used for cemetery purposes.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
